"Normandy Invasion, by Tapit, sire of sires (Frosted, Tonalist, Constitution, Tapiture) has the physical appearance and the same pattern as other successful G1 quality horses that I have selected (Havre de Grace, Songbird, Midnight Lute). This is attested to by his second in the Wood Memorial and fourth in the Kentucky Derby. He possessed both speed and stamina. His track record at a mile on dirt at Gulfstream in 1:33.13 will take an extremely talented horse to break."

SAY IT AGAIN

"I love the babies, each one is like the first one, it's like a miracle."
Pennsylvania breeder Shirley Lojeski, on raising Thoroughbreds

"I have the baby strapped to me, so as long as she lets me we can keep talking."
Trainer Brittany Russell, who doesn't do much without daughter Edy

"I'm thinking of sending him a bag of peppermints from one Heros Reward to another."
Owner/trainer Bob Haynes, whose Heros Reward earned $1.3 million from 2005-13 and is retired on the farm in Laytonsville, Md.; Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert has a 2-year-old with the same name at Santa Anita.

"It's good therapy. I had open heart surgery in February and I walk 2, 3, 4, miles a day to the gap and back, down the shedrow, up the shedrow. The steps really mount up."
Haynes, on the exercise value of training horses

"I don't know, will I get paid for it?"
Jump jockey Jack Doyle, on whether he'd ride a sidesaddle horse during a demonstration at the Pennsylvania Hunt Cup

"They have a blast. There's no pressure on the bad days and you have to drag them out of the winner's circle on the good days."
Trainer Damon Dilodovico, on training for Big Bertha Stable

2 Consecutive Maryland Million Classic wins for stallion Friesan Fire, who sired Saratoga Bob in 2018 and Forest Fire in 2019.

1 Maryland Million win for trainer John Servis, after Forest Fire captured this year's Classic.

2 Maryland Million winners who sold for less than $2,000 as yearlings. Sprint winner Taco Supream cost $1,600 as a yearling in 2016. Distaff Starter winner Yesterdaysplan sold for $1,000 in 2017.

137 Dollars Port Louis paid to win the Maryland Million Starter Handicap Oct. 19. The figure eclipsed the previous Maryland Million record of $134.20 set by Bear Access in 2014.

40 Thoroughbred aftercare organizations accredited (or re-accredited) by the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance in 2019. For a complete list of 74 organizations accredited by the TAA, which has awarded nearly $14 million to such organizations, see thoroughbredaftercare.org.

Pep Talk

People talk to their horses all the time, but new trainer Bob Haynes may be taking things to the extreme–in the best way possible. On a recent morning at Laurel Park, he had a conversation with his Maryland Million winner Port Louis.

"Look, you carry your weight and run as good as you can, I'll tell you what we'll do. We have a farm, it's in Laytonsville, 7¾ acres, Rob Ry Farm. You run halfway decent and I won't put you back in a claiming race anymore and one of these days you can come home with your brothers."

No word yet on how Port Louis responded, but so far so good. He's got a win and a second in two starts.

MILESTONES

Moved: His tack to New York's Aqueduct racetrack from Laurel Park, top apprentice Julio Correa. The 25-year-old native of Caguas, Puerto Rico, led all apprentices in the nation with 114 wins (through Nov. 4). Correa's 43 wins led all jockeys at Laurel's summer meet, the first apprentice to win a title at Laurel since Yomar Ortiz in 2013. "I'm excited. It's a dream of every jockey to ride there," Correa said of New York. "When I first started riding, I dreamed about riding there. If I keep doing good, I hope to stay there."

Received: The Administration award at the Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards presentation at Keeneland Oct. 11, Delaware Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association executive director Bessie Gruwell. Sponsored by Godolphin, the award recognizes individuals in a variety of capacities within the industry. Honorees must have a high standard in organizational, time-management and communication skills; show a great attention to detail and be systems/process driven; suggest innovations and efficiencies; and have positive interactions in the workplace with a team spirit approach. Gruwell was a trainer for 22 years, and served as president of the DTHA from 1998-2005 before accepting the staff position of executive director. "I would like to congratulate Bessie on this honor," said Kevin DeLucia, senior vice president of racing/finance at Delaware Park. "This is the second consecutive year a person from the Delaware Park family has been recognized at the Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards. While these are individual awards, it is really a reflection of the entire team and all of the good, hard-working people we have in the Delaware Park family."

Last year, Lisa See, a groom and assistant trainer for Delaware Park-based Anthony Pecoraro, won the Dedication to Racing award which is annually presented to an outstanding racing stable employee who has shown reliability in a racing role for at least 10 years. Maryland Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association benevolence administrator Bobby Lillis received the Community award at the same ceremony. That honor was announced in August, and honored Lillis for his service to the backstretch communities at Laurel Park and Pimlico Race Course. The Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards, with a total prize money of $128,000, were managed and administered by The Jockey Club, the Horsemen's Protective and Benevolent Association, and the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association.

Champion Shamrock Rose brings $2.5 million at Fasig-Tipton November Sale

The offerings at Fasig-Tipton Kentucky's select November mixed sale in Lexington included Pennsylvania-bred 2018 Eclipse Award-winning female sprinter Shamrock Rose.

The 4-year-old filly last started in April and retired with five wins, all stakes, including the 2018 Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint-G1, for earnings of $968,962.

Bred by Florida-based couple Thomas and Lori Fackler's Best A Luck Farm, she was first offered at auction at the 2017 OBS April 2-year-olds in training sale by her breeders, and was purchased for $120,000 by Conrad Farms, for whom the daughter of First Dude raced her entire career. The next time through the sales ring, on the evening of Nov. 5 at the November Sale, Mike Shannon, agent, purchased her for $2.5 million.

Consigned by Bluewater Sales, agent, Shamrock Rose sold as a broodmare prospect. She descends from the stakes-winning mare Great Lady M., dam of Horse of the Year Lady's Secret.

Of the 14 Mid-Atlantic-breds offered, 10 sold. The eight sold for six figures (with breeder and consignor):

$2,500,000. Shamrock Rose, 2015, b.f., First Dude—Slew's Quality, by Elusive Quality; Best A Luck Farm LLC (Pa.); Bluewater Sales LLC Agent V; Mike Shannon Agent.

What the new Maryland "House Rules" mean

Abridged story by Frank Vespe, posted Nov. 7 in Breaking, Business, Maryland, MD Business, Top Stories. Read the story in its entirety at TheRacingBiz.com.

The bevy of equine safety-related measures heard by the Maryland Racing Commission at its October meeting have colloquially been referred to as "house rules." In fact, however, they are both more—and less—than house rules. What they are is a mixture of proposed regulations, internal Commission policies and, yes, even a house rule or two. Outside of proposed regulations, the Commission did not in general formally vote on the items.

Taken as a group, the rules address areas such as medication policy, the vet's list, the portability of veterinary records, and required workouts, among other topics. The proposals grew out of meeting of Mid-Atlantic regulators and horsemen convened at Delaware Park earlier this year and were discussed by the Commission's own Safety and Welfare Committee.

"Everything that's on here, the whole Mid-Atlantic basically agreed upon, so we took the initiative and went first," said Maryland Jockey Club president Sal Sinatra.

Going first, Sinatra acknowledged, meant in at least one case instituting as a house rule—that is, a rule of the Maryland Jockey Club, applicable only to its properties—provisions that might otherwise have gone through a formal regulatory process.

"It's just timing," he said. "In order to get a regulation, I think it's nine to 12 months." That provision has to do with workouts.

The Commission approved three proposed regulations, thus kicking off the rule-making process that will take months. The proposed regs included defining what "medical records" are as relates to horses; and require that up to three years of veterinary medical records accompany a horse when it changes hands.

The industry's Maryland stakeholders are feeling the need for urgent action. "It's been done for years but the perception of the casual person is that we have to clean a lot of that stuff up," Sinatra said. "That's the kind of thing we talked about as a group."

Commission chairman Michael Algeo agreed. "The thought was that doing what we did with each of those was to create a better, safer environment for the horse," he explained. "The real consensus is that we have got to be on top of these things, to be out in front of it, to do what we think we need to do to make this stuff happen."

Good Night Shirt dies at 18

Maryland-bred Hall of Famer and two-time steeplechase champion Good Night Shirt died of colic in October. He was 18, and essentially a member of the family while retired at Jack and Sheila Fisher's farm in Monkton, Md.

Good Night Shirt's steeplechase career was a blazing comet. After eight starts on the flat, the chestnut gelding made his first hurdle start in April 2005. Four years later, he made his last. In between, he won a dozen races–10 stakes, eight Grade 1–and earned $1,006,493 for owners Sonny and Ann Via and trainer Jack Fisher. Good Night Shirt won Eclipse Awards in 2007 and 2008. From May 2007 to March 2009, he ran 10 times at the highest level and lost just once. The skein included seven consecutive wins. In the end, an ankle injury sidelined him while prepping for a fall campaign in 2009. He had surgery, tried to make a comeback but was ultimately retired. He owed no one.

"I wish I had five more years of his racing career," said Fisher a few days after his stable star died. "He was that good, but when you look at it his career–or the best part of it–really wasn't that long. He was a lot of fun."

In retirement, Good Night Shirt did little to nothing. The ankle injury prevented an active second career, though he filled his days. In a field with a dozen others, he had a sandy "beach" to roll in, a pond for wading and plenty of attention.

"He had a great life, lots of friends out there in the field," said Fisher. "He just kind of relaxed all day."

Bred by Tom and Chris Bowman, the robust chestnut was made for jump racing–even if it took awhile for him to find it. The son of Concern and the Two Punch mare Hot Story didn't make it to a sale for the Bowmans, and didn't race as a juvenile. While in work with trainer Vince Moscarelli at Fair Hill Training Center, Good Night Shirt was purchased by Riverdee Stable and won twice in eight flat starts for trainer Lizzie Merryman in 2004.

Sold to the Vias and Fisher that offseason, the gelding was a steeplechaser by spring. His rookie season included two wins, a maiden at Percy Warner and a Saratoga allowance, and some flashes of promise when fourth and second in novice stakes company to end the year. He won once in 2006, and staved off a timber career by finishing second in the A.P. Smithwick Memorial.

Then came stardom.

Second in his 2007 debut, the Grade 1 Royal Chase at Keeneland, Good Night Shirt raced exclusively in Grade 1 company and won the Iroquois (over champion McDynamo and two-time race winner Sur La Tete), dominated the Lonesome Glory at Belmont Park, finished fourth (to McDynamo) in the Grand National at Far Hills and won the Colonial Cup to claim the championship throne.

His 2008 campaign was one of the best of all-time. Five starts, all Grade 1 stakes, five wins, nothing but convinced witnesses. He won the Georgia Cup in April, the Iroquois in May, the Lonesome Glory in September, the Grand National in October and the Colonial Cup in November. He earned a single-season record $485,520. He and jockey Willie Dowling left no doubts, and received 217 of 219 first-place votes in the Eclipse balloting.

He returned the next season and won the Carolina Cup to run his winning streak to seven, but finished second to Pierrot Lunaire in the Iroquois.

In 2017, Good Night Shirt became the 19th steeplechase horse (and eighth Maryland-bred) to make Thoroughbred racing's Hall of Fame. In addition to the two Eclipse Awards, he was the 2008 Maryland-bred Horse of the Year, the only steeplechaser so honored, and repeating the crown won by his sire Concern in 1994 and grandsire Broad Brush in 1986 and 1987.

Harry the Hat

LYDIA A. WILLIAMS

"He's wonderful; he's the best horse ever. He's the world's largest lap dog. And I guess that's all I need to say."

Peter Giangiulio said a great deal more than that about Harry the Hat. After 25 years at Giangiulio's Castle Rock Farm in West Chester, Pa., the 30-year-old retired stallion reigns supreme among the small band of elder statesmen pensioned on the 170-acre property.

While he was considered "an underachiever" on the racetrack, with a record of 36-3-5-7 and $76,108 earned, it would have been difficult for any horse to live up to his spectacular pedigree. Bred in Kentucky by Louis and Patrice Wolfson, David Ringler and Ethel Jacobs, the son of Seattle Slew was produced by the Affirmed mare Affirmatively. Though she won just two races, Harry the Hat's dam was racing royalty as a daughter of the Hail to Reason mare Straight Deal. She won 21 races, placed in another 30 and earned $733,020 for Patrice Wolfson's parents Ethel and Hirsch Jacobs. In 1967, she made 22 starts–winning, among other races, the Delaware Handicap, Spinster, Vineland, Top Flight, Bed o' Roses and Orchid–and was named champion handicap mare.

Jeanne Vance purchased the colt at the 1990 Keeneland July Select Yearling sale for $575,000, and he began his career for her at Saratoga in July 1991. He finally broke his maiden for his patient owner nearly a year later at Calder.

Vance protected her colt from the claim box, running in allowance races for three seasons before consigning him to Belmont's horses of racing age sale at the end of 1993. He was purchased for $25,000 by Roy and Carol Ann Farrell and sent to trainer Pam Shavelson at Philadelphia Park (now Parx Racing) for the start of the 1994 season.

Giangiulio saw Harry the Hat in the entries and immediately honed in on the horse's exceptional bloodlines. He knew Shavelson and the Farrells casually, but enough to approach them with a proposition.

"I talked to Pam, and then every time Harry ran, I went to the track. He was drop-dead gorgeous, just extra-special. And I talked to Mr. Farrell to the point where he finally said to me 'Look, leave me alone . . . it's his last year, and you're gonna get the horse.' So I said to Pam, 'Listen, if I get this horse I'll take care of you. Put in a good word; you know what we do here [at the farm]–he'll have a long and happy life.' She said–and I've never forgotten this and have loved her for it every minute–'I don't want any money, I just want you to take care of my horse.'"

Giangiulio exceeded his end of the bargain. A past president of the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association and board member for 42 years, Giangiulio has owned Castle Rock Farm with his sister, Barbara Geraghty, since 1979. Farm manager June Hillman has held her post since 1995, shortly after Harry the Hat arrived. At one point, the first initials of the Castle Rock stallion roster spelled out the acronym for the breeders' association: Power of Mind, Harry the Hat, Bombardier and Alyten.

"When he was standing at stud, he was easily the best-bred horse in Pennsylvania," Giangiulio said. "And at that time I was standing a Mr. Prospector, a Deputy Minister, an Alydar and Harry. And here he is, literally 25 years later. He does great; he's just fantastic."

Harry the Hat's best offspring came early in his stud career. Betty's Hat, a foal of 1996 bred in Pennsylvania by Susan Walmer, was a multiple stakes winner of 13 races and $364,588. The daughter of the Allen's Prospect mare Bear No Evil was "a flat runner," according to Giangiulio. "Betty's Hat was something."

Several show- and sport-horse mares were bred to Harry the Hat over the years as well. Some of those breeding contracts were creative, if unconventional.

"I traded a breeding to Harry for riding lessons for my daughter with a next-door neighbor, Gaye Cohen, and I kept the mare at the farm. Gaye sold the foal out of the ring at Devon for $35,000 as a yearling."

Harry the Hat's last foal, Deerstalker, is a homebred for Giangiulio and currently in training. Now 5, he is out of another homebred–Just Contrary, by Power by Far. Giangiulio explained the clever twist to the gelding's name.

"Sherlock Holmes' hat is called a deerstalker. So a deerstalker is the hat of the most contrary figure in literature. And he's been a very useful horse."

Deerstalker's crop was Harry the Hat's last; in 2014, he failed to get any of the few mares bred to him in foal.

"Then we stopped on him," Giangiulio said. "And his pension plan is all paid up."

Four stallions still reside at Castle Rock Farm. In addition to Harry the Hat, the squad includes Partners Hero, 25; Power by Far, 24; and Rimrod, 19. Those three still breed when booked, but Castle Rock has no plans to stand more stallions.

Castle Rock Farm has operated as half-Thoroughbred nursery, half-boarding facility for several years. Hillman oversees that end of the business, which Giangiulio refers to as "the Happy Face Place."

"June is unbelievable in the atmosphere she promotes. And these people love coming here. You walk into that barn, and everyone is smiling. There's no controversy, no argument, it's just so pleasant."

One of Hillman's current projects is another homebred Harry the Hat gelding named Teflon Tony. The 9-year-old out of Not Very Ladylike (by Bombardier) ran 44 times and earned $170,282.

"Tony was one of Harry's most consistent and wonderful offspring, and he's just like his father. He's a love," Giangiulio said. "My trainer, Alan Bedard, just loved him. I ended up selling him and we got him back here through the Turning For Home program. June is reschooling him and we'll place him in a permanent home."

Hillman shared a few of Harry the Hat's endearing traits. When visited by children attending a nearby camp years ago, he developed the habit of sticking out his tongue whenever one of them touched his nose. It became a lifelong habit. Any visitor stroking his nose is presented with his (occasionally rather sloppy) tongue.

One ear pitches forward if something gets the horse's attention, but the other remains cocked in another direction, as if he's constantly listening to everything going on around him. "That's a Harry thing," Hillman relayed.

Giangiulio checks on the four old boys himself every night, and Harry the Hat remains the sentimental favorite. He trots into his in-and-out stall each time his owner arrives, nickering a greeting in exchange for his evening snack of a handful of grain.

"These horses are your lifeline," Giangiuilo said. "And it's been a really nice adventure with Harry. He's just so happy, one of those cultured individuals. We love the old guy." ✹

Sagamore-bred makes history at Breeders' Cup

Horses don't make history too often, but that's what Sharing did when she landed the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf-G1 at Santa Anita last month. Sagamore Farm, Maryland and the region came along for the ride.

The 2-year-old filly became just the fourth Maryland-bred to win a Breeders' Cup race–joining Cigar (1995 Classic), Concern (1994 Classic) and Safely Kept (1990 Sprint). Beyond that, Sharing helped her dam Shared Account gain membership in an exclusive club too as she became the fourth Breeders' Cup-winning mare to produce a Breeders' Cup winner–joining 1988 Distaff winner Personal Ensign (whose daughter My Flag won the 1995 Juvenile Fillies), My Flag (whose daughter Storm Flag Flying won the 2002 Juvenile Fillies) and 1993 Distaff winner Hollywood Wildcat (whose son War Chant won the 2000 Mile).

At Sagamore Farm, the historic Glyndon farm where Sharing was foaled, they cheered. Loudly. Known today as the base of Under Armour founder Kevin Plank's Thoroughbred operation, Sagamore owns a history of excellence rivaling any farm in the world thanks to Hall of Famers Native Dancer, Bed o' Roses, Discovery and a long list of others.

But the people at Sagamore also wondered what might have been as Sharing and Shared Account were sold in 2018.

"I'd be lying if I said it wasn't bittersweet," said Hunter Rankin, president of the farm. "But obviously when you raise a horse especially out of that mare, with all the history we had with her, you want the absolute best for the filly and the connections. It's very, very special–for our team, the people who were around her every day. That's what I'm most excited about, that they did such a fine job with her and they were rewarded with a Breeders' Cup winner."

Born at Sagamore on March 2, 2017, Sharing was part of a genetic anomaly as the farm's entire 13-foal crop consisted of fillies. She and the others were raised on the farm under the guidance of Debbie Moorfield, Jose Vega and a host of other staffers. Two yearlings went to the Maryland Horse Breeders Association yearling show. A daughter of Ghostzapper, since named Anima Gemella and as yet unraced, finished second in her class. A chestnut by champion sprinter Speightstown, Sharing didn't get a ribbon–not that it really mattered in the big picture.

No, the big picture involved selling some of those 13 fillies. There was value behind those pedigrees, a chance to add income to the farm's budget lines. One of the first horses purchased for Plank's version of Sagamore in 2007, Shared Account won the 2010 Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf and two other graded stakes while earning $1,649,427. The daughter of Pleasantly Perfect's produce record was just OK however–one winner from three starters by Bernardini, Distorted Humor and Street Cry (Ire) at the time.

"We hadn't had a lot of luck with the mare in terms of what she had thrown," Rankin said. "This filly was very correct, nice bodied, always did things the right way. She was the standout. We thought it would be a good opportunity to sell and recoup some of the investment we'd made. It's a business, it's what everybody weighs in this game."

Sharing rewarded Rankin's opinion, selling for $350,000 at Fasig-Tipton's Saratoga yearling sale in 2018. By year's end, Sagamore sold Shared Account too as the mare brought $550,000 on a bid by Sam-Son Farm at Keeneland November while in foal to Mastery. That's $900,000 earned, just from one mare and her foal.

Sharing's buyer Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners added Gainesway Stable as a partner at the sale and watched their charge finish third in her debut at Saratoga and then win her next three–a Saratoga maiden, Laurel Park's Selima Stakes and the Breeders' Cup.

Rankin watched too, proud but also realistic.

"I wish we'd kept her, but you can't say what would have happened and you can't keep them all," he said. "I'm just glad she ended up in the situation she ended up in. I remember the day she was bought. She'd been looked at by a lot of people at the sale. We are thrilled for Eclipse, and Graham Motion (who also trained Shared Account), Gainesway and the entire team that's been around her. We're jealous of the results obviously, but we're cheering for them."

And looking ahead. Sagamore is still trying to breed winners. The farm still owns Shared Account's stakes-winning daughter Riley's Choice. She was expecting a Blame foal in 2020 and will stay in the broodmare band. Maybe she could go to Speightstown. Maybe history can repeat itself. Maybe success can breed more success.

"It gave us confidence," Rankin said of striving for even more on racing's biggest stages. "We've never bred a filly that could go do that, not since we've had the farm. Mr. Vanderbilt did it with all the nice horses he bred here and others have done it in Maryland, but it lets you know it can happen. It's an important thing for everybody."

Forest Fire (white bridle) fights past Prendimi in the stretch of the Maryland Million Classic.

Lojeski, Servis win MD Million Classic with Pennsylvania-bred Forest Fire

By Joe Clancy. Photographs by Rick Buckley

Shirley Lojeski called her Pennsylvania farm between Philadelphia and Allentown "a small operation," which makes sense in October. When she's in the midst of foaling season, helping 25 or so mares deliver, the place feels anything but small.

"Foaling season is a long time and, no, it doesn't feel small then," she said. "I'm the night watchman and the day watchman too."

The work pays off sometimes, especially with a horse like Forest Fire. Foaled at Lojeski Farms in Emmaus, the 4-year-old son of Friesan Fire won a race-long battle with Prendimi to take the $150,000 Maryland Million Classic at Laurel Park Oct. 19. The feature race on the 34th edition of Jim McKay Maryland Million Day, the Classic attracted a big field of 11 but was a two-horse race late.

New Jersey-bred Prendimi set the pace, and was matched by Forest Fire who set up just off the leader through early fractions of :24.49 and :49.25. Trained by John Servis, the winner advanced from a half-length down to tackle Prendimi in earnest after 6 furlongs in 1:13.40, and they battled through the stretch. The 3-1 second choice, Forest Fire put his head in front in mid-stretch, and held on to score by a half-length in 1:50.42 for 1⅛ miles with 12-1 Prendimi second and 6-1 Tappin Cat third. Favorite Clubman settled for seventh while 2018 race winner Saratoga Bob finished 10th.

Paco Lopez rode the winner, and was impressed.

"John told me, 'Paco, put the horse right there. You have a very good post so if somebody wants to go crazy, let them go and you can sit second or third.' I just wanted to see how the race played out," Lopez said. "I had great position and the pace was good, and turning for home he was just going easy and was able to hold off that horse."

Forest Fire won for the third consecutive time, adding his first stakes to back-to-back allowance scores at Parx Racing over the summer. The dark bay gelding won four times in 2018, and continues to improve while pushing his career earnings to $269,490.

"He's very good right now," said Servis. "He's always been a nice kind of horse, but had a couple issues we had to stop on him for. I've had him since the beginning and always liked him. I love the way he does things."

Servis trained Forest Fire's dam Majestic Forestry, whose racing career included just four starts (and four losses) in 2010. As a broodmare with Lojeski, the daughter of Forestry and the Deputy Minister mare Fumble has produced minor winners Shimerville and Hailey's Way in addition to Forest Fire. The produce record could be better, but is improving, and Lojeski isn't about to give up.

"She's my Zenyatta," Lojeski said with a laugh. "She just didn't want to run, so I ended up with her as a broodmare. If she's not in the mood, she's not in the mood so she's been empty a few years."

Majestic Forestry (carrying an Irish War Cry foal for 2020) is a good mother though, and raises strong–and strong-minded–foals.

"They're all kind of like Mom, they don't want to be caught when they're young," Lojeski said. "That part's not easy. You had to bring everybody in the field in to catch [Forest Fire]. They all take after her in that respect. Most of the time, she just wants to be out with the girls."

After sending her mare to Eurosilver, Petionville, El Padrino and Jump Start, Lojeski chose Country Life Farm's Friesan Fire for the 2014 mating. The nicking worked, she said, and the stallion looked the part too. At Country Life, Majestic Forestry made an immediate impression too.

"She was one of the most gorgeous mares we've ever had on the farm," said Country Life's Christy Holden. "Just a big, beautiful mare with a lot of presence to her. I hadn't seen Forest Fire until the Maryland Million, but he struck me as just like her. He's a beautiful, gorgeous horse."

For Servis, the stakes win was special because of a long partnership with Lojeski.

"She hired me in 1985 I think," said the trainer. "She just asked me to take a horse for her. I had a small stable and was just getting started. We became great friends and I've trained horses for her forever. She can call me if she needs anything, anything. She'll ask me about stallions, that's her thing, the breeding and the pedigree stuff."

Family Affair

At the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale in early October, trainer Brittany Russell had to convince the spotters she was actually bidding–and not just burping the baby. Russell patted her daughter Edy's back with one hand, and bid with the other, to land a Mosler colt for $10,000.

It's two Classics in a row for Friesan Fire–his son Forest Fire, with Paco Lopez aboard, returns after taking this year's running for owner/breeder Shirley Lojeski and trainer John Servis.

Edy, then just 5 weeks old, never moved.

"She doesn't care, she likes the noise," Russell said then. "I think I'm indecisive on a daily basis so it had nothing to do with her, but I hesitated a little and they were like 'Are you sure?'"

Russell was sure. The purchase, in partnership with Jody Quinn of Dark Horse Racing, continued a strategy of buying relatively inexpensive Maryland-breds with potential and paid off when another cheap purchase won the $100,000 Maryland Million Lassie for 2-year-old fillies. Russell and Dark Horse spent just $6,500 on Hello Beautiful at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic December mixed sale.

"The point was to just find a Maryland-bred we liked and when you spend $6,500 on a horse they don't have to be a superstar for you to be successful," said Russell, the former Brittany Trimble who is now married to jockey Sheldon Russell. "You can be aggressive if you need to. We got lucky with her. She turned out to be much better than she had to be."

Hello Beautiful finished third in her first start at Pimlico in May, and graduated the maiden ranks two starts later at Laurel. After that 5½-length romp, she caught the attention of bigger racing players and is now owned by Madaket Stables, Mark Frasetto, Mark Parkinson, K-mac Stables and Magic City Stables. The daughter of Golden Lad lived up to the high-end connections in the Lassie, and 9-5 favoritism, fighting for the early lead through fractions of :22.24 and :45.64, then pulling away in the stretch for Sheldon Russell. She won by 3¾ lengths in 1:10.33 for 6 furlongs. Second choice Stickingtogether finished second with Worstbestideaever third.

The win was Brittany Russell's first in a stakes, and continued the quick rise of a training career which began in February 2018. Clients such as the group involved with Hello Beautiful help the cause.

"When she broke her maiden, we had some interest," she said of potential buyers. "Jody and I discussed a number. She had already made us money and we said, 'At end of day, let's make sure it's worth it.' The early interest from people wasn't the right situation. Face it, they're all for sale–for the right price. But I said, 'What about leaving her with me through Maryland Million?' and a lot of them weren't interested in it. These guys were and it worked out perfect."

Like she does with most things, Hello Beautiful is handling the success with aplomb. Bred by Hillwood Stables out of the Tiznow mare Hello Now, she's in the first stall of her trainer's Laurel Park 15-stall shedrow where the most important part of her day involves angling for peppermints and awaiting the next assignment.

Hello Beautiful (Golden Lad) pulls away to win the Lassie for 2-year-old fillies, prompting a victory kiss between trainer Brittany Russell and her husband Sheldon.

"She's super spoiled but in the right way," said Brittany Russell. "She's lovely, a real big personality."

She's also may soon have some company. That Mosler colt purchased in October is her half-brother.

FUELED BY The Mill

Mr. d'Angelo's Arrival

Visit trainer Tim Woolley's barn at Fair Hill Training Center to see Mr. d'Angelo and be prepared to get nudged, nuzzled, nipped and otherwise paid attention to. The gray 3-year-old wants to know what you're all about and will work to find out, no matter how you feel.

Just don't offer to lead him to the track.

"As mellow as he is in the stall, he's kind of difficult on the track," said Woolley. "He has to go up there and back with the pony, he kind of has to train off the pony and all that. He's been quite the challenge all year."

Woolley, who rides many of his horses in the morning, has passed that joy to exercise rider Fernando Molina with Mr. d'Angelo. Woolley rides the lead pony, which brings its own challenges. The extra efforts paid off in a strong 2019. Mr. d'Angelo won his career debut at 27-1 in April, placed in a claimer and two allowances, and then prevailed in a crowded Maryland Million Turf to end his season.

LYDIA A. WILLIAMS

Mr. d'Angelo (left), a son of the late Seville (Ger), charges past everybody in the stretch to win take the wide-open Turf, topping a $573 exacta.

As it frequently does, the $125,000 Turf lured a big field of 14. The stakes-placed Taxable Goods and three-time winner Street Copper took most of the public's attention, but five horses started at shorter than 10-1. Mr. d'Angelo and Jevian Toledo broke near the back and was soon more than 13 lengths off the early pace of Nicki de Nephew. Still 12th after 6 furlongs in 1:12.52, Mr. d'Angelo got closer on the final turn and swung seven wide to collar 32-1 runner-up Somekindofmagician in the stretch and win by 1¾ lengths at 17-1. Pretty Good Year, 21-1, finished third as Street Copper wound up fifth and Taxable Goods checked in ninth. The $1 exacta paid $573.40.

Woolley loved the way the son of Seville (Ger) kept trying late.

"He comes from off the pace so he's always going to face a lot of traffic," said the trainer of his first Maryland Million winner. "He got the perfect trip, the perfect pace scenario and it came together. He's gradually been improving all year, but to jump up like that against those horses was a huge step for him. He's always shown flashes of ability, but he's never put it together like that."

Bred in Maryland by owner Kevin Morgan, who owns part of the former Woodstock Farm of Allaire duPont in Chesapeake City, Md., Mr. d'Angelo collected $68,750 to more than double his career earnings. The gray gelding is a Marylander, going way back. His third dam, the Kentucky-bred Soap, raced for R.F. Procopio and trainer King T. Leatherbury in 1979 and 1980 and produced 18-time Maryland-bred winner Endless Surprise. Another Maryland-bred foal, Bubbleover, won seven races in the 1990s for co-breeders Joseph Carter and Donelson Christmas Jr. and Ernest Green. Her Maryland-bred daughter Suds (by Housebuster) won once for Carter and Patrick McGill and is the dam of Mr. d'Angelo.

Morgan had his first runners in 2017 and has been active as a breeder and owner at the track and in the sales ring.

As for Mr. d'Angelo, he'll get the rest of the year off to hopefully fill into his small-ish frame and come back for more in 2020. Woolley, and the lead pony, will be ready.

"He's just got a lot of exuberance and doesn't know how to contain it," said the trainer of the morning adventures. "He's never going to be very tall, but stocky-wise he'll fill out a bit. He's got an amazing turn of foot and he's that kind of horse who can completely switch off until he gets his cue to pick up the pace and go. He's fun to watch when it all goes right."

Taco Supream spices up Sprint

When you share a barn with Maryland-bred sprint dynamo Laki, whose career earnings of $468,632 dwarf yours, it might be difficult to get some attention.

But Taco Supream sure is giving it a go. The chestnut 4-year-old gelding ran down heavy favorite Call Paul in the stretch of the 6-furlong Sprint–prevailing by three-quarters of a length in 1:08.80 for Big Bertha Stable and trainer Damon Dilodovico. Last year's Sprint winner Lewisfield finished third with the Dilodovico-trained Laki settling for fifth.

Bred by Ann Jackson, the winner was not necessarily destined to be a sprinter as his dam Barouchka (by Not For Love) is a half-sister to Maryland Hunt Cup winner Raven's Choice, but Taco Supream has thrived at shorter distances in 2019. The Maryland Million win gave the son of El Padrino seven consecutive finishes of second or better—all this year, all at 7 furlongs or less.

Sheldon Russell pumps his fist after he and Taco Supream catch heavy favorite Call Paul in the stretch of the Sprint. Steve Tiller, a partner in Big Bertha Stable, celebrates afterward.

Taco Supream sold for $1,600 as a Fasig-Tipton Midlantic yearling in 2016 and made his first five starts for C and B Stable and trainer Charles Frock. Dilodovico claimed the Maryland-bred for $25,000 out of a win in January 2018. He lost his first five for the new connections, but has won five times since.

Ournationonparade wins Nursery

John "Jay" Williamson III realized a dream in the Nursery—even if was a touch bittersweet.

Ournationonparade, the fourth foal out of a mare Williamson purchased, sold and bought back for breeding purposes, couldn't have won the 6-furlong Nursery more impressively. Trained by Bernie Houghton and ridden by Inoel Beato, the gelding won by almost 4 lengths in a sharp 1:09.73 as the even-money favorite.

It was hardly unexpected. In his first start Sept. 8 at Laurel, he was caught near the finish by Double Crown, another first-time starter. They were two Maryland-breds in an open maiden special weight that looked like something special. And the Maryland Million was a little more than a month away.

Telephones, including Williamson's began ringing. Williamson had never experienced it before and was beside himself given his attachment to the mare, Parade of Colors, and her progeny. It wasn't an easy decision, but one of the offers was too difficult to turn down. So Ournationonparade won the Nursery for Reeves Thoroughbred Racing, which also purchased Double Crown from Debbie Rhodes.

"That should have been me out there [in the winner's circle]," Williamson said, shaking his head after the Nursery. "That should have been me."

The story of Williamson and Parade of Colors goes back to the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale in 2009. The filly brought a bid of $2,200, failed to sell, and breeder Roy Lerman opted not to transport her back to Florida, Williamson said. So he and Marshall Silverman, who consigned the filly, purchased her privately.

Parade of Colors reappeared in the auction ring at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-year-olds in training sale as part of the Silverman consignment and sold for $15,000. She broke her maiden in her second start in 2010 at Laurel for Clover Hill Racing and trainer Tim Keefe and the following year won an allowance race at Laurel.

Ournationonparade flies down the stretch to take the Nursery in his first start for Reeves Racing, which purchased the son of Cal Nation from breeder Jay Williamson after a second in his debut. Trainer Bernie Houghton greets Inoel Beato after the win.

"She was eventually claimed by Jamie Ness for Midwest Thoroughbreds," Williamson said. "Watching her grow up meant a lot to me. She had a few problems, and one day I saw Jamie and said, 'If you ever get tired of her I'd like to have her.' He said, 'Pick her up when you're ready.' I just really liked her."

Williamson, a former trainer and an avid racing memorabilia collector who lives in Reisterstown, Md., and works on race days for the Maryland Racing Commission, sent Parade of Colors to Sherry Rudolph in Sparks to get her ready for a breeding career. She was bred to Cal Nation.

Her first foal, named Parade of Nations by Williamson, is still in training and has earned almost $270,000 with 11 wins in 34 starts. The full-brother to Ournationonparade won his career debut at Pimlico Race Course at 2 and was claimed from Williamson for $25,000 in his sixth start.

The mare also produced Parade of Freedom, by Freedom Child; and Tri Try Colors, by Tritap. Her fifth foal, by Mosler, is her first filly. She is a yearling and will be trained by Houghton, who conditioned all of her foals for Williamson.

"They've all been raised at Sherry's farm, and then they've all gone to Sylmar Farm in Pennsylvania," said Williamson, who makes regular trips to the Houghton family's farm to check on his horses. "All of them were foaled at Country Life except for Parade of Freedom, who was foaled at Dr. [Michael] Harrison's farm."

She missed a year, but "She's back in foal to Mosler. I just got attached to her because we got her from Roy."

Though he no longer owns Ournationonparade, Williamson is eligible for the 30-percent Maryland-bred bonuses when the gelding races in his home state. Dean Reeves, on hand to see his new purchase win the Nursery, indicated that could be the case.

"He did what you like to see a good horse do—he broke well and the jockey did a great job letting him settle," said Reeves, who has campaigned the likes of Grade 1 winner Mucho Macho Man among others. "I have an affinity for buying second-place horses in their first race. He looked like a nice horse to take a chance on. We bought three Maryland-breds and we intend to race them here."

Houghton, who trains at Penn National Race Course but is no stranger to Maryland tracks, was high on Ournationonparade before his first start.

"Mr. Reeves was smart enough to see him galloping out that day and he knew he was something special," the trainer said. "I told him he just needed that race under his belt and he was going to be a lot better (in the Nursery). He proved it. This horse really can run."

Maryland Million Notes

■ Matt Schera's Maryland-bred Zonda, who nearly went over the inside rail in the Bald Eagle Derby at Laurel Sept. 21, drew into the $125,000 Maryland Million Ladies after a scratch and prevailed—winning by 1½ lengths for trainer Chuck Lawrence and jockey Victor Carrasco.

Bred by Caroline Stautberg's Willow Oaks Stable, the daughter of Scat Daddy won for the third time in eight starts (all this year) and boosted her value for the auction ring in Fasig-Tipton Kentucky's November Sale where she brought $500,000 on a bid by Live Oak Stud. Schera paid $155,000 at Fasig-Tipton's Saratoga yearling sale in 2017.

FUELED BY The Mill

■ Better known as the owner of $1.3 million earner Heros Reward and 2006 Maryland Million Classic winner Due, Bob Haynes became a trainer this summer and was immediately rewarded with a winner as Port Louis pulled a massive upset in the 7-furlong Maryland Million Starter Handicap. Claimed by Haynes in July, the 4-year-old paid $137 to win.

The 3-year-old Maryland-bred filly Zonda and Victor Carrasco set sail in the Ladies.

Port Louis (Despite the Odds) gives longtime owner Bob Haynes his first win as a trainer.

Haynes worked as a jockey's agent for years and enjoyed plenty of thrills as an owner, but the training interest was always there. After open heart surgery in February, he vowed to make it a reality. He passed the test, got stalls at Laurel Park and—inspired by the birth of his first grandson Roy that day—claimed Port Louis for $5,000 July 28. Bred by Anchor and Hope Farm, the son of Despite the Odds finished second in Haynes' training debut Sept. 6 and then pulled the big upset.

Haynes watched the race with his fiancée/exercise rider/groom Vicki Irons, who gallops horses for trainer Dale Capuano, and was overjoyed watching it all unfold.

"When we were in deep stretch and it appeared like we had a shot to get there, Vicki started crying, and as I walked through the crowd I started to get tears in my eyes too," said Haynes, 65. "It was like bumper cars getting to the winner's circle. I know probably half the people there and I got, 'Congratulations Bob' from all of them and I kept saying, 'Come on in.' There were probably 50 people in the winner's circle.

"It was the experience of a lifetime and I mean this from the bottom of my heart, for a guy that was real sick in 2017 and '18 and even this year, for me to pass my trainer's test, get my license, get stalls and have an opportunity to be around these magnificent animals . . . if I never, ever saddle another horse in my life I'm good."

■ Former steeplechase jockey Carl Rafter won the opener, the $60,000 Turf Distaff Starter Handicap, as the trainer of Smokin Caraquena.

The 4-year-old daughter of Hunters Bay prevailed by a nose for her third win of 2019. She won a $10,000 maiden claimer (at 48-1) at Colonial Downs in August and added a $16,000 conditioned claimer at Laurel in September for the Virginia-based Rafter and owner Jennifer Taylor.

The winner, sold for $2,300 as a short yearling at Fasig-Tipton Midlantic's January mixed sale in 2016, was bred in Maryland by Mr. and Mrs. John Price.

■ Trainer Milan Milosevic won the $60,000 Turf Starter Handicap with 5-year-old Mast Track gelding Bowsprit, who won by a neck for owner Silhouette LLC. Bred by Ted Mudge IV, the Maryland-bred collected his fourth lifetime win and first of 2019.

■ Owner Smart Angle won the $60,000 Distaff Starter Handicap with 3-year-old filly Yesterdaysplan, who scored by a head for trainer Mark Reid. The Maryland-bred daughter of Plan and the Pioneering mare Yesterdaystouch came from well back in a field of nine to edge favorite Esterina late. The winner was bred by Kevin Morgan, and purchased for $1,000 at Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale by Cesar Nambo in 2017. Nambo lost her via a $25,000 claim in November 2018 and she was claimed for $5,000 by her current connections in July. The four-time winner pushed her career earnings to $104,968.

■ Total wagering handle reached $6,531,109, a slight increase over 2018 and the highest since a record $7.8 million in 2007. Though down about 2,000 from 2018, attendance of 20,111 topped 20,000 for the fourth consecutive year. ✹

Bowsprit (white cap, center) leads the gallop out after winning the Turf Starter Handicap for owner/breeder Ted Mudge.

Speedy Robb filly turns unique double with West Virginia, Maryland wins

By Tom LaMarra

Anna's Bandit was meant to be good.

As a 2-year-old in 2016, the West Virginia-bred and Maryland-sired filly made her first start in a maiden special weight at Laurel Park in early May and crushed the competition by almost 7 lengths in a short sprint. She then finished third in the Astoria Stakes at Belmont Park in June and second after a slow start in the Debutante Stakes at Churchill Downs a month later.

She didn't race again until the following September. As trainer Jerry Robb detailed, Anna's Bandit as a weanling broke both sesamoids on the farm, but he wasn't made aware of it and didn't find out until she was X-rayed during her 2-year-old season. She required multiple surgeries to correct the damage.

Her comeback—five races in the final three months of 2017—was promising as she won a pair of allowance races at Laurel, and in early 2018 she was even better, with stakes victories at Laurel and Charles Town.

As her 4-year-old campaign progressed, Anna's Bandit went back to Charles Town after five consecutive losses for the state-bred Sadie Hawkins Stakes, a prep for the West Virginia Breeders Classics in October. She won the 7-furlong race and in the process defeated highly regarded local filly Moonlit Song.

That set the stage for an unusual move—two races on consecutive weekends.

In the $125,000 West Virginia "Cavada" Breeders Classic, Anna's Bandit faced Late Night Pow Wow, who had just won the Charles Town Oaks-G3, and Moonlit Song. It was a strong renewal of the Cavada, and the No Guts No Glory Farm-owned filly settled for third behind her two more accomplished rivals.

Robb wheeled Anna's Bandit back a week later in the $100,000 Maryland Million Distaff. She finished third behind favored Crabcakes in an even effort and completed 2018 with a fourth and a third in two stakes at Laurel.

Four wins, a second and five thirds in 13 starts for earnings of $182,755 is hardly a bad season. But Anna's Bandit was just getting started.

From Jan. 10 through Oct. 19 this year, the 5-year-old daughter of Great Notion and the No Armistice mare Onearmedbandit won eight races, six stakes, in 10 starts. And the last two came on back-to-back weekends.

Last year's pair of threes at Charles Town and Laurel turned into a pair of aces this year for Robb and his wife, Gina.

In the Oct. 12 Cavada Breeders Classic, this year worth $175,000, Anna's Bandit rated early through a fast pace under regular rider Xavier Perez, coasted toward the lead on the second of two turns and pulled away with ease to win the 7-furlong test by 5½ lengths. The victory had Gina Robb in tears in the winner's circle.

"Every time she runs it builds up to another obstacle, and she keeps clearing them," she said in reference to the mare's history. "It means so much to my husband, so much more than it does for me."

Jerry Robb was immediately asked if he'd attempt another double in the Maryland Million Distaff. He didn't believe the race took much out of Anna's Bandit, and said it would be matter of keeping a close eye on her, entering the race and seeing how she was at the end of the week.

Anna's Bandit, who may not have run in the Cavada had Late Night Pow Wow showed up, was 1-9 at Charles Town. She was 7-5 on the morning line for the Million Distaff and ended up 1-2.

With Perez up again, Anna's Bandit raced just off the pace along the rail and, after being shuffled back on the far turn in the 7-furlong stakes, found room on the inside of front-running Conjecture and powered past to beat her by 3½ lengths. The final time on a fast track was 1:23.03.

The Robbs watched on a television in the clubhouse. The only drama was when the screen froze as Anna's Bandit rallied to the lead and they didn't see the finish.

"It has been a stressful week," Jerry Robb said. "There was a lot of pressure running her back that quick. I put my name on the line if she didn't run well. But she actually gained 50 pounds this week. If you look at the numbers, last year I did the same thing. She ran an eight [figure] at Charles Town and came back and ran a five here. And how do you not run a 1-2 shot?"

"I'm speechless again," Gina Robb said. "I'm so happy for my husband and what we've started together."

The Robbs own Onearmedbandit, a stakes winner of more than $300,000, and a full Maryland-bred yearling brother to Anna's Bandit named Little Bold Bandit—in honor of the Robb-trained Little Bold John, who won 38 races, 25 stakes, including several graded, and earned $1.95 million in 105 starts. Robb has trained the winners of eight Maryland Million races and is tied for fourth among trainers in that regard.

"Maryland Million is very special to me," he said, "and I don't know of any horse that won them both—the race in West Virginia and the race here. That's very special, too."

Robb is correct. No horse, other than Anna's Bandit, has won a West Virginia Breeders Classics race and a Maryland Million race in the same year–though, to be fair, the signature state racing programs have frequently occurred on the same day.

Robb said the plan is to race Anna's Bandit, who has banked $658,715 and won 15 races, in 2020.

"We're hoping to pull another double with her," he said.

Perez, known to get animated in the saddle when Anna's Bandit is in front at the finish, played a major role in her success. Through the Maryland Million Distaff he had ridden her in 26 consecutive races and is aboard her for morning training at Laurel.

"I don't know how to explain how I feel with her and what a connection we have because it's just something different that I never felt before," Perez said. "I get on her every day. I deal with her every morning. I let her stand for 25, 30 minutes at the gap and she loves it.

"That's her life. Every time I ride her, I'm amazed by her. I always say, 'It's Anna's world and I'm just living in it.' It's all about Anna." ✹

The King of West Virginia

Castle Bound springs upset in Classic to lead Casey triple

By Tom LaMarra. Photographs by Coady Photography

James W. Casey entered this year's West Virginia Breeders Classics with a record 32 victories in the 32-year history of the state-bred championship. Nine wins had come in the West Virginia Breeders Classic, which from its inception in 1987 has been the most lucrative race on the program.

In 2016 Casey, who owns Taylor Mountain Farm in Charles Town, won three WVBC stakes. Heading into the final two events at Charles Town Races the evening of Oct. 12, it didn't appear he had a good chance for another three-peat even though he started out well when Boundtobebad captured the West Virginia Triple Crown Nutrition Breeders Classic for 2-year-old fillies.

Casey's starter in the $300,000 Classic, Castle Bound, had never won a stakes and came into the race winless in his last 10 starts. B's Wild Cork, Casey's starter in the finale – the West Virginia Roger Ramey Breeders Classic Distaff – also hadn't won a stakes and had never been 1⅛ miles.

But this is horse racing, and the 89-year-old Casey has seen his share of wild outcomes at Charles Town.

"You never can tell," he said with a laugh after Castle Bound upset the Classic at 68-1 and B's Wild Cork went from last to first at 8-1 to take the Distaff – turning a one-win night into a three-win celebration.

The 1⅛-mile Classic drew a full field of 10, but the odds board reflected what many expected to be a two-horse race. Grams Racing Stable's Runnin'toluvya, who won the Breeders Classic in 2018 and this year upset the $1 million Charles Town Classic-G2, was less than 3-5. Coleswood Farm's North Atlantic, a 15-time winner who had never been worse than second in eight starts at the distance, was 2-1. The remaining eight were double digits, five higher than 50-1.

The start was delayed when Runnin'toluvya, known for his quirks, became fractious and broke through the starting gate. He was quickly caught, examined by the state veterinarian and allowed to race. Trainer Tim Grams, who often ponies the Fiber Sonde gelding, also was at the gate.

The favorite broke on top heading into the first of three turns and then settled behind Opera Nite, who held a comfortable lead through moderate fractions heading into the final furlong. Runnin'toluvya began to drop back—he was eventually eased—as North Atlantic began to take aim on his front-running stablemate.

It appeared as though a one-two finish for trainer Jeff Runco was imminent, but Castle Bound, sixth for most of the way, rallied widest of all under Gustavo Larrosa and went by to win by a head in 1:53.73.

Opera Nite, at 16-1, held for second, three-quarters of length ahead of North Atlantic. Castle Bound, owned and bred by Taylor Mountain Farm, returned $138.40 to win.

"I'm pretty sure that's the most I've ever had a horse pay to win," Casey said. "I guess you never know in this business. We were going for fourth or fifth. We had two or three we were thinking about entering but weren't sure they would get in. I did think this horse would like the distance."

Castle Bound, a 6-year-old gelding by Windsor Castle out of the Boundary mare Bound To, had won at 1⅛ miles once in two previous attempts.

After the race Grams said Runnin'toluvya, vanned off as a precautionary measure, had a cut on his left stifle and was expected to be fine.

Windsor Castle, who stands at Taylor Mountain Farm and is West Virginia's second-leading stallion by winners and earnings behind Fiber Sonde, also sired Boundtobebad, a full-sister to Castle Bound who won the Triple Crown Nutrition Breeders Classic with Christian Hiraldo aboard.

The filly gunned to the front from the inside post and gradually opened a commanding lead on the other eight fillies in the 6½-furlong, $75,000 stakes. Boundtobebad won by 7½ lengths over stablemate Candyforacause, who had 1¾ lengths on Manarola in third. The final time was 1:20.35.

Boundtobebad had won her debut in her previous start, and on Nov. 2 at Charles Town followed up on the Triple Crown Nutrition win by taking the West Virginia Futurity (against males) by 11 lengths.

Casey's third winner, B's Wild Cork, was the third choice in the Distaff behind David Raim's T Rex Express, undefeated in three starts at 1⅛ miles and winner of the 2018 Distaff, and O'Sullivan Partnership 1's Spanish Moss, a six-time winner who was seeking her first victory of 2019.

The speedy T Rex Express immediately took command, opened a 3-length lead heading into the third turn while chased by Spanish Moss and appeared home free. But B's Wild Cork, with Antonio Lopez aboard, rallied from seventh after 6 furlongs and reeled in the leader to win by a length in 1:55.18. T Rex Express held for second three-quarters of a length ahead of Spanish Moss.

B's Wild Cork was the third homebred winner of the night for the Casey family. The 4-year-old filly is by Denis of Cork—he also stands at Taylor Mountain Farm—out of the Wild Rush mare B's Wild Rush.

Success for Pickett, Daniel family

The team of owner Jill Daniel, breeder Francis Daniel III and trainer Crystal Pickett also had a big night. They had two horses in the WVBC and they both won—about a month after winning state-bred stakes on the Charles Town Oaks program.

In the $75,000 West Virginia Vincent Moscarelli Memorial Breeders Classic for 2-year-olds at 6½ furlongs, Hypothesis, winner of the Henry Mercer Memorial Sept. 21, tried two turns for the first time and got the money with a professional, off-the-pace victory in 1:21.59. Ridden by Gerald Almodovar, the gelded son of Algorithms and the Not For Love mare Ideal Thoughts won for the third time in four starts. Nico finished a length back in second, followed by Tweet This. Hypothesis, the heavy favorite, returned $3 to win.

"It took him a little while to settle but when he did, I knew he would take off," said Almodovar, the only jockey to have ridden Hypothesis. "I think he has a lot of potential, and his best distance may be even farther [than 6½ furlongs]."

"He's fearless—he had to eat dirt and get bumped around," Pickett said. "He gets his heart from his mother. Dr. Daniel has the mare, who was bred to Uncle Lino. She has turned out to be a nice producer."

Ideal Thoughts, also trained by Pickett, won more than $217,000 in a 40-race career and placed in multiple stakes. In his only loss, Hypothesis finished a closing fourth behind future Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint winner Four Wheel Drive in the Rosie's Stakes on the grass at Colonial Downs in August.

Dr. Feelgood and jockey Darius Thorpe dominated the $75,000 West Virginia Dash for Cash Breeders Classic at 4½ furlongs.

Penguin Power finishes off an easy win in the Onion Juice, after his connections opted to pass on the Classic.

Dr. Feelgood's first appearance on a WVBC night was a successful one as the 4-year-old Fiber Sonde gelding flew home to win the Dash for Cash.

The 4-year-old gelding by Fiber Sonde out of the Polish Numbers mare Happy Numbers set serious fractions of :21.42 for the opening quarter-mile and :44.33 for a half before finishing in a sharp :50.81, less than one second from the track record set by Immortal Eyes in 2011.

In his previous start, Dr. Feelgood won the Last Enchantment Stakes Sept. 21 at Charles Town. He didn't compete in last year's WVBC as he was put on the shelf in late September.

"This year he was coming off of a long layoff," Pickett said. "This year, in three starts, he has been much the best at this distance. I may be looking to stretch him out again next year."

In 2018 Dr. Feelgood won twice at 6½ furlongs and once at 7 furlongs. All of his races have been at Charles Town.

Penguin Power in Onion Juice

Owner Raim and trainer Jeff Runco had options after Penguin Power, a 4-year-old Fiber Sonde gelding out of the Robb mare Aye Robbin, won the Frank Gall Memorial Sept. 21 at Charles Town. He defeated Runnin'toluyva in the 7-furlong Gall, though Runnin'toluyva did miss the break and was taken out of his best game.

Penguin Power, 8-for-10 heading into the WVBC, had never been 1⅛ miles. So his connections opted for the 7-furlong "Onion Juice" Breeders Classic for 3-year-olds and up and were rewarded with a 3½-length, gate-to-wire win in a strong 1:25.37. Penguin Power returned $2.40 to win under Arnaldo Bocachica, the leading rider at the track. Ellie's Lil Man was second, with Ihearuknockin third.

"I wasn't sure he'd want to go a mile-and-an-eighth," said Runco, leading trainer at Charles Town. "We'll probably try [the distance] in the A Huevo Stakes [Nov. 9]. This was a very good time for tonight and he has done everything we've asked of him. If he can get a mile-and-an-eighth it would open up a lot more spots for him."

Diva is divine

Owner Melinda Golden and trainer Stacey Viands had to make a choice with their standout filly Parisian Diva, who was also eligible for the Oct. 19 Maryland Million Distaff at Laurel Park. They opted for the $75,000 West Virginia Tourism Office Breeders Classic for 3-year-old fillies and Parisian Diva didn't disappoint with a handy, front-running victory.

The homebred daughter of Freedom Child out of the Wildcat Heir mare Paris Heiress ran her record to eight wins in 13 starts. In her previous start, Parisian Diva finished a good fourth after a poor start in the Charles Town Oaks-G3, and in June just missed winning the open Alma North Stakes at Laurel.

J.D. Acosta, aboard for many of the filly's wins, was back aboard at Charles Town as the heavy favorite ($2.40) covered 7 furlongs in 1:26.67 while winning by 2½ lengths over C R Case's Legacy, followed by Amelia Bedelia in third.

"We had to pay to nominate her," Golden said, noting that Parisian Diva was supplemented. "I had some bad luck at the time and didn't nominate her [to the WVBC]. I've had an owner's license since 1969, so it's pretty exciting having a filly like this. She's also Virginia-certified, which is nice.

"She's very smart—they have to be to be a good racehorse. As long as she enjoys what she is doing, she'll race. When she went to Maryland [for the Alma North], she certainly didn't embarrass herself. I've had lots of calls about her and good offers but we just love her. She is really special and has made us really proud."

Parisian Diva's eighth win pushed her career earnings to $242,170.

Golden had hinted that Parisian Diva could come back in seven days for the Maryland Million "if she was kicking down the barn," but that didn't materialize. It was a different story, however, for Anna's Bandit, who blew away the competition by 5½ lengths in the $175,000 West Virginia "Cavada" Breeders Classic for fillies and mares and returned a week later to win the $100,000 Maryland Million Distaff.

With regular rider Xavier Perez, Anna's Bandit, owned by No Guts No Glory Farm and trained by her breeder, Jerry Robb, rated well through fast early fractions, easily took the lead on the second turn and drew away to win in 1:26.37 for 7 furlongs as the shortest favorite of the night—she paid $2.20 to win. See Ya Manana was second, a length ahead of Madeitouttaharlan in third.

Anna's Bandit, a 5-year-old mare by Great Notion out of the No Armistice mare Onearmedbandit, cleared the $600,000 mark in earnings with the Charles Town win, her 14th in 30 outings.

Parisian Diva leads everyone home in the West Virginia Tourism Office, her eighth lifetime win.

With a fist pump from Carlos Delgado, Loving Touch glides home in the West Virginia Lottery.

Loving Touch wins for Grams

Though the Classic proved a disappointment for Grams Racing Stable, that wasn't the case in the second race of the evening, the $75,000 West Virginia Lottery Breeders Classic for 3-year-olds.

Loving Touch, a full-brother to Runnin'toluyva, continued to signal his quality and promise with a determined, 2¼-length victory in his stakes debut. Loving Touch, by Fiber Sonde out of the Not For Love mare Lov'emnrun, had won his previous three starts in a campaign that began in early July.

Carlos Delgado gunned the gelding to the front once again. He fought off pressure from eventual runner-up Hero's Man for more than a half-mile, then gradually pulled away to win in 1:25.92, second-fastest time of the night.

Grams said he planned to race Loving Touch in the Robert Leavitt Memorial at Charles Town Sept. 21 but he wasn't himself. The gelding breezed twice in late September and early October.

"He had three races in about a month so I had to give him a break," Grams said. "He came out of those works happy and feeling good. He has quirks like his full-brother but they move completely different. This colt says, 'I'm probably a sprinter.' He has more of a sprinter's action. He was easier to break than his brother, and he always liked to work.

"It's always tough coming off a layoff, but he raced very well. I think we'll give him the winter off and let him grow up."

NOTES: The Classics program was a success from a business standpoint. Charles Town reported total handle of $2,437,120 for nine races, a record for the WVBC. All three major racing events at the track – the Charles Town Classic and Charles Town Oaks programs are the others – established wagering records this year. ✹

Maryland-bred filly leads regional success at Breeders' Cup World Championships

By Tom Law. Photographs by Benoit, Inc.

Aron Wellman waited to watch the last two-dozen or so horses go through the ring on the first night of last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale of selected yearlings when his phone lit up with a text message from Antony Beck.

"Please, can I come in for half?" wrote Beck, owner of Kentucky's Gainesway Farm and in town to see his consignment sell. "She's a beautiful filly."

Wellman wasn't far removed from signing his only ticket of the night, $350,000 for Hip 102, a Maryland-bred daughter of Speightstown out of Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf-G1 winner Shared Account bred by Kevin Plank's Sagamore Farm. Beck knew the filly, offered out of the Upson Downs Farm consignment and one of the last yearlings inspected for the Saratoga sale by the late Bill Graves, the father of Gainesway's general manager Brian Graves.

"Bill Graves was one of the very best horsemen I've known in my whole life," Beck said. "A complete and total gentleman. He was like part of my family and he knew the filly's family very well. That was also one of the reasons I really liked her."

Wellman, who heads up the Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners syndicate that sometimes takes on other partners, considered the offer.

"She was a really athletic, racy looking filly," Wellman said. "When we go to the sales we're typically bargain shopping, which is a hard thing to do up at Fasig Saratoga. What I like to do is find athletic fillies with big pedigrees, track them through the ring and hope we get them within our budget and this filly was no bargain at $350,000 at the time, but we thought there was plenty of upside and inherent residual value."

The two sides came together and a little more than a year later celebrated Sharing's victory in the $1 million Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf-G1 on the Day 1 "Future Stars Friday" card at the Breeders' Cup World Championships at California's Santa Anita Park.

Based at Fair Hill Training Center with Graham Motion, who trained Shared Account to her 46-1 upset in the 2010 Filly and Mare Turf at Churchill Downs and did a little prodding of his own that night in Saratoga, Sharing defeated an international field in the 1-mile turf stakes. Manny Franco collected his first Breeders' Cup win in the process, riding the chestnut filly to a 1¼-length win over Daahyeh (GB) with Sweet Melania third in the field of 14.

"That night right after she sold I did say to Aron, 'you know she's a Maryland-bred?'" Motion said. "I'm very happy to be here and feel very lucky to be here."

The first Maryland-bred to win a Breeders' Cup race since Cigar took the Classic-G1 in 1995, Sharing helped put Motion on the path to his fourth Breeders' Cup victory when she won the $200,000 Selima Stakes at Laurel Park Sept. 21.

The filly had made her debut in a 5½-furlong turf maiden early in the Saratoga Race Course meeting, finishing a close third. She broke her maiden four weeks later in a 7-furlong off-the-turf maiden race originally written for 1 1/16 miles.

Motion, after consulting with Wellman and Gainesway, went back to the grass for the Selima with hopes of landing a spot in the Juvenile Fillies Turf even though the race was not graded or a "Win and You're In" race in the Breeders' Cup Challenge series.

Sharing and Franco won the Selima, doubled in value by the Maryland Jockey Club for 2019, by 2½ lengths at 1-2.

"We want to get Sharing to the Breeders' Cup," Motion said that afternoon at Laurel. "We wouldn't have [run in the Selima] if it was $100,000. It helps, not to mention the competition is better because it's $200,000. If it falls into the hands of the committee, it's a better-considered race. You have a certain number of races to choose from and this was the path of least resistance because it's at Laurel and I train at Fair Hill. But the extra purse helped make it a better choice."

The Juvenile Fillies Turf oversubscribed with 19 runners when pre-entries were taken Oct. 21, but Sharing secured one of the 14 spots in the field.

Sent to the post at nearly 14-1 from post 11, Sharing raced fourth early while Living In The Past (Ire), Sweet Melania and Abscond scrimmaged for the lead. Franco settled Sharing right behind the leaders into the first turn and into the backstretch.

"After watching the colt race and having run in these 2-year-old races on the grass, I was a little anxious after that race," Motion said. "I saw so many horses. In particular, I saw the West Point horse [Decorated Invader] who I thought had a terrible trip, and I just said to Manny in the paddock, 'We can't afford to get in that position.'"

Franco angled Sharing out coming off the far turn, edged past Sweet Melania into the lead inside the eighth pole and cleared with enough space to hold off the late run of Daahyeh and jockey William Buick. Sharing won in 1:34.59.

"I was able to get the position that I wanted going into the first turn, and that's what we planned, and it worked out great," Franco said.

Sharing joined her sire, dam and grandsire as Breeders' Cup winners. Speightstown won the 2004 Sprint-G1 en route to being named champion and Pleasantly Perfect, the sire of Shared Account, won the 2003 Classic-G1 at Santa Anita. Sharing joined Cigar, 1994 Classic winner Concern and 1990 Sprint winner Safely Kept on the short list of Maryland-bred Breeders' Cup winners.

Shared Account gave Motion his second Breeders' Cup win, after Better Talk Now upset the Breeders' Cup Turf-G1 at 27-1 in 2004. The trainer later won the Turf in 2014 with Main Sequence.

"Personality wise they're very similar, both very kind," Motion said of Sharing and her dam, sold by Sagamore to Sam-Son Farm in foal to Mastery for $550,000 at the 2018 Keeneland November breeding stock sale. "The mare was like that. There's a reason I got so attached to her, not only what she did on the racetrack but she was just very kind. This filly is just the same. So kind, so straightforward. She's been so straightforward here. I must say I felt very good about her all week. Things had gone smoothly."

Big Run

When Juan Carlos Guerrero made his way to Timonium for the 2018 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May 2-year-old sale he wasn't thinking about buying his next stakes winner. He wasn't thinking about buying at all.

The Parx Racing-based horseman went at the encouragement of Marshall Gramm, who runs the Ten Strike Stables that has helped Guerrero carve out a niche from a barn on the Bensalem backstretch.

"He wanted me to learn about the sales," Guerrero said. "I knew a little bit about how to buy horses, but not quite."

Gramm connected Guerrero with the Lexington-based bloodstock agent Liz Crow, riding the wave in a breakout year thanks to the success of eventual champion Monomoy Girl and other top runners she'd bought in recent seasons. Around the time they were about to start combing through the offerings on the sales grounds, Guerrero answered a phone call from Bob Donaldson.

"Do you like your horse in the fourth race?" Donaldson asked.

"What?" Guerrero asked back to the owner he'd trained for in the past but didn't have any horses for at the time.

"Yeah, you have a horse in the fourth race."

"I don't even know. I'm at the sales right now."

"Buy me a horse."

"What?"

"Yeah, buy me a horse."

"Bob, I don't even train for you."

"I don't care. I want a horse."

"How much do you want to spend?"

Regional sales graduate and Parx Racing-based Spun to Run flies home with a win in the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile.

Donaldson gave him a budget of $100,000. Guerrero liked that amount, but wasn't sure the owner was serious.

"I didn't believe him," said Guerrero, who set off for the sales office.

"How much Mr. Bob Donaldson have credit?" Guerrero asked.

"One-hundred thousand."

"Whoa."

Guerrero found Donaldson a horse, but it sold before he could bid. Donaldson let him know he liked another, Hip 50, a colt by Hard Spun from Nick de Meric's consignment. Guerrero hadn't done an inspection or pre-sale vet work. Donaldson wasn't deterred.

"You have a good eye, I know you'll figure it out," Donaldson said. "When the horse comes in, let me know what you see."

Guerrero liked what he saw and relayed his thoughts to Donaldson.

"Buy him, buy him," Donaldson said.

They were able to buy the colt, out of the stakes-winning and stakes-producing Grand Slam mare Yawkey Way, for $64,000. The colt became Spun to Run and his price fell well under Donaldson's budget and even further below the $550,000 winner's share of the purse for the $1,000,000 Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile-G1.

Spun to Run defeated even-money favorite Omaha Beach in the Dirt Mile, adding a second graded score to his victory in the Smarty Jones Stakes-G3 at Parx in September. The dark bay colt won by 2¾ lengths under Irad Ortiz Jr., who won four races over the two-day Breeders' Cup, and did it all the way on the lead.

"It's been a hell of a ride," said Donaldson, a former pharmaceutical executive who lives in Medford, N.J.

Donaldson started in racing as a fan, hopping the fence as a teenager with his wife-to-be after high school to catch the late double at Garden State Park. He eventually bought a piece of a $7,500 claimer named Pitch Out who competed in overnight stakes, and later claimed eventual multiple graded stakes winner Groovy Feeling.

"It's a dream come true," Donaldson said. "We got in on a quarter of a $7,500 claimer and took it from there. The sport just grew on us. And we had so much faith in this horse today."

Spun to Run improved to 5-for-8 on the season and padded his bankroll to $990,660 with the victory. He'd run in two prior Grade 1s, finishing third in the Haskell Invitational Stakes behind Maximum Security and Mucho Gusto and fifth in the Pennsylvania Derby.

Owned by Stuart Grant's The Elkstone Group, Sol Kumin's Madaket Stables, Mike Caruso's Bethlehem Stable and Michael Dubb, and trained by Brad Cox, British Idiom ran her record to 3-for-3 in the Juvenile Fillies. Flashback, a 9-year-old son of Tapit, stands for $3,500 at Glenn and Becky Brok's Diamond B Farm in Mohrsville. He relocated to Diamond B in time for the 2019 season after starting his stud career at Hill 'n' Dale Farms in Lexington.

maiden-breaking victory in the Miss Grillo Stakes-G2 at Belmont Park Sept. 29, ran to her odds when fifth and 4 lengths behind Sharing. Bred by Marama Farm's George Doetsch, the 2-year-old daughter of More Than Ready sold as a weanling to Klaravich Stables through agent Nick de Meric for $190,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November breeding stock sale.

■ LNJ Foxwoods' Covfefe, record-setting winner of the Miss Preakness Stakes-G3 at Pimlico Race Course May 17, collected her fourth graded stakes victory of the season when she started the Saturday card in the $1,000,000 Filly and Mare Sprint-G1.

■ Shekky Shebaz, who made his first 13 starts at Presque Isle Downs for owner/trainer Adam Rice before being sold after a victory in a $25,000 claiming race in late July at Saratoga, finished third behind Californians Belvoir Bay (GB) and Om in the $1 million Turf Sprint-G1. Second in the Fitz Dixon Jr. Memorial Juvenile Stakes in 2017 for Rice, Shekky Shebaz won three times at Presque Isle from June 2017 to June 2019. Pure Sensation, an eight-time stakes winner in the Mid-Atlantic, finished fifth in the Turf Sprint as the favorite for New York-based trainer Christophe Clement and longtime New Jersey owners and breeders Patricia and Frank Generazio. The 8-year-old Zensational gelding won four editions of the Turf Monster Handicap-G3 and three runnings of the Parx Dash Stakes-G3 during his career, including each race this year.

■ Pennsylvania-bred Grade 1 winner Mirth opened a wide advantage early in the $2 million Filly and Mare Turf before finishing sixth under Mike Smith for trainer Phil D'Amato. The 4-year-old daughter of Colonel John started her career for breeder Larry Karp's Barlar LLC and Penn National-based trainer Bernie Houghton. She won three of seven in the region before being sold privately to Little Red Feather Racing. Mirth came into the Filly and Mare Turf off a victory in the Rodeo Drive Stakes-G1 at Santa Anita Sept. 28.

■ Shancelot, based at Monmouth Park for most of the spring, summer and fall with Jorge Navarro, finished second to Mitole in the $2 million Sprint-G1 after setting the pace. Multiple Grade 1 winner Imperial Hint, also based at Monmouth this year, scratched the morning of the Sprint after a pre-race veterinary examination detected sensitivity around the horse's left front coronet band.

■ John Moores' and Marylander Charlie Noell's Merriebelle Stable enjoyed a monster week with Blue Prize (Arg), who won the $2 million Breeders' Cup Distaff-G1 Nov. 2 and sold for $5 million to Larry Best's OXO Equine three days later at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky November breeding stock sale. Blue Prize, trained by Ignacio Correas IV, won the Distaff by 1½ lengths over even-money favorite Midnight Bisou for her third Grade 1 victory along with back-to-back editions of the Keeneland's Spinster Stakes. Joe Bravo earned his first Breeders' Cup victory aboard the 6-year-old Pure Prize mare, who retired with 10 wins in 23 starts and $2,692,253 in earnings.

■ Street Band, who earned her spot at the Breeders' Cup with a victory in the Cotillion Stakes-G1 at Parx Sept. 21, finished eighth in the Distaff for jockey Sophie Doyle and trainer Larry Jones. Math Wizard, also a winner at Parx in the Pennsylvania Derby-G1, put in a mild rally from last early to be fifth in the $6 million Classic for trainer Saffie Joseph Jr. and the ownership group led by John Fanelli. ✹

Hamm's Regal Chant lands sixth win to tie for 2019 victory lead at track

BY LINDA DOUGHERTY. PHOTOGRAPHS BY COADY PHOTOGRAPHY

Presque Isle Downs ended its 2019 season in mid-October not with a whimper, but an emphatic bang as several stakes and a top performance by a six-time winner at the track spiced the early autumn action.

Blazing Meadows Farm's Regal Chant, a 3-year-old daughter of Regal Ransom, notched her sixth victory at Presque Isle Oct. 16, launching herself into a tie for the winningest horse at the meet with Bring It On Home.

Regal Chant won six of seven starts at the Erie track, the only loss coming when fourth in the Presque Isle Downs Masters-G2. Bring It On Home won six of 11.

Purchased privately by trainer Tim Hamm as a yearling, Regal Chant made one start at 2, finishing second in her debut at Presque Isle that June. She did not reappear until March at Tampa Bay Downs, making two starts before shipping to Presque Isle.

"She was bred and consigned by Shane Doyle and his wife Kim, and after she RNA'd at Keeneland he called me and we put together a partnership," Hamm said. "She showed promise early on and then needed a little time off after her first race. I could tell from that race that she loved the synthetic at Presque Isle."

Little did Hamm think, as the calendar turned to October, that Regal Chant would be sharing the victory crown for most wins at the meet. But right from the beginning, she began to piece together a special season.

After breaking her maiden for a $25,000 claiming price May 27, Regal Chant reeled off four consecutive wins, stepping up from the claiming ranks in June and July, to allowance company in August, and then to a start in the Masters in September. She set the pace for the first quarter, held her own while challenged around the turn and salvaged fourth money of $20,000 while no match for winner Hotshot Anna.

A month later, Hamm brought Regal Chant back in allowance company at 6½ furlongs, and the gray or roan filly rallied from off the pace to win by a head as the betting favorite with Willie Martinez aboard. The winner's share pushed her earnings for the year to $114,550.

"She's very straightforward, very smart and easy to train," said Hamm. "I thought she'd do well this season, but she surprised me as to how well she did. It was a really nice surprise."

Hamm, who saddled 20 winners at Presque Isle this year, has been a regular at the Erie oval for the last decade. He operates on several fronts—running a breeding farm in North Jackson, Ohio, and a training center and farm in Ocala, Fla., both named Blazing Meadows.

Recently, Hamm partnered with WinStar Farm to form WinBlaze, and stands Grade 3 winner National Flag, a son of Speightstown, at Blazing Meadows. The chestnut stood his first season in 2019, and was supported by WinStar with more than a dozen mares.

At his Ocala farm, which encompasses more than 70 acres, Hamm breaks babies and handles lay ups. Some of the stakes winners he's broken are Wait a While, Sky Diva, Too Much Bling, and Fast Scene, the latter a 2-year-old winner this year of the Woodbine Cares Stakes and My Dear Girl Stakes. He's also trained 25 Ohio champions and saddled the winners of more than $1 million in each year since 2007. Hamm won his 1,000th career race in 2016.

Hamm has 30 horses at Mahoning Valley Race Course, and typically sends 25 to 30 to Tampa Bay Downs over the winter. He has an assistant at each track, as well as assistants at both farms.

Hamm's busy schedule has also included terms on the Ohio Thoroughbred Race Fund Advisory Council, as well as a stint as president of the Ohio HBPA.

TROMBETTA SHIPPERS

Shippers from Fair Hill Training Center typically do well at Presque Isle, as both ovals have the same Tapeta synthetic surface, and Mike Trombetta took advantage with nine wins from 26 starts. His October winners included Newstome, a 2-year-old son of Goldencents who captured the $100,000 Mark McDermott Stakes for state-breds Oct. 16.

Trombetta paid $30,000 for Newstome at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May 2-year-old sale and three months later the colt paid dividends—taking home a $45,000 check for a maiden win at Parx Racing. Bred by Equivine Farm, the gray/roan colt finished a troubled seventh in the Rosie's Stakes at Colonial Downs (won by even-

Another good-looking winner for Trombetta in October was Live Oak Plantation's Gearhead, who captured his second consecutive race at Presque Isle Oct. 3 in a 1 mile and 70-yard allowance.

OPEN JUVENILE STAKES

Godolphin Racing's homebred Albert Park captured the $99,000 Fitz Dixon Jr. Memorial Juvenile Stakes Oct. 9, while Commonwealth New Era Racing's New York Groove drew off impressively to take the $100,600 Presque Isle Debutante Stakes for 2-year-old fillies Oct. 10.

Albert Park is a 2-year-old son of Street Sense out of Grade 1 winner Indy Five Hundred. He broke his maiden at Arlington Park, where he's based with trainer Michael Stidham.

New York Groove, purchased for $95,000 at last year's Keeneland September yearling sale by Todd Mostoller on behalf of Commonwealth New Era Racing, kept her record perfect from three starts winning the Debutante.

LEADERS OF THE MEET

Gerald Brooks secured the training crown with 52 winners, 11 more than Teresa Connelly, when the meet ended Oct. 17. Ron Potts saddled 36 winners to secure the third spot.

Antonio Gallardo won the riding title with a two-win advantage over Pablo Morales, 156-154. Both Gallardo and Morales clicked at a high-percentage clip, with Gallardo striking 28 percent of the time, and Morales 27 percent.

W. John Bourke was the leading owner, winning 20 races, five more than Ronald Clark. ✹

Big Turn Around

Spun to Run rises from maiden to Breeders' Cup winner in 2019

BY LINDA DOUGHERTY. PHOTOGRAPHS BY EQUI-PHOTO, INC.

It took him a few tries to find the winner's circle, but once he did, Bob Donaldson's Spun to Run blossomed into a graded stakes winner–and then some–thanks to the patience of trainer Juan Carlos Guerrero.

After four losses to start his career, the 3-year-old son of Hard Spun opened 2019 with a maiden win at Parx Racing Jan. 19. Next came an allowance triumph in March and thoughts of a trying for the Federico Tesio Stakes at Laurel Park and perhaps a spot in the Preakness-G1.

"I was going to run him in the Tesio because I thought he could win," said Guerrero, who has been based at Parx for more than a decade. "He was training toward the race and one morning I was walking next to him after a workout, and I could hear him making weird noises. We went ahead and scoped him, and that's when we found out he had an entrapped epiglottis."

Surgery put Spun to Run on the shelf for four months. The return came in the Haskell Invitational-G1 at Monmouth Park in July–not exactly the spot Guerrero wanted, but other races weren't filling and his horse needed to get back to work. Sent off at 34-1, Spun to Run finished third behind Maximum Security, earning a Grade 1 placing and $100,000.

It wouldn't be his last big effort against lofty competition.

Purchased by Donaldson for $64,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May 2-year-old sale in 2018, Spun to Run won the Smarty Jones-G3 and finished fifth in the Pennsylvania Derby-G1 at Parx in September, then blitzed eight others in the Mike Ballezzi Appreciation Mile Oct. 12. The 6¾-length win, and big speed figures, put one more major goal on the target list.

At Santa Anita Nov. 2, Spun to Run and Irad Ortiz Jr. led every step of the Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile-G1, ousting among others even-money favorite Omaha Beach and earning Donaldson a cool $550,000.

Spun to Run is the first stakes winner for Donaldson, whose previous top earner was the tough-as-nails mare Pink Princess, who earned $174,148. For more, see the Breeders' Cup story on page 50.

In a sign of things to come, Spun to Run triumphs in the Ballezzi Mile at Parx on his way to victory at the Breeders' Cup three weeks later.

FALL DERBY DEBUTS

Calumet Farm homebred English Bee parlayed a victory in the New Kent County Virginia Derby-G3 at Colonial Downs Aug. 31 into another in the newly created $75,000 Parx Fall Derby, a mile race on the turf for 3-year-olds Oct. 8.

The son of English Channel and the Kitten's Joy mare Evil Kitten stalked the early pace for Jorge Vargas Jr., then swung wide in midstretch to score by a neck. English Bee broke his maiden in his debut last year at Presque Isle Downs. This year, the chestnut trained by Graham Motion annexed the James W. Murphy Stakes at

FIRST FALL OAKS

The day before the Parx Fall Derby, First Row Partners and Hidden Brook Farm's Nay Lady Nay (Ire) captured the $75,000 Parx Fall Oaks for 3-year-old fillies with a last-to-first surge for trainer Chad Brown. The daughter of No Nay Never and the English Channel mare Lady Ederle overcame a troubled break to show her heels to the field at the finish line, triumphing by 2½ lengths in 1:36.90, just a few ticks off the 1:36.21 record for a mile.

Nay Lady Nay was based with Brown's Monmouth Park string this summer, breaking her maiden there in early August. The Parx Fall Oaks was her first stakes start. She was purchased by her co-owner Hidden Brook for $210,000 at the 2018 OBS March sale of 2-year-olds from the consignment of Eddie Woods.

NEWS AND NOTES

Several other notable horses found the winner's circle at Parx during October, and a jockey celebrated a career milestone.

Swilcan Stable's Navy Commander, named top 3-year-old colt of 2018 by the Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association after his victory in the Long Branch Stakes at Monmouth Park, won for the first time in 2019 in a Pennsylvania-bred allowance Oct. 6. Trained by Butch Reid, the chestnut gelding scored in a wire-to-wire performance, grinding out a gutty win by a head over Red Razzo as the heavy favorite under Frankie Pennington. Navy Commander is a son of Grade 1 winner Poseidon's Warrior, who was also trained by Reid.

Start Meee, a 2-year-old Pennsylvania-bred son of Jump Start, won his second career start Oct. 13 in a conditional allowance for state-breds under Julio Correa. Trained by Mark Reid, brother of Butch Reid, and owned and bred by NYKY Thoroughbreds, Start Meee was a handy winner as the betting favorite, and covered 6 furlongs in 1:11.52. He's out of the Grand Slam mare Play With Me.

Spaceman, a son of the Pennsylvania stallion Mad Flatter, who died after siring only 52 foals, broke his 2-year-old maiden impressively in a maiden special weight for state-breds Oct. 6, edging away to a three-quarters of a length victory over heavily favored debut runner Knockout Kick. Bred by Glenn Brok and co-owned by Uptowncharlybrown Stud and D and E Stable, Spaceman is out of the Lion Heart mare Starship Girl. He's trained by Ed Coletti Jr.

Jockey Roberto Rosado won the 1,000th victory of his career Oct. 27 when he guided Tambora home in the fifth race. Rosado, a native of Puerto Rico, has been based at Parx since the mid-1990s, and shared the Eclipse Award as co-top apprentice in 1997. ✹

Ex-steeplechaser Diplomat wins class at Makeover

By Ilana Cramer

ANNE LITZ (2)

Owner Adam Newman checks in with Diplomat and Sara Katz, who teamed up to win the Field Hunter division at the Retired Racehorse Project's Thoroughbred Makeover in Kentucky.

As owner Adam Newman put it, the Retired Racehorse Project's Thoroughbred Makeover and National Symposium "really has a summer camp type of feel." And for Newman, it was a great week away as his ex-racehorse Diplomat showcased his new skills and won the Field Hunter Division at the Kentucky event Oct. 2-5.

Presented by Thoroughbred Charities of America, the event again lured a big crowd of horses and horse people to the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington while further cementing its place in the Thoroughbred world.

Retired racehorses from around the country competed in 10 divisions: Barrels, Competitive Trail, Dressage, Eventing, Field Hunters, Polo, Ranch Work, Show Hunters, Show Jumpers and Freestyle. A charitable organization founded by Marylander Steuart Pittman in 2010, the Retired Racehorse Project and its signature event are intended to inspire trainers and owners to become involved in transitioning horses to second careers while also pushing Thoroughbreds as valuable partners in new competitions.

Unlike a regular horse show, interested participants must submit an application to the RRP Makeover Selection Committee for approval. Each trainer must select a horse with 10 months or less of retraining by the time of the competition. The horse must be registered with The Jockey Club and have either a microchip or lip tattoo.

The Thoroughbred Makeover Class of 2019 included 474 approved horses. They came from a wide range of racetracks and backgrounds. On average, entrants made 21 starts with two wins, and had career earnings of $59,570. In total, entrants started 10,133 times, with 1,158 wins and over $28 million in total earnings.

Now in its fifth year in its current format, the Makeover has gained popularity throughout the equestrian world. Racing trainers and owners are beginning to get more involved in transitioning horses, and are placing horses they believe to be strong prospects with established professionals and eager amateurs. And owners are staying involved in off-track careers.

As in all years, the Mid-Atlantic had a strong presence. Regionally based horses Diplomat, Fifth Ace and Furaha all won divisions and competed in the event finale. Though nobody took home the top honor of America's Most Wanted Thoroughbred, they proved how strong racing and rehoming continues to be in the region.

The Field Hunter

Diplomat was Newman's first venture as a steeplechase owner. He and his brother Rich claimed the gelding for $40,000 at Saratoga in 2015 and two years later the son of Kitten's Joy won big in the New York Turf Writers Cup Handicap-G1 at Saratoga. Trained in South Carolina by Kate and Bernie Dalton, Diplomat also won the 2015 Zeke Ferguson Memorial-G3 and a turf allowance at Parx Racing for the Newmans. The Kentucky-bred started his career in Ireland for breeders Ken and Sarah Ramsey, winning four times there, and also won two American races for Virginia trainer Jimmy Day before being claimed by the Newmans.

In all, the bay gelding made 43 starts, winning nine times and earning $351,220. He raced just once in 2018, and was retired after an injury while prepping for Saratoga.

The Daltons knew of a situation that would keep Diplomat in competition, just a different kind. Kate connected Newman with Sara Katz, who had experience retraining former steeplechase horses. Based in Middleburg, Va., Katz was looking for an RRP-eligible horse and Diplomat seemed like the perfect candidate. She and Newman created a plan to make their way to Kentucky.

Newman, who lives in North Carolina, grew up showing hunter/jumpers and has ridden several ex-racehorses. He'd been to the 2017 Makeover with Arties Party Girl who competed for Second Chance Thoroughbreds.

"There is a fair amount of politics at horse shows," Newman said. "It's something that is totally non-existent at the Makeover. It's such a unique thing in the equestrian world that everyone is so supportive of one another. It has a lot to do with the fact that you have a wide array of disciplines represented and I think the fact that everyone is there with off-track Thoroughbreds really bonds people together."

Under Katz, Diplomat excelled in his training up to the Makeover. She gave the horse a strong foundation and slowly introduced hunt-style fences. They regularly schooled and fox hunted in Virginia and South Carolina, where they spent the winter. Diplomat took to jumping every test Katz pointed him to, easily handling logs and other obstacles. Katz wasn't afraid to introduce Diplomat to new things and new people. Doing things together helped give Diplomat confidence in and out of the ring, and let Katz know the horse was making the transition.

Heading into the Field Hunter division at the Makeover, Katz and Newman knew Diplomat was well prepared and willing. He led throughout the division and took top honors in the final day of competition to earn a place in the finale. With the overall prize up for grabs, each discipline winner goes through a final test. A call-in vote determines America's Most Wanted Thoroughbred. Although the top prize went to barrel-racing division winner Cowboy Swagger and Texas-based trainer/rider Fallon Taylor, Diplomat's performance was a joy to watch for his owner.

"He meant so much to us as a runner," Newman said. "To be able to stick with him and see what he did at the Makeover just drives home what a classy, quality horse he is and I've been really lucky to still be attached to him. Like he did with steeplechasing, Diplomat spoiled me now and set the bar high. He won a Grade 1 and won at the Makeover, it's just a credit to the horse and to Sara, who worked incredibly hard. It was just a great pairing, the two of them."

Newman rides regularly, and his family owns and breeds Thoroughbreds for the racetrack so he may be back at the Makeover someday—even if Diplomat will be a difficult act to follow. When asked if he would consider participating in future competitions himself, Newman laughed.

"My showing days are behind me, but each time I get to that event I think maybe I could train something up and compete myself," he said. "But I think I'll just leave it to Sara."

Not new to the RRP Makeover, accomplished steeplechasers are becoming even more prevalent and were a big part of the 2019 competition. Grade 1 hurdle winner Mr. Hot Stuff, who also raced in the 2009 Kentucky Derby, took part in the show-jumping competition with Marylander Quinn Scala (an assistant to trainer Jack Fisher). Eclipse Award winner Dawalan (Fr) finished 20th in the show hunter division, with Maryland amateur Rosie Allen, out of 138 horses. The three standout steeplechasers never competed in the same race, though did overlap. Dawalan won the 2015 Colonial Cup over a field that included Diplomat, and Mr. Hot Stuff finished seventh behind Diplomat in that 2017 Turf Writers.

After the big win in Kentucky, Diplomat and Katz headed back to Virginia for more hunting and showing, and will spend the winter in Camden, S.C.

The Dressage Horse

A wide range of riding disciplines brings together a diverse group of horses. Competitors spanned ages 3-14, some war horses with dozens of starts and some with only a couple timed workouts. Unlike Diplomat and other contestants with impressive resumes, Fifth Ace only ran three times and didn't finish in the top three in any of his starts. The gelding by Bernardini lacked aptitude on the racetrack, but Kentucky-based trainer Andrew

Diplomat's Day Out

I rode Diplomat and here's what it was like…

A text from Anita Motion came, and I was off the bench to join the Racing Media Team at The Real Rider Cup at Fair Hill in September after two months away from riding. Sara Katz graciously let me borrow her 2019 Retired Racehorse Project Makeover contestant, Diplomat.

He had it all—a Grade 1 win over jumps, consistent form, a classic bay coat and a blaze. The perfect pony.

For Diplomat, the crowd around the show ring on a Friday evening in Cecil County, Md., didn't quite compare to Saratoga Race Course in August 2017. The 2-foot-6 jumps weren't nearly as daunting as the hurdles in the New York Turf Writers Cup-G1 either, but somehow the 10-year-old retired racehorse knew that a ribbon meant just as much to his rider as being led into the winner's circle.

Event day, I nervously slipped into the green and white silks loaned to me by Lacey Gaudet. A leg up from my biggest fan, a pat on my still dusty boot and we were off. My job was to breathe and stay quiet. Though the crowd was different from the colorful masses at Saratoga, my cheer team was just as animated. Diplomat knew his job, we entered the ring and I could feel him grow with confidence.

Jumps one, two, three . . . I didn't follow my instructions, but we made it over. I told myself to breathe, knees up at jump nine and we were across the finish line. Did I just ride in a charity horse show or win a million dollars? Hard to tell. Hey Dippy, can we do that all over again?

I rode Diplomat, not well, but across another finish line.

– Ilana Cramer

Editor's Note: Two weeks before the Thoroughbred Makeover, Ilana Cramer did indeed ride Grade 1-winning steeplechaser Diplomat at The Real Rider Cup. As part of the Racing Media team, they put together a clean round—even without coming anywhere near the winning time of daredevil Clovis Crane and his mount Empire Road.

McKeever was impressed anyway and reached out to Alison O'Dwyer about the 3-year-old.

After a final race at Arlington Park in 2018, Fifth Ace was ready for his next career–and ready for O'Dwyer

"I normally wouldn't be keen on taking on such a young horse, but I just had a really good gut feeling about him," said Alison, whose husband Jeremiah worked for McKeever before starting his own string at Laurel Park. "I've been learning to just go with my gut, because it's been serving me well."

This was not the first time McKeever had come to Alison about taking on a retired racehorse. In 2017 she won the RRP Makeover's Dressage division on Chapter Two, another horse introduced by McKeever.

"Andrew just knows what I like," she said. "I feel like that's not how he wants to be known, producing Dressage champions, but he's doing a good job at it. I cantered him for the first time and it was like nothing I've ever felt straight off the track. He wasn't tight, he wasn't fast, he just knew how to balance himself."

Fifth Ace and Alison O'Dwyer go through their paces in dressage.

CANTERCLIX (2)

Susan Deal and West Virginia-bred Furaha, a son of Medford, skip over a fence in a show-jumping round.

Alison mainly works for her husband (now based at Laurel Park) doing bookkeeping, billing and payroll and works part time at Dover Saddlery. Being in Maryland has been a bit of an adjustment coming from Kentucky, but Fifth Ace settled in quickly and continued to learn. O'Dwyer and her horse weren't regularly taking dressage lessons, but she felt prepared even if things didn't go quite as expected.

"I went to Kentucky a week early to try and do Jump Start Horse Trials and the first day we turned him out at night he jumped two fencelines into a paddock that was not his," Alison said. "Then he got trapped and caught in the third fence line. We thought he had a catastrophic injury, by the way he was acting. I ended up taking him to Hagyard Equine Medical Institute in Lexington and they had to X-ray and ultrasound his leg. It ended up being fine, but he's such a wuss that he had us thinking it was something catastrophic."

Alison and her horse didn't get cleared to compete until just three days before the Makeover. Fifth Ace (just "Ace" around the barn) was more on his toes with the unscheduled break in training, but his rider just trusted he'd come around in the moments he had too, which he did.

"Ace rocked the initial day, he was foot perfect," Alison said. "I walked out of there thinking, we literally couldn't have done any better. Every single moment was the best we were capable of. I felt like he really earned being in the finale."

As a rider who mostly resells her horses, she's never wanted to keep a horse more.

"I am really trying to align everything in my life so I don't have to sell him," Alison said. "I really want to continue on with him and aim for the American Eventing Championships and Thoroughbred Incentive Program Championship next year."

The Show Hunter

Another success story that began with the placement by a racing trainer is this year's Show Hunter division winner Furaha. The 6-year-old West Virginia-bred raced his entire 11-start career at Charles Town and was retired from racing by trainer Mike Pearson in April 2018.

Owner Susan Deal credits Sara and Brian Hogan of Hogan Horse Transport for making the connection with Pearson and finding her the horse. Furaha is called "Pearson" around the barn after his former trainer. For Deal, the huge appeal of the horse was his sire, Medford.

"I've had two other horses from breeder Barbara Joan Belotti's stallion Medford," Deal said. "I like the stallion a lot, so the horse was a big draw for me."

The six months of retraining was rigorous, but the work was fun. Deal's son, Jim, also competed at this year's Makeover, in the Polo division with Write Your Story.

"My son and I would talk back and forth about our horses and both of us the week before we were like, 'Oh, our horses are ready,' said Susan. "We talked about that we wouldn't have done as much with our horses if we didn't have the goal of the Makeover. That really pressed us to get the horse ready in such a short amount of time."

Going into the event, Susan and her horse had competed together at various local shows, but the Makeover was a big step.

"I was super nervous going into the event, but the horse was well-schooled and I knew he was a quality horse," Deal said. "When I decided that I was going to do RRP, I knew the goal was to do right by the horse the best I could. I wanted to give the horse a good experience."

Since 2010, the Retired Racehorse Project has grown and expanded its signature Makeover event and national symposium–which included numerous education opportunities and clinics. The storylines of competitors continue to draw interest throughout the racing world, nationally and internationally–and horses like Diplomat, Fifth Ace and Furaha prove it.

Bittersweet Score

Brain Power, Henderson triumph in U.S. Grand National marred by loss

BY JOE CLANCY. PHOTOGRAPHS BY TOD MARKS.

Brain Power (Ire) won the race, but Wicklow Brave (GB) won the hearts.

Late in the $450,000 American Grand National hurdle stakes, showcase of the Far Hills Races in New Jersey Oct. 19, Wicklow Brave stormed up the hill toward the last fence and set sail. Behind the Irish-based star, English-based Brain Power came under pressure but fought on. One was going to be a winner. One was going to be a gallant runner-up. Both laid waste to the best American runners in the 2⅝-mile Grade 1.

And then Wicklow Brave fell at the last, the final jump of his life as a broken shoulder claimed the winner of 17 races and $1,323,663. Based with leading Irish trainer Willie Mullins, the 10-year-old had won a Grade 1 on the flat in the 2016 Irish St. Leger at The Curragh. He'd won a Grade 1 over hurdles in the 2017 Irish Champion Hurdle at Punchestown. He'd competed in Australia's famed Melbourne Cup-G1, finished fourth in Belmont Park's 2-mile Belmont Gold Cup-G3, even won his first three over the stiffer Irish chase fences this year. But even he couldn't recover from a broken shoulder. The loss left many struggling for an answer.

Patrick Mullins, who flew over with the horse as his father's assistant and rode Wickow Brave to victory seven times, wrote a remembrance for The Irish Field newspaper and tried to capture what the horse meant to the stable, the family, the sport.

A few paragraphs help explain it:

"Why were we fond of him? A good question really because he could be a grumpy bollocks and would kick the eye out of a spider if he wanted. If he was in bad mood, he'd go nowhere until he wanted to and you could go take a running jump. He was as good a horse to hurdle as I've ridden and yet he was prone to walk into doors . . . But I suppose because he was good, we laughed at the good of it rather than cursed him . . . A loveable and talented rogue. His individuality set him apart. We've had hundreds of horses through here but none put together mentally and physically quite the way he was. In a yard full of superstars, he'd managed to become unique, without being the best.

Brain Power (left) soars a fence while stalking the pace just behind Wicklow Brave early in the American Grand National at Far Hills in October.

Perhaps it wasn't the worst way to bow out. On the big stage, in his pomp. Not for him the slow decline into mediocrity. Yes, it was racing that took him away as such, but without racing we would never have known him like we did.

Fortune favours the brave they say in the fairy tales. Only when the hero survives though. Still, it was quite an adventure. Few were as brave or found as much fortune. It was one hell of a ride friend, you won't be forgotten around here."

Or here.

Realistically, Wicklow Brave was going to win the 2019 Grand National but Brain Power shouldn't be discredited. He turned in a strong performance on a big stage, running and jumping with power for jockey Nico De Boinville, trainer Nicky Henderson and owner Michael Buckley. The 8-year-old recaptured the form that had propelled him to a 162 rating in a seven-win career.

Bred in Ireland by David Harvey, Brain Power won over hurdles as a 4-year-old in 2015, added three more wins topped by a Grade 3 the following season and in 2017 tried the highest level with an eighth in the Champion Hurdle at Cheltenham. The bay gelding won the International Hurdle at Cheltenham in December 2018, but pulled up in the English Champion Hurdle at Cheltenham in March and Scottish Champion Hurdle in April.

Henderson and Buckley put him away then, and aimed at Far Hills for two basic reasons.

"You can't have the ground fast enough for him," said the trainer. "He can only run in the good races over here and they're not run at the right time of the year for him because the ground is too soft. We can get lucky here and there, but it usually doesn't work out.

"And he can bleed so the chance to run him on Lasix was there. He can get away with running here and not bleeding when it's dry, when it's the right trip or when things go right. He doesn't seem to last a season very easily though."

Brain Power had wind surgery twice in 2018 and has plenty of form gaps, but is also more than capable on his best days. Henderson gave his horse a month off in the spring, and gradually worked on fitness toward the October target. Most top English and Irish jumpers rest over the summer, but Brain Power went to work.

Irish-based and American-owned, Pravalaguna jumps the last fence en route to a win in the filly/mare stakes at Far Hills for Bruton Street-US and Willie Mullins.

"I had nothing to work him with because the good horses weren't in work and he's too much for the horses that were in work," Henderson said. "We went to Kempton Park, where they have an all-weather track, twice. The first time was on his own. I was clocking him because we often go there before Cheltenham. He did fine, but I wasn't sure he was doing enough to be fit enough."

So Brain Power went back to the racetrack, this time with company. The American Grand National hopeful went a mile on his own, then a stablemate jumped in for the second lap.

"Doing that can be dangerous," Henderson said. "You only get one chance to get it right and if it all goes wrong, you can't say 'Oh, well, do that again.' He gave him a bloody good lead for 7 furlongs, but Brain Power had already done a mile, and it worked out perfectly. That was the hardest part. I had to get him fit and I was worried he wasn't."

Fit as a marathon runner bound for Boston, Brain Power flew to the U.S., spent some time the week beforehand with trainer Leslie Young in Pennsylvania and went to Far Hills as part of a field of 12. Last year's winner Jury Duty (Ire) was back for Irish trainer Gordon Elliott, but met a far tougher field thanks to Wicklow Brave, Brain Power, the Elliott-trained The Storyteller (Ire) and a better cast of Americans. Jack Fisher entered Iroquois winner Scorpiancer (Ire) and Temple Gwathmey winner Moscato (GB). Young's novice winner Redicean (GB) got some attention, as did Grade 1 winner Surprising Soul and the returning Iranistan for Jonathan Sheppard. The only real absentee was dual summer Grade 1 winner Winston C (Ire), out with an injury.

Iranistan set the early pace, stalked by Wicklow Brave, with Brain Power third. The winner jumped big and bold throughout and as Paul Townend gave the favorite his cue on the backside, Brain Power followed. They quickly put everyone else on the defensive. Scorpiancer tried to keep up, Moscato was still ninth going into the far turn. In the end, Brain Power scored by 15 lengths over Scorpiancer, who was a neck in front of stablemate Moscato with Jury Duty fourth.

De Boinville was proud, but gracious in victory.

"He loves it here. America is really his place," the jockey said. "He likes the ground, he loves those fences, they are ideal, they fill his eye and he respects them. He's different gear here. Different gear. But, I was beat, I was beat. Full credit to Willie Mullins and Wicklow Brave."

Henderson, who won his first Grand National of any kind (he's run horses in the English, Irish, Scottish and Welsh), didn't make the trip to New Jersey but echoed the sentiment afterward.

"You have to say it's bittersweet," the trainer said. "You can't talk about the race without saying it. It was very sad what happened. We all respected enormously that we were probably lucky to win. If he'd have fallen and left us to win the race it's one thing, but to have fallen and lost his life it's another. It takes the gloss off it a bit. At the same time, you're proud of your horse and your team and of the accomplishment."

MORE FROM FAR HILLS

The day started much differently for the Mullins team, as Pravalaguna (Fr) stormed off with the $75,000 Peapack Stakes for fillies/mares. A winner of four hurdle races coming in, Pravalaguna lived up to her 159-pound weight assignment, lofty international rating of 142 and 4-5 odds. She won by 8 lengths for Townend and American owner Bruton Street-US.

The 7-year-old mare would not have looked out of place in the Grand National.

"She's incredibly versatile, she's won going 2 miles, 3 miles, she's won in the winter, won in the summer," Patrick Mullins said. "She's a very masculine mare, sometimes you're trying to keep the condition on them so you have to be easy on them. She hasn't missed a nut since she's come over here, we give her plenty of work, we give her plenty of racing and she thrives on it. You can't do it with every horse, but it's her constitution, she eats so well, she's so strong, she's able to take her racing, if she was a little feminine filly, you couldn't do that."

Pravalaguna practically won herself out of Irish/English racing, rising in the handicap system to a point where a change in scenery became a prudent choice. She will stay in the U.S. for a 2020 campaign with Fisher.

"Her options at home are kind of limited, she's got to the top of the handicaps, this looked like a good opportunity," Patrick Mullins said. "They were keen to come and we wanted a winner in America. My grandfather did it."

The win was the first in America for Willie Mullins, whose training career has included dozens of international starts beyond his Irish base including major wins in France, a win in Japan's Nakayama Grand Jump in 2013 and starts in Australia's Melbourne Cup among others. In just a handful of American tries, he'd been second with Clondaw Warrior (Ire) in the 2016 American St. Leger-G3 at Arlington Park, and second and third with Shaneshill (Ire) and Nichols Canyon (GB) in the 2016 Iroquois over jumps. Willie Mullins' father Patrick and star mare Grabel (GB) won the richest jump race in American history–the $750,000 Dueling Grounds International–in 1990.

Snap Decision collects his fourth consecutive win in the Foxbrook novice hurdle stakes at Far Hills.

Though the Grand National overshadowed the day, Far Hills again carded the deepest program on the circuit with stakes for every division and total purses of $850,000.

Star novice Snap Decision capped his season with his fourth consecutive victory for Bruton Street-US, Fisher and jockey Willie McCarthy, making off with the $100,000 Foxbrook Novice by 4¾ lengths over Days Without End (Ire) from the barn of Irish trainer Dermot Weld. Storm Team finished third after leading most of the way.

In his first season over jumps, Snap Decision opened with two maiden defeats and then the four wins–maiden at Monmouth Park, allowance at Saratoga, William Entenmann Novice at Belmont and Foxbrook. He earned $176,400 to nearly match the $189,934 he earned on the flat for owner/breeder Phipps Stable and trainer Shug McGaughey.

The 5-year-old son of Hard Spun easily captured the NSA novice championship for horses who started the year as maidens.

In other Far Hills action, Pik Em rallied from downtown to win the Appleton, a handicap hurdle for horses rated 130 and below, for Fisher and Woodslane Farm. The son of Tapit paid $50.60 to win, collecting his fourth win over jumps after winning once in nine flat tries for Colts Neck Stable and trainer Alan Goldberg. Pik Em cost Colts Neck $350,000 at Keeneland September in 2015 . . . Armata Stable's Zanzi Win (Fr) won the Harry Harris Stakes for 4-year-old hurdlers, prevailing in a five-way stretch scramble to win by a half-length over Caldbeck (GB), Emerald Rocket (Ire), Bodes Well (Ire) and Galway Kid (Ire). Jack Doyle rode the winner for trainer Ricky Hendriks . . . Rosbrian Farm's Global Freedom (GB) ousted nine others in the opener, the $50,000 Gladstone Stakes for 3-year-old hurdlers. Trained in Ireland by Gordon Elliott and ridden by Robbie Power, the winner rallied around horses on the final turn and scored by 2¾ lengths over Must See The Doc (GB) with Fast Car third . . . Recent import Fearsome (GB) won the new version of the New Jersey Hunt Cup, a $50,000 stakes on the turf. Purchased for £80,000 at Tattersalls in July, the 5-year-old trounced a strong field with an inside rally that propelled him to a 1¾-length win over Surprise Twist and Deposit. Darren Nagle rode the winner for Irv Naylor and trainer Cyril Murphy.

BEECHER SIGNS OFF AT PA HUNT CUP

After riding Mystic Strike to victory in the 85th Pennsylvania Hunt Cup Nov. 3, Mark Beecher climbed down, patted his horse on the shoulder, unbuckled the girths and headed for the scale to weigh-in. On the way back to the trophy presentation, he made a declaration.

"That's me. Over and out."

Five words, and he was retired—even if he wouldn't quite close the book completely.

"I think so," he said when pressed. "I'm pretty sure. This was the only race that kept getting away from me. I've won all the stakes, except this one. I said I can't retire without getting this one. I was second twice. The training is taking over, the weight is tougher and tougher."

Judging by Sunday, the riding is still just fine. Beecher, 34, engineered a perfect trip around the 4-mile, 22-fence course as Mystic Strike followed Grand Manan most of the way before making an inside play at the 20th fence. Grand Manan fought back and led after the second-last, only to be challenged again at the last. Mystic Strike took a slim lead and saw it out—winning by 2¼ lengths. Grand Manan stayed for second, with Super Saturday third. Trained by Todd McKenna for Upland Partners, the winner added a Pennsylvania Hunt Cup to his My Lady's Manor win in April.

"He jumped super, it was the horse today," said Beecher. "He ran and he jumped. I know this horse now and sometimes if he hits the front too early he has a bit of a look. I wanted to go a bit earlier, but I knew I couldn't. To be fair, he kept his head down and went on after the last fence. He was super."

The 10-year-old Smart Strike gelding won for the fifth time since switching to timber in 2016 and delivered a fun local win for his ownership group of Bill Wylie, Pete and Mary Mather, Sally Wood and Ian and Mary MacKinnon.

"Everybody's local to this race and this place," said Wylie, "We all foxhunted together. We've all lived close by each other. It's fun to do with friends. Grand Manan wasn't stopping and our horse looked like he was getting tired with a mile-and-a-half to go. He had a bad fence, the first fence the second time around. He's a really smart horse and when he knows he's better than the other guy he doesn't stop. He and Mark get along so well and we couldn't be happier."

Beecher came to the United States in 2010 for what was supposed to be a few weeks. He was going to ride the Maryland Hunt Cup, some other races maybe and then return home to a career with horses. Beecher's family owns Loughnatousa, known for breeding and producing Irish sport horses for foxhunting, eventing, show jumping and other careers. Mark worked in the family business, and was a successful show jumper through age 19. He moved over to racing in Northern Ireland and then became a jump jockey.

The American adventure was supposed to be an interlude to returning to the family business. Instead, he stayed—mixing all his horse knowledge to a career with many sides. He rides, trains, gives lessons, sells Irish horses to clients and has become part of the horse community in Maryland.

He won the Maryland Hunt Cup in 2013 and 2015, Virginia Gold Cup in 2013 and 2015, International Gold Cup in 2011, 2012, 2014 and 2015, My Lady's Manor in 2015 and 2019, Grand National in 2016. Other key timber wins came in the New Jersey Hunt Cup, Genesee Valley Hunt Cup, Mason Houghland and Radnor Hunt Cup. Pennsylvania proved to be elusive, as Beecher finished second in 2014 and 2015 with Cornhusker and was third in 2017 with Where's the Beef.

"When I came over it was to win the Hunt Cup," the Irishman said of Maryland. "I did that and you know how it goes. You start winning and you want to keep doing it. It's still fun. There's no better buzz. But I couldn't quit without having this. The Grand National eluded me. I got that. The New Jersey Hunt Cup. Then I got that. I kept coming back here and just getting beaten."

He won 52 races under rules, and plenty more point-to-points, built a business teaching lessons to foxhunters, eventers and other riders and became a trainer with two runners in 2015. He's won three races as a trainer this year.

JUMPING AROUND

Ballybristol Farm's Andi'amu (Fr) claimed the 2019 timber championship thanks to three wins to start the season in the Middleburg Hunt Cup, Virginia Gold Cup and National Sporting Library stakes. The 9-year-old finished second to Schoodic in the International Gold Cup in October, but claims the title based on $115,500 in earnings—to Schoodic's $109,500. Trained by Leslie Young, Andi'amu was good enough to win twice and place in a Grade 1 over hurdles during his first three American seasons (2015-17). He converted to timber with two cross-country wins over varied obstacles in 2018 and kept on winning over the proper timber fences this year.

In his first season over timber for Fisher and his mother Dolly, Schoodic won two stakes—the Genesee Valley Hunt Cup and International Gold Cup in October. The 9-year-old son of Tiznow, who raced on the flat and over hurdles for Edie Dixon, opened the year with three consecutive wins in April and May and finished second to Codrington College (Ire) at Shawan Downs in September.

In addition to his timber stakes win with Schoodic, Fisher won the $75,000 Zeke Ferguson Memorial hurdle stakes at the International Gold Cup with Gibralfaro (Ire). Owned by Riverdee Stable, the 7-year-old outran the Fisher-trained Hinterland (Ire) late to win by 3½ lengths. The leaders were helped late when a loose horse collided with Sempre Medici (Fr) and dislodged jockey Darren Nagle near the end of the final turn. Gibralfaro opened the season with a novice stakes win at the Queen's Cup in April, then made three Grade 1 starts (including a second in the New York Turf Writers Cup in August). The son of Dalakhani (Ire) bypassed Far Hills in favor of the Ferguson and was rewarded with the ninth win of his career.

Trainer Sanna Neilson legged up her niece Skylar McKenna on Royal Ruse in the maiden timber at the Pennsylvania Hunt Cup, and everybody came through as Charlie Fenwick's 5-year-old Hat Trick gelding won by 2¾ lengths to give McKenna her second win under rules. The first came for her mother Kathy Neilson aboard It's Nothing at Shawan Downs in late September.

Owner Irv Naylor enjoyed a strong finish to his season with a $50,000 flat win at Far Hills by Fearsome (GB), a $15,000 maiden claiming hurdle win with Mighty Mark at Aiken, a $30,000 maiden hurdle win with Family Tree (GB) at Aiken and a $40,000 Noel Laing handicap score with Amschel (GB) at Montpelier. The latter won three hurdle races in Ireland in 2018, and placed third in his only 2018 start for Naylor in the Foxbrook novice stakes at Far Hills before spending a year away from the entry box. This year, he returned to finish sixth at Far Hills Oct. 19 and then knocked off a solid field over the natural brush fences in the Laing for trainer Cyril Murphy and jockey Graham Watters. Carrying top weight of 158 pounds, the 5-year-old son of Nathaniel (Ire) drew off after the last fence and won by 3¼ lengths over Stooshie (Ire) with Pik Em third.

Mystic Strike and Mark Beecher jump a fence early on the way to a win in the Pennsylvania Hunt Cup timber stakes in what the jockey called his last ride.

Amateur jockey McLane Hendriks rode two late-season winners—aboard Diplodocus over hurdles at Aiken and aboard Flaming Sword (Ire) over timber at Genesee Valley. Hendriks is the son of trainers Ricky Hendriks and Lizzie Merryman.

Jockey Brian Linehan won the first three races of his career—a maiden timber with Rocket Star Red at Genesee Oct. 12 and a novice timber with Goodoldtimes (Ire) and a maiden claiming hurdle with Court Ruler (Ire) at Callaway Gardens Nov. 9.

For the second consecutive year, Far Hills offered pari-mutuel wagering and realized gains in all areas with more than $294,000 bet on-site and total handle of $440,084.

Regional-bred winners included Ebullience (Pennsylvania) for breeder/owner/trainer Jonathan Sheppard. The 7-year-old son of Fairbanks and the Citidancer mare Effervescent won two handicap hurdles in October after four starts at Presque Isle Downs. Junonia (Pennsylvania) won a maiden claimer for Kinross Farm and trainer Neil Morris. The son of City Zip and the Unbridled's Song mare Sanibel Star was bred by Mr. and Mrs. Rodman Moorhead. Virginia-bred Curve of Stones won a maiden timber at Middleburg for Sarah Rebecca Shepherd and trainer David Bourke. The son of Arch and the El Prado (Ire) mare Exceptionally was bred by Audley Farm. KMSN Stables' Able Archer (Pennsylvania) landed a cross-country race for Sheppard. The 7-year-old son of Eskendereya and the Point Given mare Fareena was bred by Spirit Lake Enterprises. Virginia-bred Dapper Dan won the cross-country Steeplethon Stakes at the International Gold Cup for owner Donna Rogers. Trained by Morris, the son of Pleasantly Perfect and the War Chant mare Wardrobe was bred by Bert and Diana Firestone. Sheppard and Hudson River Farms teamed up to breed Skydiving, a Pennsylvania-bred son of Jump Start and the Fit to Fight mare Solitary Strife who won an allowance hurdle at the International Gold Cup. The 4-year-old won a maiden hurdle in late September to get to the $45,000 non-winners of two. Another Sheppard-bred, Attracting, won a maiden claimer at Montpelier in November. The Pennsylvania-bred son of Denman (Aus) and the Citidancer mare Seducing is owned by his breeder/trainer and Vincent Bonanni. Sherry Fenwick's Pennsylvania-bred Anticipating, a 4-year-old daughter of Overanalyze and the Mojave Moon mare Confined, graduated the maiden ranks for Sheppard at Montpelier as well. ■

Maryland and West Virginia vs. the world

BY JOHN P. SPARKMAN

It is inevitable that the pedigrees of stallions in regional markets often reflect the pedigrees of prominent stallions on the national stage. Leading national stallions obviously attract the best mares and sire the highest proportion of talented sons, so there are simply more prospects with fashionable pedigrees for regional stallion managers to choose from.

As recently as the 1990s, though, the Mid-Atlantic region offered several stallions, led by horses like Smarten, whose pedigrees had relatively little in common with the star stallions of Kentucky. Smarten was a son of another great Mid-Atlantic stallion, Cyane (by the great Kentucky sire of sires *Turn-to), out of a mare (Smartaire) bred by the iconoclastic Fred Hooper, whose penchant for exotic pedigrees provided outcrosses for mainstream pedigrees for decades.

The "big book" era was just in its infancy in the 1990s and one of the unintended consequences of breeding so many mares to popular Kentucky stallions was that the market for regional stallions began to dry up. Regional breeders who could afford to send mares to Kentucky stallions began to send more mares, particularly their better ones, to Kentucky, leaving fewer mares for local stallions, regardless of their credentials. At the same time, old line Mid-Atlantic private breeders like Paul Mellon, Thomas Mellon Evans, James and Alice Mills, and Jane Lunger began to die off, and with them, stallions like Quadrangle and Cyane no longer stayed in the region.

Mid-Atlantic breeding organizations recognized the problem and instituted breeding and racing programs to attempt to mitigate some of those effects. Two of those programs, Maryland Million and West Virginia Breeders Classics, staged their big days of racing in October, and the joint results provide an interesting snapshot of the trends of the region's pedigrees.

The two days of racing at Charles Town and Laurel on Oct. 12 and 19, respectively, included 20 races, which produced 19 individual winners after Anna's Bandit, a West Virginia-bred by the Maryland stallion Great Notion won the West Virginia "Cavada" Breeders Classic and wheeled back a week later to capture the Maryland Million Distaff Handicap. As shown in the accompanying table, eight of the 19 winners were sired by stallions from the Mr. Prospector male line (42 percent of the total), six by Northern Dancer line stallions (32 percent) and five by stallions descending in male line from *Nasrullah (26 percent).

These rough figures are more or less in line with the national averages for graded stakes winners over the last decade or so, where Mr. Prospector and Northern Dancer generally provide about 35 percent each of North American graded stakes winners annually and *Nasrullah around 20 percent, with a smattering of other lines producing the rest. Those numerically less powerful male lines such as the Man o' War male line through In Reality, represented by Tiznow and his sons in Kentucky, are rarely given a chance in regional markets.

Similarly, the branches represented in the Mid-Atlantic region are among the most common ones in Kentucky as well. The Fappiano (through Unbridled and Candy Ride-Arg) and Gone West (through Elusive Quality and Speightstown) branches of Mr. Prospector are represented on the North American leading sire lists by stallions such as Quality Road, Speightstown, Candy Ride and Twirling Candy, among many others. The Deputy Minister, Sadler's Wells and Storm Cat branches of Northern Dancer are well represented by leading sires Into Mischief, Giant's Causeway, Kitten's Joy, Medaglia d'Oro and Ghostzapper.

The distribution of broodmare sire lines is always more diverse on a national level than the distribution of sires of stakes winners, and this is even more true regionally, as shown in the accompanying table. This is largely because broodmare sires represent an older population of stallions than the sires of winners. Even before the big book era, the diversity of American sire lines was declining as the Northern Dancer, Mr. Prospector and *Nasrullah lines began to dominate graded stakes results and sire lists. Ancient and honorable American male lines, including *Blenheim II, Domino and Bull Lea declined when their representatives could not compete with the brilliance of the dominant lines.

Broodmare sire diversity is even more of a factor regionally because regional breeders are, of necessity, more willing to give broodmares by relatively obscure stallions a chance. Thus the Maryland and West Virginia races saw winners produced by daughters of such stallions as Robb (by Strawberry Road-Aus), No Armistice (by Unbridled), and Leading the Parade (by A.P. Indy), names that are unlikely to appear as broodmare sires of graded stakes winners.

It is, perhaps, a bit unfair to compare the pedigrees of winners of restricted state-bred or -sired stakes to those of graded stakes winners, but it is those races that can give us a picture of what we have to work with. And with the possibility on the horizon of a restriction on the number of mares that can be bred to an individual stallion, the Mid-Atlantic's prospects of attracting more and better stallions could improve over the next decade. ✹

Diamond B Farm's Flashback sires Breeders' Cup winner

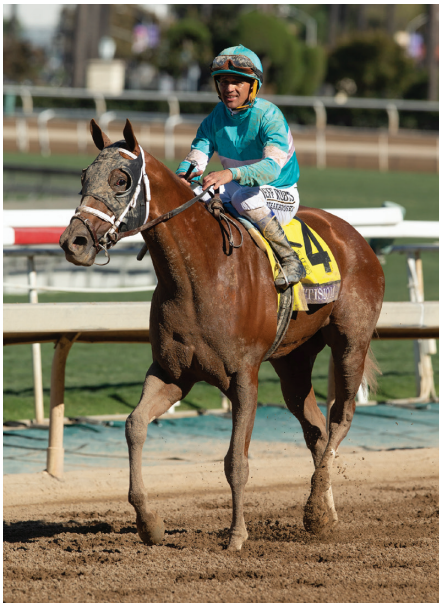
The top 2-year-old filly in the nation is Flashback's daughter British Idiom, who first dazzled when taking Keeneland's Alcibiades Stakes Oct. 4 by 6½ lengths, and followed with a win in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies-G1 Nov. 1.

Owned by Michael Dubb, The Elkstone Group (Stuart Grant), Madaket Stables and Bethlehem Stables, British Idiom is undefeated in three starts. Trained by Brad Cox, she broke her maiden by 3½ lengths at Saratoga Aug. 15 before making her stakes debut in the Alcibiades.

Off the win at Keeneland, she was the second choice in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Santa Anita. After saving ground early, she battled favorite Donna Veloce to the wire to win by a neck and most likley seal championship honors.

Bred in Kentucky by Hargus Sexton, Sandra Sexton and Silver Fern Farm, British Idiom is out of the Mr. Sekiguchi mare Rose and Shine and sold for $40,000 as a yearling at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky October sale. Her $1,100,000 Breeders' Cup payday pushed her earnings to $1,381,250.

The Mid-Atlantic's leading 2-year-old sire of 2019, Flashback moved to Diamond B Farm in Mohrsville, Pa., for the 2019 season after standing at Hill 'N' Dale Farm in Kentucky.



BENOIT PHOTO

Owned by Gary and Mary West, the graded stakes-winning son of Tapit has two crops to race, and is also the sire of Grade 1-placed filly Boujie Girl, who finished third in last year's Del Mar Debutante Stakes at Del Mar, Canadian graded-placed Tripwire, second in his stakes debut last year in Woodbine's Grey Stakes-G3, and Forever Changed, a stakes-placed earner of $163,110.

A winner of his only start at 2, Flashback won the Grade 2 Robert B. Lewis Stakes and was second in the Grade 1 Santa Anita Derby (to Goldencents) and Grade 2 San Felipe in his first three stakes appearances at 3, all at a mile or more over a three-month span. In seven starts, he ran six times in stakes, also finishing second in the 7-furlong Damascus at Santa Anita and third in Churchill Downs' Ack Ack Handicap-G3 at 1 mile, and finished fourth in the Grade 1 Malibu Stakes to retire with earnings of $405,730.

Flashback is a full-brother to multiple Grade 1 winner Zazu ($691,985, Las Virgenes S-G1, Lady's Secret S-G1, etc.), who is the dam of stakes-winning, group placed Arusha. His dam, the winning Mr. Greeley mare Rhumb Line, also produced stakes winners Corinthian's Jewel and group-placed stakes producer Art Princess. Both Zazu and Rhumb Line were million-dollar broodmares, selling for $2.1 million and $2 million respectively.

Flashback, 9, will stand the 2020 season for $3,500 live foal, with special consideration to mares foaling in the state.

Capo Bastone moves to O'Sullivan Farms in West Virginia

The Funkhouser family's O'Sullivan Farms has added Grade 1 sprinter Capo Bastone to its West Virginia roster in Charles Town. The property of O'Sullivan Farms and Eric Steinmann, the 9-year-old stallion, whose oldest foals are 3-year-olds, will stand the 2020 season for $2,000 live foal, payable when the foal stands and nurses, with special consideration to multiple bookings.

The son of track record-setting Grade 1 sprinter Street Boss won from 5½ furlongs to 1 1/16 miles. His biggest score came at Saratoga during his 3-year-old season when he won the Grade 1 King's Bishop Stakes, driving home to complete 7 furlongs in 1:22.22. Earlier in the year, he just missed winning the Derby Trial Stakes-G3, when a neck behind Forty Tales.

He launched his career in California, winning a maiden special weight in his debut at Del Mar. Two of his four starts that year were Grade 1-placings: thirds in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile and the FrontRunner Stakes.

He retired with three wins in 17 starts, four stakes wins or placings, and earnings of $731,756.

In his first two crops, Capo Bastone is the sire of eight winners from 15 starters, including multiple stakes-placed $240,050-earner Starship Nala. He formerly stood at Adena Springs in Kentucky.

Out of the graded stakes-placed Fit to Fight mare Fight to Love, Capo Bastone is a half-brother to multiple graded stakes-placed stakes producer C J's Leelee. His family includes Canadian champion Fantasy Lake, group winner Tobin Lad, General George Handicap-G2 winner Why Change, and stakes-winning La Jalouse, the dam of stakes winners Exclusive One, Jetto and Ohsomellow.

Golden Lad gets first stakes winner

Hello Beautiful, the first winner for freshman sire Golden Lad, became his first stakes winner after taking the Maryland Million Lassie at Laurel Park Oct. 19.

Sent off the lukewarm choice in the field of 12, Hello Beautiful shot right to the front, posted all the fractions and drew off to win by 3¾ lengths. Her final time for the 6 furlongs was 1:10.33.

Never off the board in five outings, the the dark bay filly recorded her second win. Owned by Madaket Stables, Mark Frasetto, Mark Parkinson, K-mac Stables and Magic City Stables, Hello Beautiful is trained by Brittany Russell, who purchased her for $6,500 as a yearling at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic December mixed sale. Bred by Ellen Charles' Hillwood Stables, the filly is the first winner from two foals of racing age for her dam Hello Now, a winning daughter of Tiznow.

Golden Lad, sire of 67 foals in his first crop, has taken over the top spot among Mid-Atlantic freshmen sires (through Nov. 15), with eight winners and three stakes horses and progeny earnings in excess of $440,000. His stakes-placed runners are Maryland Million Nursery third-place finisher Laddie Liam, and She'smysunshine, third in the Parx Juvenile Fillies Stakes.

A multiple graded stakes-winning son of Medaglia d'Oro, Golden Lad won eight of 15 starts while amassing $645,320. He recorded wins in Prairie Meadows' Cornhusker Handicap-G3, Oaklawn Park's Razorback Handicap-G3 and Essex Handicap, and Penn National's Mountainview Handicap, and set a track record for 1 1/16 miles at Gulfstream Park. The 9-year-old is out of the stakes-winning mare Broadway Gold, by Seeking the Gold, who is also the dam of graded winner Broadway's Alibi and multiple stakes winner R Gypsy Gold, both Grade 1-placed runners. His third dam is champion 2-year-old filly Eliza.

JIM MCCUE

The property of a syndicate, Golden Lad stands at Northview Stallion Station in Chesapeake City, Md., for $5,000 live foal, payable when the foal stands and nurses.

PAC

MARYLAND HORSE BREEDERS ASSOCIATION

Since 1929

POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE

WHAT IS MHBA'S PAC?

It is a political action committee formed by the Maryland Horse Breeders Association. The PAC solicits voluntary contributions from individuals or corporations to support issues or assist selected candidates for public office in the state of Maryland who are interested in the problems of our industry and are willing to help us solve those problems.

WHY DO WE NEED PAC?

The largest market for horses bred in Maryland is horse racing, an industry which is closely regulated by state government. In addition, while not well understood, horse breeding is an especially important segment of Maryland agriculture. The economic well-being of racing and breeding is very much a function of the political process. It is essential to the health of our industry that we educate our elected officials and support those who work with us on issues vital to our interests.

HOW DOES PAC WORK?

The PAC receives voluntary contributions through its treasurer which are then disbursed to candidates or spent supporting issues as selected by a committee headed by the chairperson of the MHBA Legislative Committee. Any administrative expense will be paid by the MHBA. Reports of PAC contributions must be filed with the State Administrative Board of Elections and are a matter of public record.

WHAT ARE THE LAWS GOVERNING CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS?

No corporation or individual may give more than $6,000 to a single candidate or PAC in any given four-year election cycle.

WHAT IS THE TAX STATUS OF MY CONTRIBUTION?

Contributions to the MHBA PAC are not deductible under state or federal law.

HOW DO I PARTICIPATE?

NEWS AND NOTES

First stakes winner for Cal Nation

Pennsylvania stallion Cal Nation, who launched his stud career at Country Life Farm in Bel Air, Md., in 2013, got his first stakes winner when 2-year-old Ournationonparade pulled away to a 3¾-length score in the Maryland Million Nursery at Laurel Park Oct. 19. Making his second start, the chestnut gelding owned by Reeves Thoroughbred Racing had finished second in his debut, and was sent off as the favorite in the 10-horse field. He rated off the early pace and flew home in 1:09.73 for 6 furlongs. Bred by John E. "Jay" Williamson III, Ournationonparade is out of Parade of Colors, by Leading the Parade, and is full-brother to $269,364 earner Parade of Nations.

Cal Nation has sired 25 winners from 38 starters in his first four crops, and the earners of nearly $2 million.

The graded stakes-placed son of Distorted Humor from the renowned sire family of Numbered Account is one of five stakes performers for the A.P. Indy mare She's a Winner, who also produced Grade 1-winning millionaire and leading California sire Bluegrass Cat, graded winners Dramedy and Lord of the Game, and stakes winner and champion sire Sonoma Cat, and is the granddam of graded stakes-winning juvenile Nonna Mela. Numerous well-known sires are in the immediate family, including Kentucky Derby winner Super Saver, Private Account, Not For Love, Girolamo, Mutakddim, Frost Giant and Polish Numbers, as well as champion Rhythm.

Cal Nation was sold privately to Richard Wukich at the end of 2016, and has stood at Wukich's Kingfisher Lane Farm in Slippery Rock, Pa., since 2017. His stud fee for 2020 is $2,500 live foal, with special consideration for mares foaling in Pennsylvania.

New West Virginia stallion Despite the Odds gets first stakes winner

Port Louis surprised the crowd on Maryland Million Day Oct. 19 when getting up to win a starter handicap at 67-1, and also made news by becoming the first stakes winner for sire Despite the Odds, the former Maryland stallion who will stand at Bybee Road Farm on Avonwood in Charles Town, W.Va. in 2020

Bred by Anchor & Hope Farm, Port Louis got his fourth win in 24 starts in his stakes debut. Trained by C. Robert Haynes for his own Rob Ry Farm, the 4-year-old gelding from his sire's first full crop now has earnings of $113,592.

A graded stakes-winning son of Speightstown, Despite the Odds won the Grade 3 Hill Prince Stakes at Belmont going 1 mile, and was second in three stakes from 19 starts. After siring a test crop in 2013, he stood his first full season in 2014 at Heritage Stallions in Chesapeake City, Md.

Out of the Cozzene mare Lady Aloma, a stakes-winning half-sister to Canadian Horse of the Year Benburb, Despite the Odds is a half-brother to three stakes winners, including Canadian champion grass mare Chopinina.

Despite the Odds will stand the 2020 season for $1,500, payable when the foal stands and nurses. He is now the property of Dennis Bybee.

Last Gunfighter gets first win

Last Gunfighter, who stood three seasons at Pin Oak Lane Farm in New Freedom, Pa., before his death in 2018, got his first winner from his first crop when 2-year-old gelding Outrigger swept home by 1¾ lengths at Canada's Century Downs Oct. 27. Bred in Pennsylvania by Mary K. Haire, the dark bay gelding had been sold as a yearling at the 2018 OBS October Yearling sale for $2,200. He is the second foal out of the stakes-winning mare Yeardley (by Don't Get Mad).

Millionaire Last Gunfighter was a seven-time stakes winner who won nine of 21 starts and retired with earnings of $1,219,205. He recorded graded stakes scores in the Hawthorne Gold Cup Handicap-G2 and Grade 3 Pimlico Special, Excelsior and Philip H. Iselin Stakes.

The son of Grade 1 winner First Samurai (by Giant's Causeway) was out of Saratoga Cat (by Sir Cat), and a half-brother to Grade 3 winner Tiger Moth. He was from the family of Eclipse Award-winning 2-year-old and champion sire Dehere and three-time graded winner and Kentucky Derby-G1 and Preakness Stakes-G1 placed Diabolo.

Scipion leaves region

Murmur Farm has sold Scipion, the son of A.P. Indy who has stood at the Darlington, Md., farm since 2008. Audrey Murray received a call over the summer from an agent looking to move the 17-year-old stallion to Texas and the syndicate approved the sale.

Scipion has nine crops of racing age and is the sire of four stakes winners, topped by Pitch N Roll, a stakes winner at 2 and an earner of $281,330. Scipion's richest runner is multiple stakes-placed Grandiflora, with $357,334. Through early November Scipion has sired the earners of $6,594,286, with 72 winners from 117 starters.

A three-quarter-brother to champion Vindication, Scipion won the Grade 3 Risen Star Stakes at 3 and earned $194,056 from 17 starts.

Secretariat's Living Legends

A 2020 calendar featuring the last living sons and daughters of the Triple Crown winner.

Order yours today!

Proceeds to benefit equine industry groups

The new 2020 calendar featuring the last living sons and daughters of legendary 1973 Triple Crown winner Secretariat is the third in a series of fund-raising calendars celebrating Secretariat's legacy through his remaining offspring.

On the cover of the new calendar are the two oldest known living offspring of Secretariat, the mare Ball Chairman and the gelding Border Run; both are 31 this year. Ball Chairman is the dam of G1 winner and sire Perfect Soul, while Border Run is a full brother to Terlingua and Pancho Villa. Also included are 29-year-old Secret of the Sea, one of the final Secretariat foals born in the spring of 1990, and 30-year-old Trusted Company, who surfaced late last year and is a newcomer to this calendar series.

With so few known sons and daughters left, the Living Legends Class of 2020 also includes six grandsons notable in some way to Secretariat fans. Two are true living legends themselves – 30-year-old Horse of the Year and sire phenomenon A.P. Indy, and 27-year-old Istabraq, a legend over the hurdles in the U.K. and his native Ireland. The others are Holy Roman Emperor, the best of Secretariat's later grandsons as both a racehorse and as a sire, and two of the last three runners out of Secretariat mares – Tobias, who has raced in 2019, and Brigantes, who retired after his last race in 2017. Along with Brigantes is his half-brother High Action, a G2-winning steeplechaser.

There is one more very special horse featured – Secretariat himself. Thanks to the generosity of The Tony Leonard Collection, a photo of the Triple Crown winner by the late, great photographer appears in the 2020 calendar.

All profits from the sale of the calendar are allocated to two worthy organizations, each of which has been a caretaker of at least one of the last known Secretariats. They are Bright Futures Farm, an equine rescue and sanctuary accredited by the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance, and Victory Alliance Ranch, an equine rescue and sanctuary supporting veterans and special needs children.

Maryland-breds get moments at Maryland Million too

By Sara Gordon

Jim McCue

Restricted to the progeny of Maryland sires, Maryland Million Day annually celebrates the state's Thoroughbred industry like few other events – the Preakness Day scene is more festive, but different – but business is business.

When the Maryland-sired fields don't reach eight, the races are opened to Maryland-bred entries. Pari-mutuel handle matters, and as the state's sire ranks continue to rebound sometimes compromises are needed. No harm, no foul. This year's races at Laurel Park Oct. 19 featured three Maryland-bred, but not Maryland-sired, winners led by Zonda (by Scat Daddy) in the Ladies, Taco Supream (El Padrino) in the Sprint and Bowsprit (Mast Track) in the Turf Starter Handicap open to Maryland Million horses and/or Maryland-breds.

Zonda

In the $125,000 Ladies, Matt Schera's Zonda defeated two-time race winner My Sistersledge by 1½ lengths to become a stakes winner for trainer Chuck Lawrence. Breeder Caroline Stautberg of Monkton was out of town, but celebrated with the chestnut filly born Feb. 13, 2016.

"She was just determined that she was going to win that time," Stautberg said. "I felt so good about it when I saw her coming, I knew she wasn't going to let anybody get her."

Zonda won for the third time in eight starts (with a second) and pushed her career earnings to $159,407 while also erasing a rough trip in the Bald Eagle Derby against males at Laurel Park. That day, the 3-year-old filly was tiring but leading in the stretch when challenged by Jais's Solitude at the sixteenth pole. Her rival drifted in, causing Zonda to take up sharply and drop back to sixth. Jais's Solitude was disqualified, but probably cost the filly a stakes-placing.

She more than made up for it in the Ladies.

"She's so beautiful and she tries so hard," said Stautberg, who sold Zonda for $155,000 at Fasig-Tipton's Saratoga yearling sale in 2017. "The determination is what I've always just loved about her."

A daughter of the late Scat Daddy, Zonda is the eighth foal from Winning Season, a graded stakes placed daughter of Lemon Drop Kid out of the multiple graded stakes winner Topicount. Stautberg purchased Zonda's dam in 2012, in foal to Malibu Moon, following her $110,000 RNA at the Keeneland November sale.

Zonda's second dam Topicount, a Virginia-bred daughter of Private Account, made 43 starts, 20 in graded company with wins in the 1988 Rare Perfume-G2 and 1990 Monmouth Park Budweiser Breeders' Cup-G3. She won nine races, placed in 19 others and earned $607,618. As a broodmare, she produced eight winners from nine starters, including stakes winners Laguna Seca, by Seattle Slew, and Winning Season.

The latter won four of 20, and at 2 won 2004 Raging Fever Stakes at Aqueduct and finished third in the Demoiselle-G2. Since producing her first foal in 2007, Winning Season is the dam of five winners, out of nine foals total. For Stautberg, she has produced yearlings who brought $290,000 (in 2013), $40,000 (2014) and $75,000 (2018) in addition to Zonda's $155,000 pricetag. Zonda is her dam's first stakes winner.

It was clear to Stautberg and farm manager Darin Martin that Zonda was a special one from the beginning.

"It's easy to say that she's the one that stood out more than anyone else since she's been so successful," said Martin. "All of [Winning Season's] foals have been very, very attractive and Zonda was just like the rest of them. She just was a little bigger and had more scope."

Zonda's half-brother Tio Wil, a 2-year-old son of Bayern, was purchased for $75,000 at Keeneland September in 2018 by McKathan Brothers and was in training at Gulfstream Park in November. Stautberg has Winning Season's most recent foal, a weanling colt by Unified, and plans to breed the mare to something along the same lines as Zonda's late sire.

Supplemented as a racing or broodmare prospect to Fasig-Tipton Kentucky's November sale, Zonda was purchased for $500,000 by Live Oak Stud.

Taco Supream

As Big Bertha Stable's Taco Supream drove down the stretch to capture the $100,000 Sprint, he added to the impressive legacy that has developed through Ann Jackson's broodmare band at Fox Harbor Farm in White Hall, Md.

A 4-year-old gelded son of the late Pennsylvania sire El Padrino, the chestnut bred by Jackson captured his first stakes by three-quarters of a length while outrunning multiple graded stakes winner Call Paul and others. Trained by Damon Dilodovico, Taco Supream won for the seventh time in 19 starts and increased his earnings to $305,256.

Jim McCue

"It was fun for me because I love watching the horses I've bred run and I was standing right by the finish line when Taco won," Jackson said. "As he crossed the line, this crowd erupted behind me and I realized it was the syndicate [Big Bertha], so I ran over and introduced myself. I came down [into the winner's circle] and got in the win picture too."

Jackson owns Taco Supream's dam Barouchka and owned her dam, Millashand, who spent her retirement on the farm and was euthanized last year at 22. Jackson and her late husband, Cary, had purchased Millashand, an Ontario-bred stakes winner in foal to Harlan's Holiday, for $45,000 at the 2005 Keeneland January sale. A daughter of Regal Intention out of Soiled Dove, the mare produced nine foals, with four winners from five starters, including Raven's Choice, winner of the Maryland Hunt Cup and Grand National timber stakes in 2015 and Furman Bisher, who was grand champion of the 2010 Maryland Horse Breeders Association yearling show. Millashand's last foal was reported in 2011: Millamant, a filly by Langfuhr, who never raced.

"We had a lot of hope that Barouchka would do well when she raced, but she never could win and failed to break her maiden," said Jackson. "But she's a big, beautiful mare and she's made a wonderful broodmare, so can't complain."

Barouchka was bred by Cary, a longtime Maryland breeder, steeplechase and flat owner, and Maryland Horse Breeders Association yearling show participant, who passed away in 2011 following a car accident on his way home from Lexington, Ky. Cary had gained permanent possession of the yearling show's Chanceland Challenge Trophy the year prior to his passing, following his third win and donated the Foxharbor Farm Challenge Trophy which was subsequently retired by Bob Manfuso and Katy Voss.

"After [my husband] died, I sort of pared everything down and really just decided it was more fun for me to breed locally and have them run locally, then I could enjoy seeing them run," said Jackson. "Also, the breeder bonuses have been fantastic."

Barouchka is the dam of five foals of racing age, all winners by Mid-Atlantic stallions, including multiple stakes placed Renaissance Rosie, a daughter of Jump Start who sold for $35,000 as a yearling and went on to win 15 of 25 starts with earnings of $372,819.

Despite selling for $1,600 as a yearling in the 2016 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale, Taco Supream has proven himself.

"We had been really interested in breeding the mare to El Padrino," Jackson said. "Everyone that year was so excited about California Chrome and the breeding was similar between the Pulpit and Not For Love crosses. We thought we'd just try it to see what would happen and it has turned out to be a good cross."

Jackson claimed back Taco Supream's half-sister Renaissance Rosie last November for $25,000 and has bred her to Golden Lad for 2020. Two half-siblings are still racing: Donald Herrington's four-time winner Baltimore County, a 5-year-old gelding by Orientate and Jim Wolf's three-time winner Artful Splatter, a 3-year-old daughter of Bandbox.

Barouchka has a weanling filly by Great Notion this year. Jackson plans to sell her in next year's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale. Barouchka is barren for 2020.

Bowsprit

Like the bow of a ship cuts through waves, Ted Mudge's homebred Bowsprit cut through the stretch to fight off Son of Aponi, in the $60,000 Turf Starter Handicap by a neck.

The gelding's feat served as a proud moment for his breeder, who races under Silhouette LLC. A longtime supporter of the Maryland breeding program who spent years on the Maryland Million board, Mudge now resides in Pennsylvania.

"I love the Maryland Million and think it's a great idea," said Mudge. "The whole thing is just a terrific boost to the state breeding industry and I'm very fortunate that they've allowed registered Maryland-breds to run in some of these races."

At the 2011 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic December sale, Bowsprit's dam Sassy Number piqued Mudge's interest. Despite a short racing career with minimal success, the daughter of Include was out of the Polish Numbers mare Star Number, bred by longtime successful breeder Bob Meyerhoff. Never raced, Star Number has produced 11 foals, with six winners from seven starters, including multiple stakes winner Hartigan, by Include, and the multiple stakes-winning son of Curlin, Struth.

"Her breeding obviously is sensational," said Mudge. "She's a Meyerhoff family horse, so for a small breeder like me, any time you can tap into a family like that your hopes go up."

From five foals, all by Maryland sires with the exception of Bowsprit, Sassy Number has produced four horses of racing age and two winners. Bowsprit is by Mast Track, who stood five seasons at Frank Stronach's Adena Springs in Ontario. Mudge originally planned to breed to Adena Springs stallion Sligo Bay (Ire), but he was unavailable at the time.

Bowsprit is his dam's most successful progeny and highest earner, amassing $115,210 with a record of 4-1-3 from 21 career starts. Aside from Madam Alex, the first foal and winner from Sassy Number who was claimed in her second career start for $25,000, Mudge owns all of Bowsprit's half-siblings: Hot On Time, a 4-year-old unplaced son of Showing Up, and three colts by Anchor and Hope Farm's Imagining, including 2-year-old Late Night Fantasy, a yearling and this year's weanling.

Jim Duley

"[Sassy Number] was late this year, so we did not breed her back," said Mudge. "She's had a couple by Imagining and she'll go back to him next year because I really like what's come out of that pairing." ❧

PAC

MARYLAND HORSE BREEDERS ASSOCIATION
Since 1929

POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE

WHAT IS MHBA'S PAC?

It is a political action committee formed by the Maryland Horse Breeders Association. The PAC solicits voluntary contributions from individuals or corporations to support issues or assist selected candidates for public office in the state of Maryland who are interested in the problems of our industry and are willing to help us solve those problems.

WHY DO WE NEED PAC?

The largest market for horses bred in Maryland is horse racing, an industry which is closely regulated by state government. In addition, while not well understood, horse breeding is an especially important segment of Maryland agriculture. The economic well-being of racing and breeding is very much a function of the political process. It is essential to the health of our industry that we educate our elected officials and support those who work with us on issues vital to our interests.

HOW DOES PAC WORK?

The PAC receives voluntary contributions through its treasurer which are then disbursed to candidates or spent supporting issues as selected by a committee headed by the chairperson of the MHBA Legislative Committee. Any administrative expense will be paid by the MHBA. Reports of PAC contributions must be filed with the State Board of Elections and are a matter of public record.

WHAT ARE THE LAWS GOVERNING CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS?

No corporation or individual may give more than $6,000 to a single candidate or PAC in any given four-year election cycle.

WHAT IS THE TAX STATUS OF MY CONTRIBUTION?

Contributions to the MHBA PAC are not deductible under state or federal law.

HOW DO I PARTICIPATE?

MHBA: Looking to the Future – and a Revised Mission

By Cricket Goodall

"The future depends on what we do in the present."

– Mahatma Gandhi

The MHBA 2017 Strategic Plan and Overview determined that "the representation services MHBA provides are without a doubt central to its mission."

The mission states that the MHBA exists to encourage, promote, protect and improve the horse breeding industry in Maryland. Serving that mission MHBA has become the leading advocate for the Thoroughbred industry in the state while providing informational resources, legislative representation and educational opportunities for its members.

MHBA has spent this year celebrating history and noting how much of that history was shaped by the people in Maryland who decided that the goals of promoting, protecting and improving the horse breeding industry were important enough to start an association in 1929 to do just that. Their foresight was impressive, and their love of the horse and horse sports was their guide star.

MHBA is standing tall on the tower of ideas that inspired those men and women to make the vitality of an industry their guide star. Everyone who participates today recognizes that education is more important now than ever. Now is the time to focus on the future. To be creative with solutions; not just prepare to meet challenges but have a vision.

"Success is not final; failure is not fatal: It is the courage to continue that counts."

– Winston Churchill

MHBA members are horse people at heart and often successful in business and other endeavors. They breed, own and love horses and the sport and lifestyle that evolves around them. They value and love the land because it pays dividends in healthy horses. Success validates the hard work and heartache that are a part of any worthy venture.

For the future MHBA is embracing and focusing on education. Education of the next generation, education of lawmakers and education of the general public. Education is the most direct route adhering to our mission. Education will provide our future members and leaders with the tools and templates for continued growth. As in any business and every family the next generation is necessary to have a viable future. MHBA will guide and we will listen to those who are committed to a productive and prosperous future.

After 90 years it is time to officially add education to our mission statement. MHBA has been educating for most of those decades but it should now be stated as a core value and tenet. Our members know what you do and why it is important but MHBA must make sure others do as well.

Education is the passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to those who prepare for it today.

– Malcolm X

The new MHBA mission statement will read:

Our mission is to educate and promote; encourage and improve the breeding, raising and racing of horses in Maryland.

- To Educate: to give training in or information on a field.
- To Promote: to further the progress of something; support or actively encourage.
- To Encourage: to help or stimulate; to develop.
- To Improve: to make or become better.

If the MHBA, our leaders and members can continue to be guided by these important principles the future looks bright.

Knowledge is power. Information is liberating. Education is the premise of progress, in every society, in every family.

– Kofi Annan

Maryland Report of Mares Bred in 2019

Maryland ranks sixth among states and provinces for the 2019 breeding season, with 780 mares reported bred to 31 stallions, based on The Jockey Club's Report of Mares Bred statistics received through Oct. 16. The average book of 25.2 mares per Maryland stallion is second only to Kentucky (77.8).

The busiest four stallions in Maryland stood at Northview Stallion Station, in Chesapeake City: Golden Lad with 89, first-year stallion Irish War Cry (83), Maryland's leading sire Great Notion (76) and Madefromlucky (58), with Anchor and Hope Farm's Imagining (48) fifth.

The Jockey Club has received reports for 1,134 stallions, who covered 29,218 mares in North America during 2019. The number of stallions declined 6.6 percent nationally from the 1,214 at this time in 2018, and the number of mares bred decreased 3.5 percent from the 30,274 reported last year.

The Jockey Club estimates that an additional 2,500 to 3,500 mares will be reported as bred during the 2019 season.

Statistics for all reported stallions in 2019 are available through the Fact Book section of jockeyclub.com. ❧

Maryland-bred racemares bring six figures at Fasig-Tipton Kentucky November Sale

Maryland Million Ladies winner Zonda and multiple stakes winner Enchanted Ghost, entered as racing or broodmare prospects, were the highest-priced Maryland-breds of four sold at Fasig-Tipton's November Sale Nov. 5 in Lexington, Ky.

The most expensive, at $500,000, was Zonda, purchased by Live Oak Stud. Breaking her maiden in her career debut in May, the 3-year-old filly finished fourth in the Christiana Stakes and Fasig-Tipton Virginia Oaks, fifth in the Light Hearted Stakes and Bald Eagle Derby, and won an allowance in August. In her most recent start she drew off in the $125,000 Maryland Million Ladies Oct. 19. Campaigned by Matt Schera, who plucked her out of the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga select yearling sale for $155,000, Zonda has a record of 8-3-1-0, with $159,407 in earnings.

Bred by Caroline Stautberg's Willow Oaks Stable, Zonda is one of five winners from her dam Winning Season, a daughter of the multiple graded stakes winner Topicount. She was consigned by South Point Sales Agency.

Ghostzapper's 4-year-old daughter Enchanted Ghost, consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, was purchased by Double Bridges for $335,000. Racing for Mens Grille Racing after being selected out of the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale for $75,000, Enchanted Ghost broke her maiden in her fourth start at 2, was third in her stakes debut in her first start at 3 in the Marshua Stakes, and followed up with wins in the 2018 Wide Country Stakes and this year's Maryland Racing Media Stakes. Having last raced in June, Enchanted Ghost earned $262,182, with four wins in 17 starts.

Bred by George Louis Doetsch Jr., Enchanted Ghost is one of two winners for her dam, the Grand Slam mare Uniformly Yours. The mare's other runner is 2-year-old filly Selflessly, winner of the Miss Grillo-G2 at Belmont in September and a recent fifth in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf-G1. ❧

Yearling Show graduates Sharing, Project Whiskey shine on big stages

The Maryland Horse Breeders Association's annual yearling show has served as a stepping stone to success for many Maryland-breds since it was first held in 1932, and the crop of participants in last year's show was no exception, as two 2-year-olds racing this year found stakes victories within days.

Sharing, a filly by Speightstown and Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf-G1 winner Shared Account, faced graded stakes company for the first time in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf-G1 at Santa Anita Nov. 1. Sharing outshined the competition to win the mile on the turf by 1¼ lengths for Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Gainesway Stable and trainer Graham Motion, who also trained her dam. Bred by Sagamore Farm, Sharing improved to 3-0-1 in four starts and increased her earnings to $730,300.

On the East Coast, Project Whiskey made her stakes debut in the Parx Juvenile Fillies at Parx Racing Nov. 4, battling down the stretch to win the 7 furlongs by three-quarters of a length. Owned by Cash is King and LC Racing and trained by Butch Reid, the filly by Tapizar out of Over the Moon has finished no worse than third in four starts, with two wins and two thirds. The Dark Hollow Farm-bred earned $106,800.

Before they were excelling on the racetrack, they participated in Class IV of last year's MHBA Yearling Show, for fillies bred in Maryland by out-of-state sires. Judged by the late Rick Violette, both made the final cut, with Project Whiskey taking the blue ribbon as Violette admired the quality of her hip, shoulder and hind leg. Despite not placing, Sharing was not left without praise, as Violette noted she had a "good walk, with a very good hip and shoulder."

Following the yearling show, Sharing went on to the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga select sale, where she sold for $350,000 to Eclipse. Project Whiskey was entered in the the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic fall yearling sale, where she was purchased for $35,000 by Chuck Zacney of Cash is King.

Many horses have stepped out of the yearling show to successful racing or breeding careers, regardless of the ribbons they did or did not receive, including: Safely Kept, overlooked in the ring in 1987 as one of 60 fillies in her class, she went on to become a National Racing Hall of Fame Member, earning $2 million and winning the Breeders' Cup Sprint-G1, along with receiving an Eclipse Award as the nation's champion sprinter; Smart Angle, who finished fifth in her class but was nearly unbeatable the next year on the track, winning three Grade 1 stakes and being named the nation's champion 2-year-old filly; Cathryn Sophia, second in her class in 2014, who earned more than $1 million and was never off the board in her nine starts, highlighted by a Grade 1 win in the Kentucky Oaks, and earning titles as 2016 Maryland-bred champion sprinter, champion 3-year-old filly and Horse of the Year; Declan's Moon, winner of Class I in 2003, who won all four starts at 2 and won the 2004 Eclipse Award as 2-year-old male as well as Maryland-bred Horse of the Year, and 2005 Maryland-bred champion 3-year-old.

Every yearling shown, regardless of placing, is eligible for the $40,000 MHBA Yearling Show Premium Award, split and distributed twice: $20,000 among the exhibitors of four show contestants who earn the most money as 2-year-olds and another $20,000 among the exhibitors of the four highest-earning 3-year-old runners the following year.

After her Breeders' Cup victory, Sharing has earned the premium award for her exhibitor, Sagamore Farm, as she is the top-earning 2-year-old from her show year and the highest-earning 2-year-old since the premiums were established in 1983, surpassing Declan's Moon, who amassed $507,300 in 2004. ❧

Maryland-bred Stakes Winners

Project Whiskey prevails in Parx Juvenile Fillies

Cash is King and LC Racing's Project Whiskey fended off late challenger Fly On Angel to win the $75,000 Parx Juvenile Fillies Stakes at Parx Racing Nov. 4.

Making her stakes debut, Project Whiskey settled into third, stalking pacesetter Capital Q through an opening quarter in :22.69. Project Whiskey joined Lula's Roadrunner and Capital Q through a half-mile in :45.66, and on the far turn charged for the lead. She put away the early leaders, then repulsed Fly On Angel down the stretch to prevail by three-quarters of a length after 7 furlongs in 1:25.16.

The Butch Reid trainee improved to 2-0-2 from four starts to boost her earnings to $106,800. In her first two starts at Saratoga in July, Project Whiskey finished third twice. She broke through with a win at her home base at Parx in September, romping by 5½ lengths going 7 furlongs.

The daughter of Tapizar was bred by David and JoAnn Hayden's Dark Hollow Farm, which also bred her dam Over the Moon, a winning daughter of Malibu Moon out of Clever Phase. Project Whiskey is Over the Moon's second named foal, and first winner. The mare hasn't had a foal the past two years and was bred to Irish War Cry for 2020.

Regular participants in Maryland Horse Breeders Association yearling shows, the Haydens took home a first-place ribbon with Project Whiskey in 2018, in the class for Maryland-bred fillies by out-of-state sires. Among those in the class was Sharing, winner of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf-G1 three days before Project Whiskey's stakes score.

Project Whiskey was consigned by Dark Hollow to the 2018 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Eastern Fall Yearling sale, where she was purchased by Cash is King's Chuck Zacney for $35,000. ❧

Diamond Play leads way as Jersey-breds collect $403,160 in bonuses

By Bill Finley

Back in May at Monmouth, Tom Luchento claimed a 6-year-old New Jersey-bred mare named Diamond Play, who needed to go long and preferred the grass. In years past, that might have been a problem. Getting a race for Jersey-bred fillies and mares to go on the grass is next to impossible, but Luchento and trainer Tony Margotta Jr. turned a problem into an advantage.

Diamond Play made four starts after Luchento and his partners, his wife Carol and Kyle Wells, claimed her for $30,000, and three of them came in open company. Not only was the daughter of E Dubai not in over her head, she flourished. She won twice and finished second in another. Not only did she earn $122,800 in purse money, but she collected $27,800 in bonus payments as part of the New Jersey-bred bonus program, which was brought back for the 2019 racing season.

A total of $403,160 was paid out to the owners of New Jersey-breds this year, and Diamond Play's $27,800 bonus topped all horses.

"It was such a good thing," Luchento said. "If you have a Jersey-bred and if you run in a non-Jersey-bred race, you get a 40-percent allowance. If you're racing for $50,000, that's really like $70,000."

Luchento, who says he normally pinhooks any horse he buys, told Margotta to look for a horse, and preferably a Jersey-bred, for him at the beginning of the meet. Margotta had been the trainer of Diamond Play until running her, and losing her, in a $12,500 claiming race in July 2018. He regretted the decision ever since and was ready to pounce when she wound up in for $30,000 in May.

"I wasn't sure," Luchento said. "I asked him how a horse that got claimed off him for $12,500 was suddenly worth $30,000. He assured me that with the money available for Jersey-breds at the meet it was a good claim, even for the $30,000."

Annual Meeting

The Thoroughbred Breeders' Association of New Jersey invites all members to join us for the association's annual meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 3 at Huddy's Inn in Colts Neck. We will discuss many important issues concerning the TBANJ including an overview of the New Jersey-bred breeding and racing program, the 2020 racing calendar, and the results of the 2020 Board of Trustees election.

There is no charge for TBANJ members, guests are welcome to attend for $30. Please contact Mike Campbell, TBANJ Executive Director, at 732-542-8880 for more information.

2019 Leading New Jersey Breeders

The following is a list of the highest-earning New Jersey breeding fund incentive awards for the 2019 racing season at Monmouth Park and the Meadowlands.

Breeder	Earnings
Colonial Farms	$125,460
Joe-Dan Farm Inc.	106,306
Holly Crest Farm	85,622
Law Legacy Stables LLC	78,020
Patricia Generazio	43,240
Hidden Acres 4-D Farm LLC	41,370
Red Oak Stable	34,560
Esther de Jong	32,000
Isabelle de Tomaso	31,783
John Bowers Jr.	31,217

Margotta wasn't wrong. In Diamond Play's second start after the claim, she went back to the dirt and finished second against state-breds in the Jersey Girl Handicap before reeling off the back-to-back wins in open allowance races.

Luchento said Diamond Play is being pointed to the Claiming Crown series on Dec. 7 at Gulfstream.

Horologist was next on the list with bonus earnings of $27,000. The 3-year-old filly picked up $15,000 alone when winning the Grade 3 Monmouth Oaks. Among the classiest Jersey-breds to race in 2019, her total earnings for the year before the bonuses were $329,270. She was trained by John Mazza the first 11 starts of her career, seven coming this year.

"The Jersey-bred bonus is good for the program, has boosted things and I think it has helped bring Jersey-breds back," said her co-owner Cameron Beatty. "I know they're now trying to get more mares into the state. With the money that is going to come in over the next few years I think this is going to be huge.

"This year was just the ground floor," he continued. "Horologist ran big this year and she gave me a nice little bonus. Winning the Monmouth Oaks, I got a $15,000 bonus, which was a nice little surprise. Any time you win a big race like that, a bonus makes it mean a lot more."

Beatty has a small stable but is reinvesting the profits from Horologist in an effort to make it grow, and says that he will focus on acquiring New Jersey-breds.

"I have a couple Jersey-breds right now and I'm trying to get more because that Jersey-bred bonus is pretty lucrative," he said. "I think a lot more people are looking at picking up Jersey-breds because you can get them at the right price. If you can find a good one you're going to be racing in [Jersey-bred] allowance races worth $60,000. That's not too shabby."

After Horologist finished third in the Grade 1 Cotillion at Parx, Beatty sold a half interest in her to Taylor Made's racing stable, Medallion Racing, which brought in additional partners. The new owners wanted the filly turned over to trainer Richard Baltas, who started her in the Grade 2 Raven Run at Keeneland at 7 furlongs, where she finished ninth.

"I tried to tell them she wasn't a sprinter and can't go less than a mile," Beatty said. "They wanted to give it a shot."

The daughter of Gemologist is now based in Southern California with Baltas and the owners are looking for a spot for her in graded stakes competition at the Santa Anita meet that opens Dec. 26. But Beatty said he is determined that Horologist has not seen the last of Monmouth Park.

"I would love for her to come back and run in a Jersey-bred stakes race before she retires and becomes a broodmare," Beatty said. "That's my goal. It would mean a lot for me and a lot of people at Monmouth are behind this horse. If I have to buy them out in order to bring her back, I will."

With both the racing and breeding industries struggling in New Jersey, the Jersey-bred bonus program was ended after the 2016 racing season. With the state deciding to reinvest in the industry this year in the form of a $10 million supplement, it was brought back. The owners of New Jersey-breds that finish in the top three in open company races at Monmouth or the Meadowlands earn a 40-percent bonus based on their earnings.

Monmouth closes 2019 season with increases in handle and attendance

Bolstered by a purse subsidy from the state of New Jersey, Monmouth Park showed increases across the board for its final handle totals and attendance during a 60-day meet that concluded Sunday, Oct. 27.

Total wagering on Monmouth Park races from outside sources was $184,592,101, an 18.92 percent increase over the 2018 total of $155,220,476. On-track wagering on Monmouth Park's product was $20,953,740, an increase of 1.03 percent over 2018.

That resulted in an overall increase of 16.81 percent in wagering on Monmouth Park races, from $175,961,376 in 2018 to $205,545,841 in 2019.

In addition, total attendance was 545,767, which bested the 2018 total attendance figure of 465,244.

Originally scheduled for a 61-day meet, Monmouth Park had to cancel the July 21 card due to the heat. Haskell Day, the highlight of the meet and the biggest day of Thoroughbred racing in the state, was also impacted by the weather, with six races cancelled on the 14-race card. The Haskell Day attendance of 25,173 was the lowest since 1993.

"The positive overall numbers reflect the high quality of the product we were able to offer, thanks in large part to the purse supplement from the state of New Jersey," said Dennis Drazin, Chairman and CEO of Darby Development LLC, the operators of Monmouth Park. "Despite the challenges we faced on Haskell Day, our biggest day of the year, we're grateful to the fans who stuck with us and for everyone who helped make the best of a very difficult day.

"To be able to show gains across the board without the benefit of a typical Haskell Day is significant and a sign that the quality of racing was consistently at a high level throughout the meet.

"This was also the first year of the purse subsidy and the first full year of sports betting, which were instrumental in this year's success. The state subsidy was a key factor in being able to add more live racing dates to our schedule."

Monmouth Park also moved the $1 million, Grade 1 Haskell Invitational to Saturday this year after the race had been a Sunday fixture.

The increase in attendance comes at a time when industry trends are shifting toward on-line betting, with customers able to wager on laptops and mobile devices from the comfort of their homes.

"When you remove uncertainty from any equation the end result is typically success," said Drazin. "The combination of the first full year of sports betting and the subsidy from the state have helped to erode some of the uncertainty pervading our industry. We're optimistic about the future, not only for racing at Monmouth Park in general but specifically for the breeding sector in the state. We're already starting to see that trend tick upward."

Paco Lopez notched his sixth riding title, edging out Nik Juarez, 109 wins to 107, on the final day in the closest jockey's race in track history.

Jorge Navarro extended his own track record by winning his seventh consecutive training title, finishing with 68 wins. That's the second-highest total in track history, trailing only the 85 wins he had in 2018.

Joseph Besecker was the leading owner with 23 wins.

2020 TBANJ Stallion Season Auction

The Thoroughbred Breeders' Association of New Jersey (TBANJ) will conduct its annual Stallion Season Auction beginning Friday, Feb. 14 and ending Sunday, Feb. 16.

The online auction is being hosted on the Starquine bidding platform at www.starquine.com. All participants must be registered with Starquine prior to bidding. Starquine offers an automatic bidding process that allows participants to enter the maximum amount they are willing to pay for a season. Starquine then keeps bidding on the buyer's behalf until the maximum amount is reached or high bidder. Each season's conditions will be posted as part of their auction page on Starquine.

All proceeds from the auction go to the TBANJ, which uses the funds for promoting the Thoroughbred breeding industry in New Jersey. Stallion seasons will be added until the auction begins Feb. 14. A complete list of available seasons will be listed on www.njbreds.com.

Please contact the TBANJ office at 732-542-8880 for additional information.

A True Tale: Francine Villeneuve, Cozy Blues and Giovanna Blues

By Joanne Dew

It is 1997, my husband Sandy and I had been in the game for about four years and have had nothing but bad luck. Everything we had tried went wrong from a bad racehorse to a lost foal to a yearling having a pasture accident and being put down. We attempted to pinhook two weanlings to sell as yearlings and had only one to take to sell. We could not get her sold as a yearling and so tried again at a 2-year-old in training sale with the same result. Whether we wanted it or not, we had a racehorse. The filly was broke and did well through training and later ended up in New Orleans with our trainer's second string.

Being new owners and raising our horses at our farm, we always visited the backside to see the horse and talk to the trainer. We met a young woman who had been riding our horse in the mornings, and we also learned she was a jockey and had ridden some big horses and worked for some prominent trainers. We decided that she should ride our horse in her next race.

On a cold and wet January day at the Fair Grounds in New Orleans, our filly was ready for her third start, the other two had been as a 2-year-old, and she was out of the money both times. Now at 3, she still looked small and thin compared to the rest of the horses she was running against, and the turf race had been pulled off and was to run on the main track. We are in the paddock, "riders up" was called, and our jockey was legged up, we watched her and our filly head to the track. We watched the race on the TV screen because the Fair Grounds had burnt to the ground several years before and there were not many places where we could watch the race. Our horse was last as she neared the far turn and then began picking up horses from last to fifth to second. Cozy Blues then takes the lead and wins by nearly a dozen lengths with Francine Villeneuve up.

Little did we know what that day would mean to me, Sandy, and Francine. Francine rode Cozy Blues for her next win, on the turf this time, drawing off by 7 lengths. Cozy Blues' final start at the Fair Grounds that year was in the Grade 3 Fair Grounds Oaks on the main track, where she finished third. Francine then rode Cozy Blues to a second in a stakes at Churchill Downs, and then to her first stakes win in Baltimore, Md., in the Hilltop Stakes at Pimlico in 1997.

Stabling at Churchill Downs and trying to find a stakes for a miler on the turf was very hard to do. We opted to take Cozy Blues to California to run in Del Mar's San Clemente Handicap, a Grade 3. We rode Alex Solis, who finished second. We stayed in California to run in the Del Mar Oaks, a Grade 1, again riding Alex Solis. He pulled her up with a broken splint bone in her back leg.

We changed trainers to be based in California. Cozy Blues's new trainer discovered she had EPM along with the fractured splint bone. She went to surgery and entered rehab for the next four months. She returned to racing by the end of the year.

We ran in an allowance with a very famous jockey who did not finish in the money. We called Francine and asked her to come to California and ride Cozy in an allowance. She came and rode her to a second-place finish. She was the only girl in California at the time and rode so well she was asked to stay. Two agents wanted her book.

She decided to go back to New Orleans to close out everything and bring her car back. However, while there, she got on a horse at the Fair Grounds that went down, and Francine broke her collar bone. It was the end of California for her and maybe a dream that was not meant to be.

She rode Cozy for the last time in that allowance race. Cozy Blues went on to become a graded stakes winner and multiple graded stakes-placed. Cozy Blues was the best horse Sandy and I ever had. Francine was never out of the money when riding Cozy Blues, and because of her, we learned what a great horse we had.

Time has gone by, nearly 15 years, when again we saw Francine in Florida; she was working as an assistant trainer. We got together with her and went to dinner, where she told us she wanted to be a trainer. Then as things often happen in this busy world, we did not stay in touch.

Cozy Blues had become a broodmare, throwing many colts and only one filly, Blues Legend (by Mr. Greeley). We took her to sell but decided to keep her when she did not meet her reserve. After Blues Legend's racing career ended, we decided to breed her to Gio Ponti. The result was a filly we named Giovanna Blues. We broke her, formed a partnership, and hired a trainer who raced her 18 times, winning three races, two in Canada, and becoming Grade 3-placed. While running in Canada on several different occasions, I learned that Francine was a trainer at Woodbine. After having the same trainer with Giovanna Blues for four years, we made a change and sent our 6-year-old mare to Francine.

Giovanna Blues entered Francine's barn this past March and has been sent out four times. She was Grade 3-placed in July and, some 22 years since a young jockey took the reins of an unproven filly and rode her to her first stakes win, the same rider turned trainer sent the granddaughter of Cozy Blues to her first stakes win in August, in Woodbine's Flaming Page Stakes.

President's message

Hi Everyone!

So, the end of the year is here! Wow! Where did it go?

Now is the time when I start to escalate my encouragement for membership renewals to the NCTA. Please bear with me through this repetitive chatter, but more importantly, renew or join us to support the only official Thoroughbred horse racing organization in North Carolina. You do not have to own, breed, rescue, train horses, or work in the industry to be a member. Being a fan of Thoroughbreds and the sport is the best reason to join.

Congratulations to all our members who had horses running these past few months. We all know what it takes to get a horse to the track. For those of you with winners, Dan and Christy Shea, Nancy Shuford, Beth Muirhead, and Frank Batten, we applaud you!

Joanne Dew's journey in the racing business inspired her to chronicle one of those winding, maze-like paths that brought her full circle. She was kind enough to contribute her piece for publication in this issue.

As always, thank you for your interest in the NCTA.

–Rebecca Montaldo

Racing Recap

Tapitontheside (Tapizar—Why Lucy Why, by Whywhywhy) won at Delaware Park going 6 furlongs on the turf Sept. 26. The 4-year-old gelding stalked the pace until the half-mile mark when he went four-wide to take the lead and drew clear to win by 3½ lengths. He was bred by Nancy Shuford.

Siam Mp (Majesticperfection—Frisky Cheerleader, by Roar) won at Singapore Turf Club Sept. 27 going 1400m. The 3-year-old bred by Beth Muirhead got off to a good start racing near the lead in a field of 14. Quickly gaining and fighting for the lead until the top of the stretch, the gelding took over as the front runner when a rival came from behind causing a duel for position down the stretch to the wire where Siam Mp won by a nose.

Drip Brew (NC) (Yes It's True—Sonorous, by Unbridled's Song), set the pace from the start at Remington Park in an allowance going 5½ furlongs Sept. 28. The 5-year-old North Carolina-bred mare held the lead gate-to-wire, winning her third race in a row by 2 lengths. She was bred by Frank Batten.

She's So Shea D (Central Banker—Properintroduction, by Wild Desert) won by 4 lengths at Monmouth Park going 5½ furlongs Oct. 13. The 3-year-old filly got her fifth win for Shea D Boy's Stable (Dan and Christy Shea) as she battled for the lead into the stretch with Princess Janet, another NCTA member-bred and owned horse (Ken Orchard – Jet M Stable) before pulling away for the win, with Princess Janet holding the place. She's So Shea D was claimed out of the race.

2019 BEST OF OHIO – FORMFUL AND FAST

If you like playing favorites, Mahoning Valley Race Course was the place to be Oct. 26 for the $750,000 Best of Ohio series. Four of the five races that highlight Buckeye-breds in each division went to the top picks. Only multiple state champion Leona's Reward (a second choice) was not the favorite.

The track stayed fast for the entire card, despite a steady drizzle that picked up in intensity throughout the afternoon. The day started with the presentation of the inaugural "Albert Palacios Award" that is given to an individual that reflects the qualities of the much-respected Palacios. The deserved recipient was trainer Jeff Radosevich for his outstanding sportsmanship and horsemanship. He is a hands-on conditioner who trains for many owners and could have runners at three tracks in a single day. Despite his heavy workload, he keeps his owners informed, finds spots where their runners can succeed, maintains a pleasant attitude and finds time for his family. Surrounded by them, Radosevich proudly accepted the award after the second race – the only race he didn't have a starter in.

Charlie Williams' owned and trained Moonlit Mission stamped herself as the top juvenile filly in the state with her fourth consecutive victory coming in the 1 1/16-mile $150,000 John W. Galbreath. The daughter of Shackleford out of Moonlit River, by Maria's Mon, was bred by Belvedere Farm. Ridden by Ricardo Mejias the odds-on choice dropped down to the rail in the early going and was eighth after a half-mile. She was angled out to the five-path on the turn and closed steadily on Nikki My Angel who had a 3½-length lead into the stretch. Moonlit Mission seemed to relish the added distance and won by 2¼ lengths in 1:46.84 over Nikki My Angel, with Succotash more than 11 lengths back in third.

Breaking from post position 8 in an 11-horse field, jockey Mejias elected to save ground in the Galbreath. "It was not an easy trip," said Mejias. "We were down inside, and horses were starting to bunch up in front of us. Once she makes her move – she goes! We found an opening towards the outside and I had all the horse in the world. Like the last start, she came in a little, but we were clear already."

Williams purchased the chestnut Moonlit Mission for $18,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky yearling sale in October 2018. "Give the credit to Dennis Stiff, who looks at every last one on our list. He makes sure the walk is good and the repository checks out. We set our ceiling at $30,000 so now it looks like we got a deal." In her brief career, she sports a record of 6-4-0-0 for earnings of $182,050.

The Blazing Meadows-WinStar Farm partnership continues to make its mark in the Ohio Program. The latest is Liberate, a 2-year-old gelding who recorded the largest margin of victory in "The Best of Ohio," when he ran away from 13 rivals crossing the wire with ease by 7¾ lengths in the $150,000 Juvenile Stakes. "With such a big field we wanted to be close to the lead and we ended up having it," stated jockey Gerardo Corrales. They put away pole sitter Foolish Equation after a half-mile and then had a stout, but brief challenge from Authentic Cowtown. "I felt that pressure, but knew I had plenty of horse under me. When I asked him to go the last part was easy."

The Juvenile was the third stakes win for Liberate. He captured the $75,000 Hoover Stakes by 7 lengths at Belterra Park after breaking his maiden at first asking by a eye-popping 17¼ lengths at Thistledown. In early August he dominated his rivals in the $75,000 Cleveland Kindergarten – at one point leading by as many as 13 lengths. The only blemish on his first season's record came in the Sapling Stakes at Monmouth Park. "We were looking for a race around two turns and the Sapling fit," reflected trainer and O.T.B.O. President Emeritus Tim Hamm. "It wasn't his day on several levels. In the race he was in tight and got pinched along the rail, but I think the real factor was the sweltering heat along with shipping in it." Liberate was given a month off and went back to work in October, recording back-to-back bullet workouts stretching from 3 to 5 furlongs. "He really indicated he could go the distance in the two weeks leading up to the race," Hamm said.

Liberate toured the 1⅛ miles in 1:45.27 and his $90,000 payday pushed his earnings to $206,250. Authentic Cowboy held on for the second spot over the pace pressing Wicked Warrior. Liberate is a gelded son of Gemologist out of Southern Silence, by Dixie Union, and was bred by Blazing Meadows Farm LLC and WinStar Farm LLC. Those two entities are joined by Michael Lewis in the ownership of the leading Ohio-bred juvenile.

The 2018 Ohio Horse of the Year Altissimo became the fourth favorite to light up the board with his well-timed victory in the $150,000 Best of Ohio Sprint. He came into the race off a well-planned season schedule by trainer Richard Zielinski that included forays beyond Ohio's borders. After winning the grassy Gendelman Memorial going long at Belterra Park, the 6-year-old gelding was given a five-week break and next raced at Delaware Park in the $100,000 Hockessin Stakes. Altissimo led every step of the way cutting out quick fractions of :21.77 and

:44.54 before stopping the timer in 1:09.31. He returned to Ohio where he was the heaviest of favorites in the $75,000 Honey Jay Stakes, only to remind race fans that "There is no such thing as a sure thing." Brown Buckeye ran the race of his life and after catching Altissimo at the half-mile marker, refused to let the champion regain the lead.

Six weeks later Altissimo resurfaced at Laurel Park in the Grade 3 Frank J. De Francis Memorial Dash. While making what appeared to be the winning move, a longshot front runner ducked to the outside impeding the momentum of Altissimo. Jockey Christian Pilares managed to get him back in stride only to miss by three-quarters of a length. He entered the Sprint with season earnings of $215,000.

Twelve horses loaded the starting gate at Mahoning Valley and when the latch sprung you could see Dare Day was up for a game of "catch me if you can!" Except for the Ohio Derby, the Ron Paolucci colorbearer had won every start in his four-race career while sprinting. Dare Day jumped out to a 2-length lead, extended it to 3 lengths and turned for home 1 length in front of last season's juvenile champion Diamond Dust. The leader cut out quick fractions of :22.24; :44.28 and :57 while Christian Pilares was content to watch the action confidently from the third position.

"I know Dare Day is quick, but I knew he was going to come back to me," stated Pilares, who is Altissimo's regular rider. "I let him go and when I asked my horse to go, he was so strong. At the finish I had a lot of horse." Not everyone watching knew that, and Dare Day was looking to pull off an upset as he strode away from Diamond Dust. But the day was to go to Altissimo who reeled in the leader in with 40 yards left and won by a thrilling three-quarters lengths. Dare Day finished 3 lengths in front of Diamond Dust. The final time of the 6 furlongs was 1:09.90.

Altissimo is a son of Noble Causeway out of Great Goin Rose, by Albert the Great. He was bred by Nancy Lavrich and Niknar Farm LLC and is owned by Lavrich and Ronald Zielinski. The career

From top: Trainer Richard Zielinski kept a keen eye for races that fit Altissimo all season. Christian Pilares urges on Altissimo to capture the $150,000 Best of Ohio Sprint. Altissimo and his team were all smiles in the winner's circle.

Leona's Reward (inside) set a track record for 1⅛ miles in the Distaff and may return in 2020. Ed Hamm and his son Tim have been guiding the career of Leona's Reward since she was foaled at Blazing Meadows Farm in 2013. Photo: Lazlo Toth record of Altissimo is 39-17-6-4, bankrolling $779,388 which is a testimony to the planning, patience and horsemanship of Zielinski.

You can't keep a good girl down. In a season that looked, on paper, like multiple state champion Leona's Reward was starting to show her age, she erased all doubt with a track record performance in the $150,000 Best of Ohio Distaff. "Coming up to the race she had never trained better," trainer Tim Hamm emphasized. "She had a few excuses this season. We made a rider switch to Gerardo Corrales who I believe is a great young rider—he's young and very athletic and strong. I don't usually give riding instructions, but we wanted to place her forward in the race and urge her left-handed in the stretch. Big horses like her can't stop and start back up in a race."

Corrales followed the instructions perfectly and put the big mare on the lead over her 11 rivals going 1⅛ miles. Lightly raced this season, Magna Rose was made the 2-1 choice and jockey John McKee never let the leader out of his sight. They ran 1-2 all the way around the Mahoning Valley strip. Magna Rose was urged to go past Leona's Reward and pulled within a head entering the stretch. Corrales remembered the plan, and with a few left-handed taps "Leona" won going away by 3 lengths, setting a track record of 1:52.03. Magna Rose held the second spot over Grizabella.

Forewarned smashed the 1¼-mile track record in the $150,000 Endurance.

Leona's Reward's winning effort, and her $842,556 in earnings, could have set the stage for a well-earned swan song to a career as a broodmare. Well, hold the presses. According to Hamm, "Plans are to run her back in 2020 as long as she is 100 percent. There are still some opportunities for this year [she won three stakes at Mahoning in 2018 at the end of the season] and she has won close to $1 million. We'll point her to the accredited filly stakes. She holds her weight well and she's never been better thanks to our staff—they are all so important. There are some members that have been with us for over 20 years, from assistant trainers to grooms. We have meetings from Ohio to Florida or any of the tracks we are stabled. We are all on the same page and know what the goals are for each horse."

Leona's Reward is by the recently pensioned Ohio stallion Parent's Reward out of Prime Time Dancer, by Montbrook. Bred by Blazing Meadows Farm,

Two-time Ohio Horse of the Year Mo Dont No put in a game effort while seeking his fourth Endurance win, finishing second.

she is owned by Blazing Meadows LLC and Michael Friedman.

Forewarned more than paid for the van ride from his base at Parx Racing with an authoritative win in the $150,000 Best of Ohio Endurance. To talk to his optimistic and enthusiastic trainer Uriah St. Lewis, he describes the horse not as a highly competitive regal steed who gives his top effort each time he goes to post, but more like a beloved Disney character–Goofy! St. Lewis spent his early years in Trinidad and Tobago and moved to the United States when he was 15 in 1973. He has a reputation for finding horses at a modest price and turning a profit. His most notable achievement to date is Discreet Lover, purchased for $10,000 and developed into a multiple graded stakes winner, his biggest win the Grade 1 Jockey Club Gold Cup while defeating multiple Group 1 winner Thunder Snow and earning a berth in the 2018 Breeders' Cup Classic-G1.

St. Lewis found the Ohio-bred Forewarned at a sale at Timonium. "The owner had died and he was entered in the sale. I asked the consignors to see him and they wouldn't take him out of the stall because of the way he acted, so I asked if I could go in. He was acting goofy and continues to do so to this day," spoke St. Lewis with his pleasant lilt carried from his roots in Trinidad. "He just wants to play all the time. During his morning exercise on the track he goes in and out, luckily he has a rider who knows him and is used to his antics. He can reel off morning times of :57 or 1:10 when he puts his mind to it. If he wasn't goofy he'd be a Grade 1 winner. He runs Beyer figures in the 90s all the time and he's been racing with the likes of McKinzie, Yoshida, Coal Front, and finished 1½ lengths behind Breeders' Cup Classic winner Vino Rosso. He doesn't wear blinkers in the morning, but on race days he's a different horse."

Favored Forewarned donned the blinkers and regular rider Anthony Salgado above his withers as he paraded to post in the field of 12 who would try the classic distance of 1¼ miles. Two-time Horse of the Year Mo Dont No was going for his fourth win in the Endurance and was installed as the second choice. His stablemate Funnel Cake led the field throughout the first half mile and was replaced on the front end shortly after by Indian Fever. Scott Speith kept "Mo" near the leaders throughout while Forewarned saved ground in mid-pack.

"Mo" dug in and took command at the mile marker and shortly after was joined by Forewarned. Those two matched strides in early stretch and, on cue from Salgado, Forewarned quickened his action to pull away by 2¾ lengths to establish a new track record of 2:04.41, erasing the time held by Mo Dont No for three years. "Mo" held on for the second spot over a rallying Over Icce. The win in the Endurance pushed Forewarned's earnings to $375,613. The 4-year-old son of Flat Out out of Fortune Play, by Five Star Day, was bred by Preston Stables LLC.

St. Lewis was asked if he would be making more trips to Ohio in the future. "If the pots were $100,000 I'd come more often. It's a six-hour van trip to this part of the state. He's a big horse, almost 17 hands, and when he gets older, he might be better. We'll be back for the Best of Ohio unless we go to the Breeders' Cup next year."

St. Lewis owns all of the horses he trains and has 25 head at Parx Racing. "I prefer it that way. No one can tell me where or when to race or threaten to move the horse. I have another Ohio-bred named Black Light and thought about bringing him, but that Altissimo is a very, very good horse."

GRADE 1 WINNER DANZA RELOCATING TO FAIR WINDS FARM

Fair Winds Farm in Waynesville, Ohio, has announced that Grade 1 winner Danza is relocating there from Spendthrift Farm in Lexington, Kentucky. "We've known the people at Spendthrift for a while and when this offer came along, we thought it was a great opportunity for our farm and the state program," said Kim Williams, who operates Fair Winds with his wife Lori. "One of the key reasons was the fact that he has been bred to 325 mares in his first four seasons."

Danza was trained by Todd Pletcher for Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and during his time on the track he made five starts and won two races, one of those was the Arkansas Derby-G1. After breaking his maiden at Belmont Park in his 2-year-old debut, Danza placed third in his next two starts, including the Grade 2 Saratoga Special Stakes. He then slipped through on the rail and ran off to a 4¾-length victory in the Arkansas Derby. He finished third in the 2014 Kentucky Derby-G1 Presented by Yum! Brands which was won by California Chrome.

A son of Street Boss out of Champagne Royale, by French Deputy, Danza is a half-brother to Majestic Harbor ($1,295,814), winner of the Grade 1 Gold Cup at Santa Anita and three other graded stakes. Two-time Grade 1 sprint winner Street Boss is the sire of three 3-year-old Grade 1 winners on dirt since 2013. Danza will stand his first season in Ohio for $2,500.

Bronx Beauty wins MATCH Series

by Linda Dougherty

Despite missing the first race in her division, 2W Stables' Pennsylvania-bred Bronx Beauty not only clinched the division title but the overall championship in the grand finale of the Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred Championship Series (MATCH), which took place at Monmouth Park Sept. 28.

The final race came in the $100,000 Regret Stakes at 6 furlongs, in which Bronx Beauty squared off against rival Ms Locust Point for all the marbles in the Filly and Mare Sprint – Dirt Division.

Trained by Anthony Margotta, Bronx Beauty, a 4-year-old gray or roan daughter of Liaison out of Forever Sunshine, by Rockport Harbor, didn't make the series opener, the $100,000 Primonetta Stakes at Laurel Park April 20, which was taken by the John Servis-trained Ms Locust Point.

The pair met for the first time in the second race of the series, the $100,000 Penn Ladies Dash at Penn National June 1. That day, Bronx Beauty was dismissed at 11-1, yet dominated, taking advantage of an extremely fast pace set by favored Ms Locust Point to draw away and win by 1½ lengths in a fleet 1:08.57 for the 6 furlongs.

The series then shifted to Delaware Park for the third event, the $100,000 Dashing Beauty Stakes July 13. Bronx Beauty sat just off the pace set by Ms Locust Point until the head of the stretch, when she was steered inside by jockey Jose Ortiz and gradually wore down that rival to prevail by a neck in 1:09.59. It was nearly 13 lengths back to the third-place finisher.

The two were back again for the fourth leg, the $100,000 Roamin Rachel Stakes at Parx Racing Sept. 2, but neither was able to defeat the talented Chalon, with Bronx Beauty having the best result with a third-place finish (as Ms Locust Point finished fifth). It then came down to the Regret at Monmouth to determine the series winner.

Like two heavyweights in a boxing ring, Bronx Beauty and Ms Locust Point went toe-to-toe down the backstretch, around the turn, and into the stretch, with Bronx Beauty down on the inside with Paco Lopez. They ding-donged through fast fractions of :21.73, :44.22 and :57.03, and approaching the eighth-pole Bronx Beauty dug down deep to slowly edge away to win by a length in 1:10.39 over her arch rival.

At the conclusion of the MATCH Series, both fillies had earned 40 points not only top in their division, but for the overall championship. A first-ever tiebreaker, determined by which-ever filly had the most wins in the division, was awarded to Bronx Beauty, as she had won three races to Ms Locust Point's one.

The overall MATCH Series championship was worth $50,000 to 2W Stables, the stable-name of Richard and Marie Woll of Tinton Falls, N.J., and $25,000 to winning trainer Margotta. The Wolls also received $20,000 and Margotta $15,000 for the division title.

Bronx Beauty's breeder, Blackstone Farm, received a $5,000 bonus from the Pennsylva-nia Horse Breeders Association for being the Pennsylvania-bred filly or mare with the most points in the series.

"It was great to see Alan Foreman bring the MATCH Series back," said Margotta, referring to the head and founder of the series. "We missed the first race of our division, and it was like in a football game, we gave up a 10-point lead early. But like a true champion, Bronx Beauty was able to win that last race at our home track, Monmouth Park."

"The MATCH Series was very good for racing, and it helped bring people out to the racetrack," said owner Richard Woll. "We had a lot of fun traveling to different tracks this year, and Bronx Beauty's win in the Regret was just as exciting as her other wins this year. She's a go-getter; she likes to win and she's given us a lot of pleasure. She even has a fan club that comes to see her run. This series was more about the excitement – and having family and friends all around – than the money."

Woll named the filly after his wife Marie. The two have known each other their entire lives, having grown up across the street from one another in the Bronx. In addition to Bronx Beauty, the Wolls previously campaigned Easy Money, a 2014 daughter of Into Mischief—Roman Bluff, by Roman Ruler. Also bred in Pennsylvania by Blackstone Farm, Easy Money placed in two stakes at 2 and was sold at last year's Keeneland November sale in foal to Overanalyze.

Margotta, who recommended the pur-chase of Bronx Beauty as a young horse, said, "She's truly the horse that a trainer dreams about. She has a human-like mind; she's almost telepathic. Her behavior is extraordinary – she does everything a good horse does.

"She's a gift from God, a blessing in our lives," he said. "I truly believe she's been sent from heaven. She makes me look good."

"It was very exciting to have her to win the MATCH Series championship," said Doug Black, owner of Blackstone Farm in Pine Grove, Pa. "As a yearling, she wasn't going to go through the sales ring, so Anthony [Margotta] came up to the farm and picked her out."

Blackstone bought Forever Sunshine, in foal to Majestic Warrior, for $6,000 at the 2012 Keeneland November sale. After producing the filly Rock the Sun the following February, she had the Afleet Alex filly Shining Armada in 2014, Bronx Beauty in 2015 and My Only Sunshine (by Liaison) in 2016. That fall Blackstone sold the mare for $40,000 in foal to Twirling Candy at the Keeneland No-vember sale. To date, Bronx Beauty has been her most successful runner.

Bronx Beauty has won eight of her 14 lifetime starts, and $462,420. As a 2-year-old, she won the Colleen Stakes at Monmouth Park and Blue Mountain Juvenile Fillies Stakes at Penn National; at 3, she captured the New Start Stakes, also at Penn National, and the Jose L. Flores Memorial Stakes at Parx.

Margotta said they are looking at two stakes races at Gulfstream Park before Bronx Beauty heads to the farm for some time off – the Grade 3, $100,000 Sugar Swirl Stakes Dec. 14 and the Grade 2, $200,000 Inside Information Jan. 25.

A few words from the Executive Secretary

Congratulations to Tom and Lori Fackler of Best A Luck Farm, breeders of Shamrock Rose, the 2018 Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint-G1 and Eclipse Award winner. The 4-year-old filly by First Dude was the third-high-est price in the Fasig-Tipton Night of the Stars Sale Nov. 5, selling to agent Mike Shannon for $2.5 million! We're excited to see what her future brings, and we wish her new connections the "Best A Luck"!

Our new Stallion and Boarding Farm Directory will be coming out the third week in December attached to the BloodHorse mag-azine in 10 states plus Ontario. Use it to pick your next champion and purchase that season during our upcoming auction.

Our 10th annual PHBA Stallion Auction will begin Thursday, Jan. 16, 2020, at 12:01 a.m. and end on Saturday, Jan. 18, 2020, 11:59:59 p.m. It will take place online at thoroughlybred.com and links will be posted on pabred.com to access the sale. It gets bigger and better every year! Be sure to register with a free user account beforehand so that you'll be ready when the auction goes live. Simply click on the "registration" tab on the homepage to start the process. Throughout December and January, you'll be able to view the stallion seasons offered by going to our website at pabred.com. Seasons will be updated daily.

Congratulate yourselves as Pennsylvania had the largest percentage increase in Mares Bred at 12.5 percent and is one of only two states that had an increase among the top-10 breeding states!! Go Pa!!

JOIN THE PHBA

Whether you are currently a breeder or an owner, or if you are just considering getting involved in this exciting industry, there are many reasons to join the PHBA. The PHBA is devoted to those involved in Pennsylvania's Thoroughbred breeding industry. A not-for-profit organization founded in 1948, we provide a number of services to members, including informational assistance, educational opportunities and a variety of social events.

The goal of the organization is to advocate on behalf of the state's breeding industry. We are mandated by statute as administrator of the Pennsylvania Breeding Fund program, and as official registrar of the Pennsylvania-Bred roster of eligible program participants.

Working with industry leaders over the years, PHBA has achieved several goals that have brought reform and benefits to breeders, owners, racetracks and the public. The PHBA is vital to everyone involved in breeding throughout Pennsylvania. Your support and participation can help Pennsylvania's breeding industry continue to grow and prosper.

OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER

DECEMBER 2019

Racing Across the Nation

South Carolina farms and training centers were represented by 17 stakes winners from Sept. 21 to Oct. 19.

Coal Front, a graduate of Kip Elser's Kirkwood Stables in Camden, quickly took the lead in the Parx Dirt Mile Stakes Sept. 21, battled Diamond King at the top of the stretch and pulled out a three-quarter-length victory as the favorite.

Over at Laurel Park on the same day, 2-year-old Irish Mias captured the Laurel Futurity. Off a step slow, he did not make the lead until the final sixteenth of the 1 1/16 miles and dueled with his stablemate to the wire to win by a head. Irish Mias came up in Travis Durr's program at the Webb Carroll Training Center in St. Matthews.

Another Durr graduate, Pat On the Back, got just that from his connections following the Kelso Handicap-G2 at Belmont the same afternoon. Pat On the Back had only one beat after the opening half-mile. He came wide into the stretch and in a hard-fought struggle, reached the wire a half-length in front.

The packed Laurel card that day also saw Dubini, who came up in Brad Stauffer and Ron Stevens' Legacy Stable program in Aiken, take his time in the 5½-furlong Laurel Dash Stakes. Having one beat while five wide in the stretch, he got up in the shadow of the wire to win by three-quarters of a length.

Killybegs Captain, also an Aiken grad coming up under Cary Frommer's thumb, notched South Carolina's fifth stakes winner of the day when taking Laurel's Grade 3 Frank J. De Francis Memorial Dash. Nine lengths back early while saving ground, he made the lead in the stretch and was three-quarters of a length the best at the wire.

Dot Matrix, a former Webb Carroll Training Center student, stalked the leader before joining that one at the top of the stretch in the Ashley T. Cole Stakes at Belmont Park Sept. 22 and outfinished him to the wire, winning by a half length.

The next Saturday, Mr Freeze – who went through the breaking process at Franklin "Goree" Smith's Elloree Training Center – matched strides with two others into the stretch in the Ack Ack Stakes-G3 at Churchill Downs and put air between himself and the rest of the field in the stretch to win by 1½ lengths.

On the same day, two of Travis Durr's former students were winners. As the heavy favorite, Pink Caddy proved much the best in the Small Wonder Stakes at Delaware Park, crossing the finish line 6¾ lengths in front. At Laurel Park, O Dionysus was off a bit slowly, quickly advanced to set the fractions, and in a tough struggle would not be denied, winning the 1½-mile Japan Turf Cup by a head.

Area, a pinhook project of Cary Frommer's, trailed the field into the stretch in the Ricks Memorial Stakes at Remington Park Sept. 29, put in a big rally to pass the field and drew off to win by 2¾ lengths.

Heavenhasmynikki, who went off five cents on the dollar, ran away from her opponents in the Diana Stakes at Thistledown Oct. 5. She was 5¼ lengths best of the rest. She is a product of the Webb Carroll Training Center breaking program.

Elloree Training Center grad Arklow was third early before taking the lead after a mile in the 1½-mile Joe Hirsch Turf Classic-G1 at Belmont Park Oct. 5. He was passed before battling back and crossed the wire a half length in front.

Saint Alfred, who has spent time at both the Elloree Training Center and Webb Carroll Training Center during his career, was made the favorite in the Mass Bred Stakes at Finger Lakes Oct. 7. He proved the bettors correct. Fifth for the first half mile, he showed his superiority in the stretch, galloping home a 3½-length winner.

Goree Smith's former student, Super Jen, overcame some traffic in the Indiana Stallion Stakes Oct. 8. As the even-money favorite, she worked through those obstacles and proved best by 1¼ lengths in the field of 10.

The late Gustav Schickedanz, who called Aiken home during the winter, was the breeder and part owner of City Boy, the 25-1 shot winner of the Nearctic Stakes-G2 at Woodbine Oct. 12. Trainer Mike Keogh led City Boy through the breaking process in Aiken. City Boy contested the lead throughout and got his head to the wire first.

Penguin Power is on a roll. He broke on top and never looked back in the WVTBA "Onion Juice" Breeders Classic Oct. 12 at Charles Town. He crossed the finish line 3½ lengths in front. This was Penguin Power's sixth victory in a row and he has won nine of 11 lifetime starts. He learned his early lessons at Shuler Stables in Cope.

Forest Fire, a graduate of Randy and Kala Rentz's program in Ehrhardt, sat right behind the leader for the first 6 furlongs in the Maryland Million Classic at Laurel Park Oct. 19. It was a hard-fought struggle between the two in the race to the wire. Forest Fire prevailed by a half length.

Aiken Steeplechase fun day for all

While a bit overcast and warm for late October, approximately 15,000 attended the Aiken Fall Steeplechase Oct. 26. Four races, all covering 2¼ miles, were run over National Fences.

In his first race over jumps, Irv Naylor's Family Tree (GB) came home first by 2 lengths in the $30,000 Budweiser Holiday Cup, the feature race of the day. Family Tree is trained by Neil Morris and was ridden by Barry Foley.

Naylor also won the Cathedral Isle with Mighty Mark, who was best by 8½ lengths under Alain Cawley. He is trained by Katherine Neilson.

Timber Town Stable's Lela's Gift was 18½ lengths better than the rest in the Thomas Hitchcock. Ridden by Kieran Norris, Lela's Gift is trained by Norris' wife, Madison Myers.

In the final race of the day, Morningstar Farm's Diplodocus was involved in a heated battle and came out on top by a half length in the Juac Hollow. Trainer Ricky Hendriks had his son McLane in the saddle.

Colonial Downs Group Provides Business Update For First Six Months In Operation

In late October, the Colonial Downs Group (CDG) announced financial results for the first six months of operations that began April 18 with the opening of a Rosie's Gaming Emporium at the New Kent racetrack.

CDG presently operates 2,150 Historical Horse Racing Machines (HHRs) between four Rosie's sites, and owns and operates four additional off-track betting locations. In collaboration with the Virginia Racing Commission (VRC) and Virginia Equine Alliance (VEA), Colonial Downs brought competitive horse racing back to the track in New Kent this summer for the first time since 2013.

Results below also include Rosie's operations in Vinton which opened on May 6, and in Richmond which opened on June 29.

To date, CDG has generated over 1,000 jobs and provided $5,911,366 in tax revenue to the Commonwealth of Virginia, $2,730,165 to New Kent County, $301,641 to Vinton and $738,369 to the City of Richmond. Total HHR wagering handle so far is $729,192,184 while an additional $24,374,840 has been bet via live simulcasting. Annual payroll for the entire operation is $36.2 million.

Aaron Gomes, Colonial Downs Group's COO, stated, "The results are exceeding expectations and we look forward to continued growth, opportunity and economic development."

Virginia's horse racing industry took more steps forward in recent days. A ceremonial ribbon cutting ushered in the fourth Rosie's Gaming Emporium on October 29. The 39,000 square foot facility is located in Hampton at the Power Plant complex off Interstate 64. On November 5, voters in Dumfries and Danville approved pari-mutuel betting which could open the door for additional Rosie's sites. The Town of Dumfries, with its proximity to Interstate 95 and U.S. 1, offers a convenient location for the first Rosie's in Northern Virginia. It also offers a smaller pool of voters to persuade than most localities in the region. Dumfries has 2,700 registered voters, less than 1 percent the 285,000 registered voters in Prince William County.

Six Virginia-Certified Horses Earn Five Digit Bonus Checks

A total of 248 Virginia-Certified horses have won awards from the residency bonus initiative through the first ten months of 2019 including six who earned the maximum $10,000 bonus.

Two Certified horses competed in the $100,000 Rosie's Stakes August 31 at Colonial Downs which was won by Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint winner Four Wheel Drive. Maryland-bred So Street was runner-up, finishing 3 3/4 lengths behind the impressive winner. The 2-year-old Street Magician gelding, bred by Larry Johnson, did pick up a win at Colonial August 8 and collected a $9,750 bonus check for that effort. So Street has bankrolled $158,923 from seven starts and earned his $10,000 bonus September 28 when he captured the $100,000 Howard County Stakes at Laurel. He spent his six month residency at the Legacy Farm in Bluemont.

Fourth place finisher in the Rosie's Stakes was Hypothesis, a West Virginia-bred 2-year-old whose only loss in four starts came at New Kent. The Algorithms gelding has earned $86,025 courtesy of three wins at Charles Town. He scored in a maiden special weight, in September's Henry Mercer Memorial and most recently, in the October 12 Vincent Moscarelli Memorial. Owned by Jill Daniel and trained by Crystal Pickett, Hypothesis spent his six months in the Commonwealth at Whiskey Creek Farm in Berryville.

Two other Certified horses reached the winners circle at Colonial Downs. Maryland-bred Elevated Forever went gate-to-wire in a $25,000 maiden claimer on opening weekend and scored a $3,740 bonus. The 3-year-old Jump Start gelding was best in a 14 horse field at 19-1 with Daniel Centeno in the irons. Elevated Forever spent his six months at Morgan's Ford Farm & Warwick Stable in Front Royal.

West Virginia-bred Zonda collected a $9,000 bonus from a $60,000 allowance victory August 8 at Colonial. The 3-year-old Scat Daddy filly also bagged a $10,000 award when she captured the $125,000 Maryland Million Ladies on October 19. The James Lawrence trainee is owned by Matthew Schera and has earnings of $159,407. She spent her six months at the Braeburn Training Center in Crozet.

Four other Certified winners earned $10,000 awards this year --- New York-breds NY Traffic and Bassman Dave, Pennsylvania-bred Capital Q and Kentucky-bred Dyna Passer.

NY Traffic scored in a $90,000 maiden special weight at Parx on October 12. The 2-year-old Cross Traffic colt is owned by John Farrell & Leonard Liberto and spent his six months at Sunny Dell Farm in Barboursville.

Bassman Dave connected in a $78,000 maiden special weight at Saratoga August 10. Owned by Michael Henning, the 3-year-old Big Brown gelding wired the field which helped generate his current $82,760 bankroll. Bassman Dave resided at Ingleside Training Center in Montpelier Station.

Capital Q's lone victory in six starts came in a $75,000 maiden special weight August 4 at Parx. The 2-year-old El Padrino filly was best of ten in an upset where she paid $59.00 to win. Owned by Richard Ciavardone, Capital Q spent time in Virginia at Morgan's Ford Farm & Warwick Stable in Front Royal.

Dyna Passer, who has competed in Grade I and 2 stakes at Belmont this year, prevailed in a wide open $90,000 maiden special weight at Belmont May 23. Owned and bred by Woodslane Farm in Middleburg, the 3-year-old Lemon Drop filly has a bankroll of $185,810 from eight starts.

Winningest horse since the program's inception is Parisian Diva, a 3-year-old filly who was bred in West Virginia. Owned by Melissa Golden, the daughter of Freedom Child has won eight races in just over 13 months, all at Charles Town. Most recently, she won the $75,000 Tourism Office Breeders Classic Stakes and collected her largest bonus check yet of $8,943. In six victories this year, her awards total $34,723. When combined with two other wins in 2018, the award total rises to $45,643. Parisian Diva's overall bankroll stands at $242,170 through 13 starts. Her residency was spent at Chance Farm in Gordonsville.

West Virginia Breeders Classics XXXIII

By Jeff Gilleas. Photographs by Coady Photography

Football has the Super Bowl, baseball the World Series, NBA the Finals, soccer the World Cup; for local horsemen its definitively the West Virginia Breeders Classics that symbolize the year-end goal for supremacy.

Spawned from the imagination of Sam Huff and nurtured by Carol Holden, this year's 33rd renewal of their collective masterpiece featured a mixture of short-priced favorites alongside a pricey upset winner of the Classic.

WEST VIRGINIA BREEDERS CLASSIC

Attendees of this year's West Virginia Breeders Classics are still scratching their heads trying to figure out how Castle Bound (68-1) managed to win the most coveted prize of 2019.

With his last win occurring Jan. 17, 2018, the 6-year-old son of Windsor Castle entered the $300,000 stakes off a nondescript seventh-place effort in the Frank Gall Memorial.

Maybe watching his baby sister (Boundtobebad) capture the Triple Crown Nutrition earlier on the program inspired the veteran gelding, or possibly it was a return to the Classic distance of 1⅛ miles, where he had been moderately successful.

Whatever persuaded the seasoned warrior to awaken, the Taylor Mountain Farms colors of light blue, cerise C with cerise dots commanded the winner's circle ceremonies.

Taylor Mountain Farm's Breeders Classic winner Castle Bound.

Castle Bound, out of Bound To, by Boundary, is owned, trained and bred by James W. Casey.

The 1-2 favorite Runnin'toluvya misbehaved at the gate and failed to duplicate the form that carried him to victory in this year's Charles Town Classic-G2.

VINCENT MOSCARELLI MEMORIAL BREEDERS CLASSIC

Seasoning and talent are a deadly alliance in 2-year-old races, especially when many contestants lack a firm foundation. The top-two finishers of the Henry Mercer Memorial in September, Hypothesis and Nico, repeated their heated rivalry on Classics night.

Encountering traffic problems early, Hypothesis was able to extricate himself rounding the clubhouse turn, clearing a path for a well earned decision.

The bay gelded son of Algorithms and the Not For Love mare Ideal Thoughts is owned by Jill Daniel, trained by Crystal Pickett and bred by Francis 'Chip' Daniel III.

LOTTERY BREEDERS CLASSIC

Nine evenly matched runners mustered in the 7-furlong scrap, with Killa Dee going off as the 6-5 post time favorite.

However, when the gates opened it was the undefeated Loving Touch (Fiber Sonde—Lov'emnrun, by Not For Love), a full brother to Charles Town Classic-G2 winner Runnin'toluvya, who led the charge.

Owned by Grams Racing Stable LLC, trained by Tim Grams and bred by Leslie Cromer, the handsome dark bay 3-year-old survived a claim of foul by runner-up Hero's Man to record his initial stakes success in his fourth start.

To date, Grams has been shepherding Loving Touch's career with acute savvy.

TRIPLE CROWN NUTRITION BREEDERS CLASSIC

Taylor Mountain Farm rarely disappoints on the biggest stage of the year.

So when homebred Boundtobebad, a full sister to Castle Bound (by Windsor Castle out of Bound To) was overlooked at odds of 11-1, it was unquestionably a significant handicapping faux pas.

While the 3-5 public choice Twirling Owen floundered from her extreme outside post, the victorious James Casey youngster made good use of her rail-hugging perspective.

With an unobstructed view of the first-place prize, Boundtobebad lengthened her advantage to score by an effortless 7½ lengths over stablemate Candyforacause.

Congratulations are in order to Mr Casey's new assistant Ronnie Ziegler. Since his addition the barn has been firing on all cylinders.

WEST VIRGINIA TOURISM OFFICE BREEDERS CLASSIC

Parisian Diva tried the big girls in the wide-open $300,000 Charles Town Oaks-G3 in September and finished a reputable fourth.

So when she landed in the restricted Tourism Stakes, for 3-year-old West Virginia-bred fillies, morning line odds of 4-5 were justified.

Competing for owner/breeder Melinda Golden and trainer Stacey Viands, the compact bundle of talent couldn't be denied in winning her sixth race of 2019.

The bay daughter of Freedom Child and Paris Heiress has some big shoes to fill if she wants to supplant the reigning queen, Late Night Pow Wow, but the pride of Viands' barn is always prepared for a righteous quest.

WVTBA "ONION JUICE" BREEDERS CLASSIC

Penguin Power had upset the mighty Runnin'toluvya in the 7-furlong Frank Gall Memorial in September, stamping the son of Fiber Sonde as a prohibitive choice at the same distance on Breeders Classics night.

The steadily improving 4-year-old bred by John McKee has been exquisitely managed by trainer Jeff C. Runco for owner David M. Raim and improved his record to nine wins in 11 lifetime starts.

The good-looking chestnut threw the gauntlet down early, as his custom, turning the race into a highly publicized and profitable workout.

A full brother (out of Aye Robbin) to the highly-accomplished Aye a Song, a Breeders Classic winner in 2015, Penguin Power should have fans on the edge of their seats or saddle in the future.

DASH FOR CASH BREEDERS CLASSIC

House calls are rare in the thriving world of modern medicine, except at Charles Town, where the skillful Dr. Feelgood practices.

The swayback son of Fiber Sonde and the Polish Numbers mare Happy Numbers operated on a contentious field in the 4½-furlong Dash with prescribed results.

The 4-year-old gray/roan gelding nimbly preserved his unbeaten streak at the abbreviated distance, while stopping the clock in a snazzy 50.81 seconds.

The winner is conditioned by Crystal Pickett, owned by Jill Daniel and bred by Francis W. Daniel III.

WEST VIRGINIA "CAVADA" BREEDERS CLASSIC

If General Motors was commissioned to create the perfect horse, with blueprints requiring good mileage, sleek lines and abundant heart, they would contact No Guts No Glory Farm to replicate the plans for Anna's Bandit.

The 5-year-old Great Notion mare out of stakes winner Onearmedbandit once again proved the desire to win is her greatest asset.

Bred and trained by John Robb, Anna's Bandit campaigns for his wife Gina. She has won eight of 10 starts this year, having captured the Maryland Million Distaff one week after the Cavada, and has tallied 15 wins from 31 career outings, for earnings of $658,715. The distaff marvel in the Mid-Atlantic has transitioned from a supporting role to leading lady.

ROGER RAMEY BREEDERS CLASSIC DISTAFF

On paper, the Distaff appeared to be T Rex Express' for the taking. Bet down to 3-5, last year's winner had everything her own way, until B's Wild Cork descended upon her in the final strides.

The attractive 4-year-old daughter of Denis of Cork and B's Wild Rush completed a victorious trifecta on the evening for Team Casey.

Passion, risk and consistency distinguish Mr. James W. Casey and his racing empire from many challengers.

The Distaff was named for a man of impeccable class, Roger Ramey.

Roger was a respected member of the community, business entrepreneur and avid supporter of Thoroughbred racing.

He will be sincerely missed by all.

Andi'amu prevails as timber champion in exciting season

The National Steeplechase Association's 2019 season wrapped up in November after an exciting battle for the championship between two emerging stars, Andi'amu and Schoodic, and a notable eight days in April from established star Senior Senator.

When the final results were tallied, Ballybristol Farm's Andi'amu was the year's timber champion, with $115,500 in purse earnings from three wins and one second in four starts. Dolly Fisher's Schoodic finished the year with $109,500, only $6,000 behind Andi'amu and with a record of five wins and one second in six starts over timber.

Third on the list was Skip and Vicki Crawford's Senior Senator, who accumulated $90,000 on consecutive Saturdays with his third victories in the Grand National and the Maryland Hunt Cup.

Ballybristol Farm's owners, Chicago-area residents Thomas and Roxanne Collins, were the year's leading timber owners with $142,500 in total purses.

Andi'amu and Schoodic were new to timber racing in 2019, while Senior Senator is a Hunt Cup specialist whose seasons have been limited to the Maryland timber classics by trainer Joe Davies. All three of the leading earners were nine-year-olds this year.

Andi'amu and Schoodic both possess hurdler speed, both placed in Grade 1 races during their hurdle careers, and both used their speed to their advantage in their timber starts.

Trainer Leslie Young took a measured approach with Andi'amu after he concluded the hurdle phase of his career in 2017 with a second-place finish in the Montpelier Hunt Races' Noel Laing Handicap. Earlier that year, he had finished third in the Calvin Houghland Iroquois (Gr. 1).

Andi'amu led 2017 and 2018 timber champion Doc Cebu over a fence in the Virginia Gold Cup.

The French-bred started only twice in 2018 and collected victories in two steeplethon races over mixed obstacles.

He first won Middleburg Spring's Alfred M. Hunt steeplethon before scoring a five-length victory in the Virginia Gold Cup's Steeplethon Stakes two weeks later. Those two victories earned him $36,000.

Young brought him back at the 2019 Middleburg Spring meet but this time with her target on the timber season. Andi'amu took to the post-and-rail fences readily and won the Middleburg Hunt Cup by 5¾ lengths over Le Chevalier.

The next step was a big one, to the $100,000 Virginia Gold Cup and its four miles. Andi'amu dominated throughout under jockey Jack Doyle and won by three lengths over Le Chevalier. At year's end, the Virginia Gold Cup's $60,000 first-place purse would be the deciding factor in the championship battle.

Andi'amu came back for a fall campaign in Virginia Fall's National Sporting Library and Museum Cup on Oct. 12, and again his speed determined the outcome. Andi'amu led throughout, Doyle asked him to run a bit late, and Andi'amu won by 7¼ lengths.

That victory, his fifth straight over two racing seasons, set up a meeting with other top players in the timber division in the International Gold Cup two weeks later. While Andi'amu was winning at Middleburg that day, Schoodic and other top timber competitors were several hundred miles to the north competing in the Genesee Valley Hunt Cup.

Schoodic stars in his new career over timber

Possessing extraordinary talent over fences and a questionable disposition, Schoodic was a top competitor from the beginning. Bred by Edith Dixon, the widow of Philadelphia civic leader F. Eugene Dixon, Schoodic flunked out of flat racing after five tries and was turned over to Jack Fisher.

The Tiznow gelding won the 2010 Gladstone and Raymond G. Woolfe Stakes to take the three-year-old title by a landslide. His temperament often got in the way of his talent in subsequent seasons, but he still managed a victory in the 2017 David Semmes Memorial (Gr. 2) in addition to a Grade 1 placing the following spring in the Marion duPont Scott Colonial Cup (Gr. 1).

He concluded his hurdle career with a fall in the 2018 Noel Laing.

While his speed no longer earned significant checks over hurdles, timber appeared to be the next step. Mrs. Dixon did not want a timber horse and offered him as a gift to Dolly Fisher, the trainer's mother.

Often inattentive over hurdles, Schoodic paid attention over timber, and jockey Hadden Frost made certain that his new mount had his mind on the game and the looming fence. They won a John Rush Streett maiden timber division at My Lady's Manor and then ripped off a victory in Iroquois' Mason Houghland Memorial timber allowance.

Michael Mitchell got the call of a win at the Fair Hill Races on May 24. With Frost back in the saddle, Schoodic sustained his first defeat over timber in Shawan Downs' Brown Advisory Legacy Chase, a close second to Codrington College on Sept. 28.

Senior Senator led Drift Society to the Maryland Hunt Cup finish line.

Fisher sent his mother's rising timber star north to New York for the Genesee Valley Hunt Cup, and Schoodic prevailed by a length over Le Chevalier. Thus, the table was set for the match-up of the year in the International Gold Cup.

Andi'amu showed the way under Doyle, with Schoodic and Frost right behind the leader. They began to separate themselves from the remainder of the field with a half-mile remaining and battled head to head over the last two fences in the stretch.

Both jockeys drove their mounts to the finish line, with Doyle easing up on Andi'amu in the last 50 yards when he realized that his mount had no chance of catching Schoodic, who won by 2½ lengths. The rest of the field was 13 or more lengths farther back.

The championship season effectively ended with that dramatic finish, but it was no more dramatic than Senior Senator's third victory in the Hunt Cup on April 28. After retiring the Grand National trophy a week earlier with his third straight win, Senior Senator lined up for a shot at his third victory in four years.

Under Eric Poretz, Senior Senator set the Hunt Cup's pace for three of its four miles before Bruton Street-US's Drift Society and Frost made a sharp move to the lead. They approached the tanbark-covered road crossing in stride, and disaster nearly befell Senior Senator.

He slipped on the surface and went nearly to his knees, but Poretz maintained both his seat and his poise. He righted Senior Senator and sent him after Fisher-trained Drift Society. The Pennsylvania-bred was gaining at the next to last fence and jumped to the lead at the last before winning by four lengths. With his victory, Senior Senator retired the Hunt Cup trophy for the Crawfords and Davies.

Go Jump Racing!

A 'transformational' plan for the future of Maryland racing

BY TOM LAMARRA

As 2019 nears an end, the immediate focus of the coming year will be on the structure of Maryland Thoroughbred racing for many years to come.

It's a greatly different situation than in December 2010, when a shutdown of live racing seemed imminent for 2011 until the governor intervened and helped negotiate a one-year deal to preserve a full racing schedule. That eventually led to a formal 10-year agreement between the Maryland Jockey Club, horsemen and breeders in December 2012.

This time around, it's about the next 30 years under a proposal to rebuild Laurel Park and Pimlico Race Course for roughly $373 million using existing legislated funds through the Racetrack Facility Renewal Account and a subsequent long-term bond program. The project requires legislative approval and is expected to be ready for consideration early in the 2020 General Assembly session that begins Jan. 8.

For Pimlico, it means a new clubhouse/grandstand that will serve as an event center most of the year, development on the property's perimeter and a commitment that the Preakness Stakes will remain in Baltimore. Laurel also would get a new front-side facility, but for horsemen the bigger piece of the project is a completely new stable area and new dormitory complex.

Either of the two tracks, if the project proceeds as planned, would most likely meet the criteria necessary to host the Breeders' Cup World Championships.

"In some respects [Laurel and Pimlico] are both past their useful life," MJC attorney Alan Rifkin said in reference to infrastructure during a community meeting at Laurel. "The needs for these facilities are different than the needs of the racing industry today. The facilities need to be modernized, and it's cheaper and more efficient to take them to the ground and rebuild them."

Pimlico under the plan will have a small stabling area to accommodate ship-ins for race meets and will no longer be used for regular training. That puts the emphasis on Laurel–and the need for more stalls. The plan calls for 300 additional stalls in a completely rebuilt barn area.

The three existing tent barns at Laurel would be repurposed as part of the project.

"If we can get this plan done it will truly be the finest facility in racing," said MTHA legal counsel Alan Foreman, who represented the horse industry in the three months of discussions that formed the plan. "We're going to do the best we can to get the best barn area in racing."

There would be about 380 dorm rooms for backstretch workers as part of a new building that would resemble the current Laurel Commons. All the parties have acknowledged the need for upgraded facilities for those who care for the horses every day.

"Accommodations for workers have been addressed first and foremost," Foreman said.

The current size of the Laurel turf course–140 feet wide–will allow for part of it to be replaced with a Tapeta surface. That would give Laurel dirt, turf and synthetic tracks for racing, which would be a first in the United States. A tunnel would be built from the barn area to allow horses to access all three surfaces.

There has been renewed interest in synthetic surfaces in the U.S. given the intense focus on racehorse health and safety. A Tapeta track could be used regularly, for when races come off the turf, or in the winter should the dirt track not be suitable.

"We are laser-focused on the safety and welfare of our horses," Foreman said.

Bill Cole, who represented the city of Baltimore in the talks, said there will be a transition period for horsemen. With the Laurel rebuild scheduled to go first, racing would move to Pimlico for 10-14 months; Cole said details haven't been finalized but the Maryland State Fair at Timonium and the old Bowie Training Center are options to house horses. In addition, temporary dorms would be constructed at Pimlico.

The MTHA has committed $5 million a year to the overall project. The idea is to use money from the Purse Dedication Account, and such a change would require legislative approval.

"This could be truly transformational for our industry," Foreman said.

As the legislative session approaches, equine stakeholders in the state are preparing for Maryland Horse Industry Day, which is scheduled for Jan. 22 in Annapolis. The MTHA as usual is a sponsor along with the MJC, Maryland Horse Breeders Association, Maryland Horse Council, Maryland Million, Standardbred organizations and other horse-related associations.

The typically well-attended event may take on new meaning this year given the recent developments.

"All equine-interested individuals are invited to attend," an initial memo on the event states. "No advocacy experience required. We will convene in the morning to prep for legislative meetings, then meet in small groups with legislators. When legislators are in session, we will hear presentations and engage in discussions and questions-and-answers with industry members, legislative staffers and special guests."

There is no charge but registration is required. The event is organized by Grow & Fortify, which is active in governmental affairs related to agriculture and economic development opportunities in Maryland.

The event runs from 7:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. and is usually attended by many legislators. It is a great opportunity to advocate for the Maryland racing and breeding industry at a time of change. ✹

In Memoriam

MARTIN B. BERNSTEIN

Owner and breeder Martin B. Bernstein, of Washington, D.C., died Oct. 14 at age 96.

The World War II Navy veteran had been an accomplished musician and composer and taught music at Towson High School in Baltimore, Md., until his retirement in the late 1970s.

It was during the week of teaching orientation in the 1950s that Bernstein saw his first horse race at Timonium and become fascinated. He purchased his first racehorse in 1977, and bred on a small scale over the next several decades, in later years with his trainer Gloria Wenderoth. His first notable success came with a Son Excellence filly he bred and named Iambiambi (a play on words with the name of her dam Ambitioninhaste). Iambiambi was retired as a broodmare and delivered Bernstein's best runner, graded stakes winner Dr. Max, a son of Dover Ridge who won the 2000 Maryland Breeders' Cup Handicap-G3 on Preakness Day, and placed in eight other stakes while earning $361,788.

CHARLIE LINTON

Retired Maryland outrider Charlie Linton died Sept. 27 at his home in Westminster, Md. He was 81.

SKIP BALL

Born in Fairland, Md., Linton was an accomplished horseman and outrider for the Maryland racetracks for over 35 years. He worked in every aspect of the horse racing industry, including trainer and owner. He was described by Maryland racing's Bobby Lillis at the time of his passing as "An outstanding horseman and an awesome exercise rider as well. Perhaps the best I've ever known. He has saved my life and the lives of many in his day." Among the horses he galloped was Maryland great Jameela.

Linton is survived by his sisters Janet and Elaine and brother Thomas Linton, and daughters Carol and Nancy. Among his grandchildren is graded stakes-winning jockey Nik Juarez.

DOUGLAS R. SMALL JR.

Former champion steeplechase jockey Douglas Reid Small Jr. suffered an injury while mountain biking with his dog in Fair Hill, Md., and died peacefully Oct. 11, surrounded by his wife, four daughters, several grandchildren, and his dog, Otis, on the bed with him. He was the husband of Lori Small, with whom he shared 31 years of marriage.

Born in Champaign, Ill., in 1943, Small was the son of the late Douglas Reid Small and the late Jane Watters Small. Small studied and became a master naturalist, culminating his life-long love and passion for all living things. He was an avid fly fisherman, beekeeper, artist, gardener, mountain biker, dog trainer, wood worker, reader and tinkerer. He died a week after speaking at a memorial service for fellow jump jockey and lifelong friend Paddy Neilson.

Small was a top steeplechase jockey in the 1960s, riding for some of the top stables in the country including that of his then father-in-law Burley Cocks and uncle Sidney Watters Jr. (both Hall of Famers). Small won the National Steeplechase Association championship in 1965, with 27 wins from 173 mounts, and was near the top of the leaderboard for several seasons. Among his major wins were four in the American Grand National, aboard *Golpista in 1967, High Patches in 1969, Lake Delaware in 1970 and Down First in 1980. While subbing for owner/trainer/jockey Russell Jones, Small won the Indian River Stakes (then a major race at Delaware Park) with *Jacko in 1969 and added a Pennsylvania Hunt Cup win over timber on the horse in 1972. Also over timber, Small won the 1970 Virginia Gold Cup with King of Spades and rode in the 1973

Maryland Hunt Cup. Small won the New York Turf Writers Cup with *Susto in 1965 and Spooky Joe in 1966. In 1976, he twice rode steeplechase co-champion Fire Control (winning the Noel Laing at Montpelier and finishing second to New Zealand invader Grand Canyon in the Colonial Cup).

Small finished riding races for good in 1982, and his 150 lifetime steeplechase wins rank among the top 20.

After racing, Small became an architect and builder of custom post and beam and historic reproduction homes. He and his wife founded Waterbury Associates, a design, build, kitchen and millwork business.

He is survived by his wife, his daughters, Susannah Small, Micaela Raine, Jessica Moutenot-Small, and Mandy Morgan and eight grandchildren. He is also survived by siblings Stephen Small, Sass Merryman, Jacqueline Parashar, and Alistair Small. Small was preceded in death by his brother, longtime Maryland trainer Richard "Dickie" Small. Should you care to make a donation in honor of Small's stewardship of nature, visit www.fairhillnature.org.

DONALD SOUDER

Donald Eugene Souder, a longtime Maryland-based trainer, died Oct. 17. The resident of Clarksville, Md., was 85.

Souder began training in 1979 and had 255 career victories and earnings just shy of $4 million. Among his top horses was his own Higher Strata, whom he claimed in September 1995 and sent out to win the Maryland City and Endless Surprise Stakes at Laurel. He also owned and trained Jubilees Galore, winner of the 1998 Oakley Stakes at Colonial Downs.

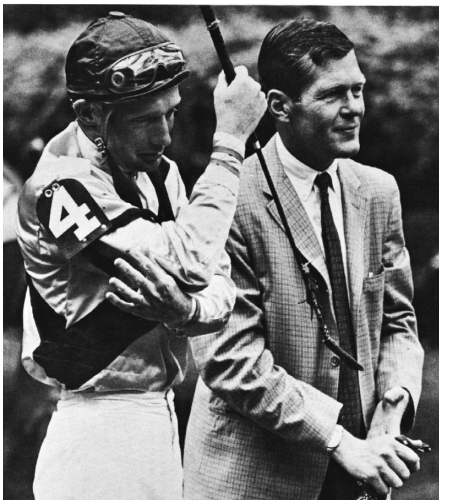
Souder was an entrepreneur involved in the car dealership Wynn Kelly Chevrolet in Clarksville, as well as restaurants and construction. He maintained a small Laurel Park-based stable and sent out four winners this year. His final starter was Wilko's Goldeneye, a winner earlier in the year who ran Oct. 14 at Laurel.

THOMAS M. WALSH

Thomas M. "Tommy" Walsh, a champion steeplechase jockey who was inducted into the National Racing Hall of Fame in 2005, died in November of cancer. He was 79.

Consistently among the sport's leading jockeys during his 12-year career, he was champion for the first time in 1960 with 29 jump victories and again led the standings in 1966 with 37. He was a member of the Walsh family of steeplechase horsemen and learned the sport from his father, James Walsh, at his parents' riding academy in Great Neck, N.Y. He had his first mount on St. Patrick's Day in 1956, shortly before his 16th birthday, and he rode frequently for his uncle Michael G. "Mickey" Walsh, also a Hall of Fame member.



Tommy Walsh with Hall of Fame steeplechase jockey-turned trainer Paddy Smithwick in 1967.

Tommy Walsh rode champions Barnabys Bluff (1962), Bon Nouvel (1964-1965), and Mako (1966). He won five consecutive editions of the American Grand National, then run at Aqueduct or Belmont Park, beginning with two victories by Sun Dog in 1959 and 1960. He also won in 1961 with Independence, in 1962 with Barnabys Bluff, and in 1963 with Tuscarora. After missing a year, Walsh came back with a win aboard Mako in 1965.

Walsh stopped riding in 1967. His 253 wins were third behind just Paddy Smithwick and Dooley Adams at 398 and 301, respectively. Walsh still ranks fifth in career victories. He went into training and, among others, conditioned graded stakes winners Ommadon, Missymooiloveyou and Nice Pirate.

Looking Back

The Washington, D.C., International winner's circle celebration has trainer Bill Mott adjusting the blanket of flowers on Paradise Creek and Pat Day.

25 years ago

■ The 43rd running of the Washington, D.C., International-G1 was the centerpiece of Laurel's Turf Festival, and the winner added luster to the race's great history. Paradise Creek, sent off at 1-5—the lowest odds in the race's history—drew off to win by 5½ lengths in 1:59⅗ for 1¼ miles. Trained by Bill Mott, the 5-year-old Virginia-bred carried the colors of Japanese real estate executive Masayuki Nishiyama, who earlier in the year purchased Paradise Creek from breeders Bert and Diana Firestone. A surprise second in the International was C. Oliver Goldsmith's homebred Redcall, by home stallion Acallade and foaled at his breeder's Longwood Farm in Glenwood, Md. "The little old country horse" set the early pace and held on for second, a nose over England's Beneficial (GB).

■ The Turf Festival at Laurel was a celebration for other local connections. Maryland-bred Warning Glance, campaigning for breeder Stuart S. Janney III, captured the $150,000 Governor's Cup in stakes record time. The 3-year-old son of Maryland sire Caveat from the illustrious family of Shenanigans was trained by Charlie Hadry.

George Strawbridge's Pennsylvania-bred filly Alice Springs, by regional sire Val de l'Orne (Fr), captured the $250,000All Along-G2, also in stakes record time. "When she has everything her own way, I think she's as good as anybody," said trainer Jonathan Sheppard.

Jockey Rene Douglas, who won the previous year's International with Caltech, rode both.

Laurel Park president Joe De Francis said the Festival had a "bright future" and would continue at Laurel the next year before moving to Colonial Downs in 1996.

■ Billed "The horse lover's dream weekend," the sixth annual Fair Hill International/Festival in the Country was held at the Fair Hill Natural Resources Area in Maryland and featured 58 competitors in the Fair Hill International Three-Day event, one of only two International Equestrian Federation rated three-star CCIs in the nation. Other competitions included combined driving, pony championships, and the rescheduled Fair Hill Races, held for the first time in conjunction with the Festival.

■ Daniel and Allison Lucas had a growing Thoroughbred operation at their Peace & Plenty Farm in Mt. Airy, Md., but also bred racing Quarter Horses, and those interests crossed when they sent multiple stakes-winning Thoroughbred mare In the Curl to one of the country's leading Quarter Horse sires, Runaway Winner. In the Curl, a 10-time stakes winner and earner of $749,891, was purchased privately by the Lucases after her racing career. Allison noted that the Maryland-bred daughter of Shelter Half "is built like some mares who have been very successful Quarter Horse producers." The farm was home to eight other broodmares, in foal to such stallions as Woodman and Capote, and from a Relaunch mare they had a Storm Cat yearling and Deputy Minister weanling.

The Storm Cat yearling was Devon Lane, who wasn't much of a runner, but became a Grade 1 sire in New Mexico. His dam To the Hunt, bred in Virginia by Daniel G. Van Clief, was sold by the Lucases in November 1995—she later produced Grade 1-winning millionaires Stellar Jayne and Starrer.

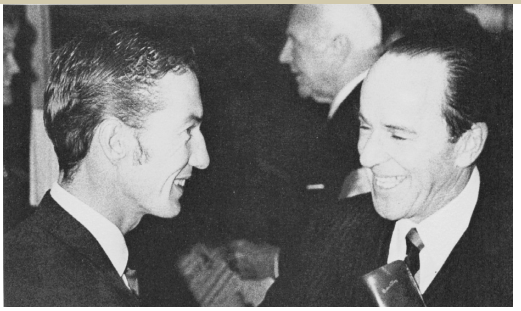
■ One of racing's true good guys, Chick Lang Jr., died at age 47. Known throughout the industry for his easygoing demeanor, humor and intelligence, the son of legendary track executive Chick Lang spent his life in various roles as a jockey's agent, director of marketing and public relations at Pimlico and Birmingham Turf Club, administrative director at Oaklawn Park and general manager of Retama Park. "There was no one better at developing bonds of friendship with horsemen, customers, and co-workers," said Oaklawn general manager Eric Jackson.

50 years ago

■ British pundits and fans, including 168 members of the British Race-Goers Club who paid $450 each to fly to Laurel and bet on the horse, touted *Karabas as the one to beat in the 17th Washington, D.C., International. And Lord Iveagh's runner delivered under a confident ride by Lester Piggott to defeat *Hawaii and *Czar Alexander. It was the first year no American-bred runners competed.

Lord Iveagh, owner of the Guinness Brewery, celebrated with a Guinness after the race.

The winning horse and rider had International connections –*Karabas was a son of *Worden, winner of the second International; Piggott piloted Sir Ivor to victory in 1968. When the American press surrounded Piggott after his recent win, "Piggott displayed a marked similarity to vintage Bill Hartack-isms" after informing the press he didn't care for the things they had written about him a year earlier.



Two-time winning D.C. International jockey Lester Piggott is all smiles as he talks with race founder John Schapiro.

"Write the same things you wrote last year," he said.

■ Paul Mellon's Virginia-bred Arts and Letters was an overwhelming choice as the Morning Telegraph's Horse of the Year. Five Maryland-breds received votes among the divisional champions: Cherry Sundae (2-year-old filly), Pit Bunny (3-year-old filly), Promise (sprinter), Curator (steeplechaser) and North Flight (turf). And other top competitors with ties to the region included 2-year-old High Echelon, who was raised by his owner/breeder Hirsch Jacobs at Stymie Manor Farm in Monkton, Md.; Sagamore Farm's Canadian-born 2-year-old filly Cold Comfort; and handicap horse and sprinter Terrible Tiger, owned and trained by William G. Christmas.

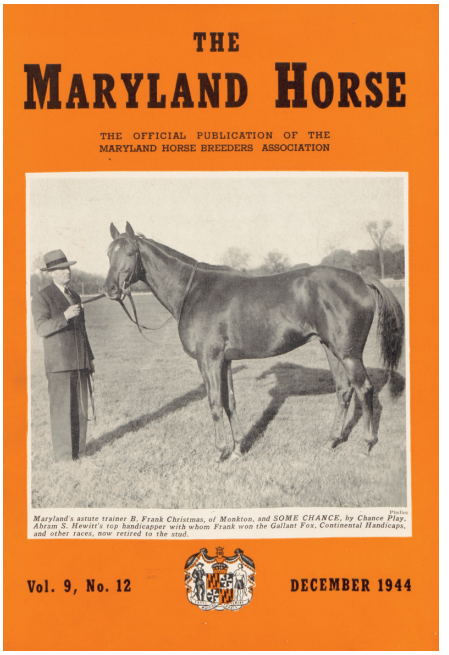
■ Twilight Tear's victory in the Pimlico Special, and for the first time in Maryland's history an average daily handle of more than $1 million, were among the highlights of the 22-day Pimlico fall meet.

Don Reed wrote: "Looking back over the year, one very definite impression is retained. That the public wanted racing, that there was plenty of money for betting, for the purchase of horses and for a great many other amusements and sports. How long this boom will last, no one can foretell, but Maryland profited very well because it existed in 1944."

Seldom had a stable dominated the sport in one state as did Twilight Tear's owner Calumet Farm. With Pensive taking the Preakness and Pot O'Luck taking the Pimlico Futurity, Calumet won the two richest stakes in the spring and fall.



Maryland trainer B. Frank Christmas sent out Abram S. Hewitt's top handicap horse Some Chance to win the Gallant Fox Handicap, among others, in 1944 before the son of Chance Play headed to stud at Hewitt's Montana Hall stud in Virginia.

■ The state's leading owners were led by H. Guy Bedwell, winner of 26 races and $58,275, including the Jennings Handicap with Sollure. H.L. Straus was next, with William Brann in third. Bedwell also led all trainers in the state, with 27 wins, and would once again send a string to California for the winter.

10 years ago

■ Offspring of Not For Love dominated the 24th Maryland Million Day at Laurel Park, with four victories on the 12-race program, increasing his Maryland Million wins to 20, two shy of longtime leader Allen's Prospect.

The sire of at least two winners on every Maryland Million card since 2002, Not For Love had his biggest year with Target Sighted (Turf), Talkin About Love (Ladies), Love That Dance (Oaks) and Take Down Two (Sprint Starter Handicap). Not For Love missed one when Cuba, winner of the previous year's Classic, was upset in attempting a repeat as former claimer Sumacha'hot, a son of Mojave Moon who had been cross-entered in the Starter Handicap, easily defeated the defending champion.

In other Maryland Million news, in response to dwindling Maryland-sired foal crops, the Maryland Million program was eliminating foal nominations, starting with the 2009 foals, who would automatically become Maryland Million certified if their sire was fully nominated to the program.

■ Tarry Bratton's Ghost Ridge Farms in Felton, Pa., landed Jump Start to stand for the 2010 season. With more than $4 million in progeny earnings in 2009, the 10-year-old son of A.P. Indy who began his stud career at his birthplace, Overbrook Farm in Kentucky, six years earlier, jumped to the top of the Pennsylvania sires list and ranked second in the Mid-Atlantic region behind Not For Love. Jump Start was the sire of 18 stakes winners from his first four crops, five graded, including 2009 Hollywood Gold Cup-G1 winner Rail Trip.

Jump Start made the move from Kentucky to Pennsylvania for the 2010 breeding season, and has been a fixture at the top of the sire rankings ever since.

Northview Stallion Station acquired controlling interest in Jump Start in 2011 and stood him at Northview PA in Peach Bottom from 2012 until his death this year. The leading Mid-Atlantic sire for three consecutive years from 2015-17, Jump Start has led or was runner-up on the Pennsylvania sire list nine times since 2009. The sire of 71 stakes winners and earners of nearly $67 million lifetime, he ranks as the region's leading sire of 2019 through early November.

■ Despite a rain-soaked evening, fans endured to witness Mark Russell's dazzling 3-year-old Russell Road score by 8 lengths in the West Virginia Breeders Classic at Charles Town. Bred by Robert H. Lloyd, the James W. Casey trainee added a ninth stakes win to his resume from 14 starts.

■ Confucius Say was officially retired to his birthplace, the Funkhouser family's O'Sullivan Farms in Charles Town, at age 11. A son of the late O'Sullivan stallion Eastover Court, the two-time West Virginia Breeders Classic winner (2001, 2002) won or placed in 20 stakes, and made nearly half of his 42 starts after a 3½-year absence due to a tendon injury. "We went one year, then we went two years, then we went three years and we had people laughing at us," Funkhouser said. "Then we brought him back when he was 7 years old and people said, 'Aw, he'll never do anything.' He did pretty well when he was back." His earnings were just shy of $1 million, but the result of the 2007 West Virginia Breeders Classic was still in the courts, as winner Eastern Delite had come back positive for caffeine; Funkhouser believed the results would come out in runner up Confucius Say's favor.

They did. Confucius Say was awarded the victory, which pushed his earnings to $1,037,555.

■ After stints in flat racing and over hurdles, 8-year-old Maryland-bred Seeyouattheevent gave owner and Great Meadow founder Nick Arundel a second International Gold Cup timber stakes score to go along with his 2007 win. "This horse has been through a lot over the years, so for him to come back and win this race, two years after winning it, is really special," said Arundel. "He's been in the family a long time and I'm extremely proud of him and the job everyone did getting him ready."

ACROSTIC

By Vinnie Perrone

Waiting for the blacksmith, the vet, post time for your horse's race? Maybe you just have a little time on your hands. Regardless, try this acrostic puzzle, created by writer (and word puzzler) Vinnie Perrone. Not quite a crossword puzzle, a little more than Sudoku, an acrostic tests your knowledge of racing and other trivia. When you're done, the puzzle reveals a quote from the Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred archives and the speaker's name/topic. Solution provided next month.

HOW TO SOLVE: Define clues in Words column. Transfer letters to diagram. Quotation reads across; first letters of Words column, vertically, form acrostic of speaker's name and topic. NOTE: The puzzle contains no punctuation.

THIS IS THE 1 FOR SNOW
THE 1025R. THE 1 WITH THE OPTIONAL,
FACTORY-INSTALLED, HEATED CAB
This unparalleled, 25 HP, Sub-Compact Utility Tractor cab is designed to be comfortable for long hours of "get-that-snow-off-this-sidewalk" in cold, cold, cold conditions. You'll get front work lights to show the way and let traffic know you're there, removable, full glass doors for when it's cold and not so cold and a sun visor to fight glare. Plus, the windshield wipers, dual outside mirrors, internal domed lights, and optional stereo will always keep you in tune with the environment. Add a loader, snow blower, blade and a spreader, and clearing snow from sidewalks, park paths, side roads and long driveways is easy.
THIS IS THE 1 FOR YOU.

2020 Mid-Atlantic Stallion Directory

Pedigree page explanations

Included in this section are pedigrees and pertinent data on 71 Thoroughbred stallions standing at stud in the Mid-Atlantic region.

Statistics are accurate at least through Nov. 1, 2019. Statistics, as furnished by The Jockey Club Information Systems, Bloodstock Research Inc., Equibase and/or Daily Racing Form, include results from North America, England, Ireland, France, Italy and Japan. Foreign statistics for countries other than England, Ireland, France, Italy and Japan are included when available.

The Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred has adopted the following criteria for stakes qualification:

1. Winners of all stakes appear in boldface capitals.

2. Horses finishing second or third in stakes appear in boldface upper and lower case letters.

3. Horses finishing second or third in graded stakes, as defined by International Cataloguing Standards, appear in bold face upper and lower case letters.

Abbreviations: ntr—new track record, ncr—new course record, nAr—new American record, nCr—new Canadian record, nwr—new world record. An "e" substituted for "n" means "equals."

In Stud Records, the name of the sire of the dam appears in parentheses following the name of the stakes horse.

In Male Lines and Stud Records, progeny are arranged in order by champions, Grade 1 winners then stakes winners by earnings.

NOTICE: The eligibility status of stallions nominated to national or state breeders' programs (Breeders' Cup, Maryland Million, etc.) is dependent on the nominators' compliance with conditions, rules and regulations of those programs. Mid-Atlantic Thoroughbred cannot assume responsibility for nominators' compliance with these regulations. Mare owners are advised to confirm eligibility with the stallion owners.

DOSAGE

Dosage is explained as follows by Dr. Steve Roman, preeminent authority on the dosage system, a mathematical method of measuring a horse's inclination toward speed or stamina based on the chefs-de-race, or influential sires, in his pedigree.

" 'Chefs' are assigned to one or two of five aptitudinal groups (Brilliant, Intermediate, Classic, Solid and Professional) covering the spectrum (from left to right) of speed to endurance. We assign a total potential value of 16 points to each generation. Since there are, progressively, one, two, four and eight sires in the first four generations, 'chefs' which appear among these sires will contribute 16, 8, 4 and 2 points each as we work back. The points for all 'chefs' present are then tallied in the appropriate aptitude columns. 'Chefs' which confer two aptitudinal characteristics have their points split between the two aptitudes. In the end, the total points in each column produce the Dosage Profile, a series of five numbers which reflect the relative proportions of each of the five aptitudes in this order: Brilliant-Intermediate-Classic-Solid-Professional.

"The ratio of points in the speed wing (Brilliant points + Intermediate points + ½ the Classic points) to points in the stamina wing (½ the Classic points + Solid points + Professional points) is the Dosage Index. (Dividing the stamina points into the speed points.) This number is directly proportional to the speed in a pedigree and inversely proportional to the stamina. A DI of 1.00 indicates a perfect balance of the two.

"Consider the five aptitude groups as points spaced equally along a linear scale where Brilliant is assigned a value of +2.00, Intermediate is +1.00, Classic is 0.00, Solid is -1.00 and Professional is -2.00, the DP allows for the calculation of the Center of Distribution, that point along the scale corresponding to the total combined influence of all 'chefs' in the pedigree. Calculation of the CD is done by taking the sum of (twice the Brilliant points) + (Intermediate points) - (Solid points) - (twice the Professional points) and dividing that number by the total points in the DP. An exact balance of speed and stamina yields a CD of 0.00."

PEDIGREE CROSS INDEX

This Pedigree Cross Index allows a breeder to nick, inbreed or outcross his broodmares by easy reference. Indexed are the names of sires and dams included within the first three generations of all the stallions in the 2020 Stallion Directory.

Example: FORTY NINER - Dolphus, Hoppertunity, Il Postino, Uptowncharlybrown

In the above example, Forty Niner appears in one of the first three generations of all the stallions listed after him.

Suppose a breeder has a mare that is a granddaughter of Mr. Prospector or has crosses of that sire in a mare's pedigree. He may want to breed her to a stallion with Northern Dancer blood to take advantage of the Northern Dancer—Mr. Prospector nick. By looking up "Northern Dancer" in this index, he can quickly see all the stallions in this register that have Northern Dancer appearing in one of the first three generations of their pedigrees.

If a breeder's mare is a granddaughter of Seattle Slew, he may wish to inbreed to that stallion and thereby get more of Seattle Slew's makeup in the foal. By checking "Seattle Slew" in the index, the breeder can readily find all the advertised stallions that have Seattle Slew in their pedigrees.

What if a breeder's mare is already inbred or linebred? She might have 2 or 3 crosses of Deputy Minister in her first four generations for example. The breeder may want to make sure the stallion he chooses for his mare has no Deputy Minister or no Deputy Minister up close in his pedigree. By looking up "Deputy Minister" in the index, he can readily see the stallions in this Stallion Register he should avoid for his mare.

The pedigree cross index was prepared by The Jockey Club Information Services.
